

4 Prayers For $1000 Prize

"I said four prayers before I shot." And with that, 10-year-old Marty Halladay, Garsten Grove, California, proceeded to win himself $1,000 Friday night at the Sports Arena.

Marty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Halladay, nephew of Mrs. Beecher Hickox and grandson of William Halladay. Montague. Marty acquired his prize by shooting a hockey puck 120 feet into a six inch opening. It marked only the second time this season that the "Shoot on Pancho" MJB coffee gimmick that the Los Angeles Blades stage every home game has produced a thousand dollar winner.

With his $1,000, freckle-faced Marty — who attended the game with his father and sister, Fern, 14 — also took home an abundant supply of coffee.

A deeply religious youngster, Marty plans to contribute some of the money to church missionary work. As for the rest of it, he's just going to set it aside.

Marty had never held a hockey stick in his hands before, much less putting it to use. His efforts brought a thunderous ovation from 5,585 Blade rooters.

Montague High Wins KCIHL

The deciding game, played in Morell, was a close contest right up until the final minutes when John Bell scored the winning goal to give Montague a 5-4 win. Other Montague goals were scored by Eric Ellsworth 2, Wayne Keenan 1, and Gordie Inman 1.
