

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.

EXCURSION TO GEORGETOWN—OVERCROWDED CARS AND EXASPERATED PASSENGERS—A SMALL SHOW VERY BADLY MANAGED.

There is, in the minds of some persons, a chronic tendency to underestimate everything belonging to Prince Edward Island—especially anything connected with its railway traffic; and, therefore, we were not much surprised to find that not half enough cars were provided, yesterday morning, for the accommodation of citizens and others anxious to attend the Provincial Exhibition.

The over-crowded train started shortly after seven. The seats were jammed full; and many—women as well as men—were compelled to stand. Of course there was general dissatisfaction. "Shameful mismanagement," and "downright imposition" were among the terms employed. But the inveterate good humor of the passengers soon got the better of their angry passions; and the trip—with all its stoppages and delays—was enlivened, as much as possible, by jokes and pleasantries and fun.

PRIZES AWARDED:

- HORSES. Best Thoroughbred Stallion, none. 2d do do none. 3d do do John Meagher, Georgetown. Best Carriage Stallion (imported or otherwise), William Nicholson, Dundas.

It is a matter of regret that you have found the funds placed at your disposal so inadequate; and I would express the hope that more ample provision will be made in future for this desirable object.

I cannot conclude without again thanking you for the very gratifying terms which you, as Commissioners for yourselves, as well as on behalf of the inhabitants of this town and the Province in general, welcome me, and for your kindly expressed wishes for my health and happiness; and I assure you that it always affords me sincere pleasure to meet the people of this Province on all such occasions.

His Honor then addressed a few complimentary sentences to the assemblage; and proceeded to inspect the articles on exhibition. These were few in number, but choice in quality; and like many other choice things, they were not seen to advantage.

Among the articles which we cannot forbear noticing this morning, were Mr. Heard's collection of grapes, tomatoes and onions; Mr. Edward Bayfield's magnificent squash, weighing 137 pounds, and his assortment of choice tomatoes and flowers; Mr. Donald Ferguson's fine new varieties of mangold wurtzel. We will endeavor to present a full and correct list of prizes tomorrow morning.

Mr. Don. Ferguson and Mr. Phillips, of Montague, exhibited some fine bred stock in pigs. The list of prizes will appear tomorrow. Grain, poultry, etc., were a poor show. The farming implements were good.

Mr. Stethen, of the Halifax Reform Club, gave in his opinion to the teaching of Mr. McKenzie. Told his own story of reformation—a story, grateful in its sequel, we are sure, to himself and at once a warning and an encouragement to those before him who were treading the same path.

MACKENZIE ON TEMPERANCE REFORM. The meeting last night was fully attended, and we learn that the Market Hall will be occupied with another meeting still larger. The choir was composed of ladies and gentlemen from several churches, who sang with effect several hymns—"I will Guide Thee with Mine Eye," "Pull for the Shore," "Go, Bury thy Sorrow," "Hold the Fort." After a hymn, followed by prayer from the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. McKenzie addressed the meeting; referred to the fact of his being Superintendent of an Inebriate Asylum, the Appleton Temporary Home, of Needham, Mass.; spoke of the need of such an Institution, caused by this terrible vice; warned his audience that this city had its own full share of the misery of intemperance; told of his own experience and of what he had seen in many instances—families degraded, intemperance taught at home, insanity inherited from intemperate parents, and all the long list of evil.

In spite of a severe cold he made the audience warm up with the enthusiasm which is a part of his nature. Mr. Stethen, of the Halifax Reform Club, gave in his opinion to the teaching of Mr. McKenzie. Told his own story of reformation—a story, grateful in its sequel, we are sure, to himself and at once a warning and an encouragement to those before him who were treading the same path.

Mr. Davies, of the Pictou Reform Club, spoke of the great success of the organization in his town, and called on Charlottetown to do—what he felt certain it would be able to do—roll up a splendid list in less than a week. After some words from Mr. McKenzie again, the people were called on to sign the, and the list at the close showed 46 names.

MADAME CORA and Company again performed last night to a small, but appreciative audience. The "sleight of hand" was dexterous and marvellous; the supernatural vision baffled the wisdom of the most philosophic, while in the "Couch of the Angels" the different characters were vividly and beautifully portrayed.

This Company are noted for their many acts of generosity towards charitable objects, and in their tours round the world have frequently given benefits in aid of such. Following out their generous impulses, the management announce that there will be no performance to-night; but that tomorrow afternoon, at two o'clock, there will be a Matinee, for the accommodation of ladies and children (the admission to which will be 25 and 10 cents); and at eight o'clock a performance, half the gross proceeds of which will be given in aid of our long talked-of, but longer wanted hospital. The Concert given a week or two ago in aid of the same object formed a nucleus around which funds will rapidly gather if the matter be properly taken in hand. It should, indeed, be a matter of reproach to us that the only efforts that have so far been put forward with this humane object in view, have been by STRANGERS; and remembering the maxim that "Heaven helps those who help themselves," it is about time to exert ourselves if we expect a blessing to rest upon our work.

We trust that our citizens will rally on this occasion, and by a bumper house prove to the world that we are not content to sit idly by and see those institutions which every christian community should possess for the purpose of carrying out the Divine injunction "Clothe the naked, feed the hungry and visit the sick," provided for us by strangers.

FOOT RACE.—The foot race between Peter Anderson and Arthur McHugh, for $50 side, distance 150 yards, took place on the 26th, at Moosepath Park, St. John, resulting in the defeat of the latter by about ten yards. Time, 17½ sec.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A man named Geo. Brown, fell from a scaffold twenty feet high in St. John on the 26th, and broke his two arms, and received serious internal injuries from which he is not expected to recover.

MILL SALE.—The mill property on the Cocagne River, owned by Hon. William Richards, of P. E. Island, and known as the Scovill Mill, has been sold to Messrs. Smith and Barnes, of Shediac, for $6,000—so reports say.

A JUDGE IN CRAYON.—A Sussex correspondent of the Moncton Times praises a crayon portrait of Stipendiary Magistrate Wallace which Mr. Allen has placed on exhibition at Messrs. Humphrey & White's. It is so striking a likeness that evildoers tremble at the sight, and small boys refrain from pocketing apples according to their wont.—News.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of Correspondents. To the Editor of the Daily Examiner: MR. EDITOR,—Has the City Council ever thought of erecting a windmill at John Heartz's pump, Gallows Hill. Some say this water is superior to Spring Park water for drinking purposes, and I greatly believe it is. Besides, how handy it would be to turn the taps and get water enough without any trouble. One thing is certain, a water supply is wanted for Charlottetown, and Ward 5 in particular. Should a fire take place, our wells are so deep that the engines can do but little to save property. I am, Sir, Yours, MORE ANON. Charlottetown, Sept. 27, 1877.

To the Editor of the Examiner: SIR.—Ward 5 wants to know when may the citizens on Euston street hope to have the drains of their street opened. The water now runs down on the middle of the street. Altogether, it is a sorry looking place to be one of our most public thoroughfares. This street would only take but a short time to fix, and then go on again with Cumberland street, where the men are now working. Yours, WARD 5. Sept. 25th, 1877. THE Sunnyside Journal says: "It is reported that a new paper, to be called the Liberal-Conservative, is to be started in Charlottetown before very long."
