Dalhousie College.

PASS LIST.

The following is a list of the Dalhousie College students who obtained seventy-five or more marks at the recent examinations:

Latin—J. P. McLeod, Valleyfield, P.E.I., 90; I. Gammel, 77; J. S. Trueman, 76; J.
Robinson, Ch'town 75; J. A. Ball, 74.
Greek—J. P. McLeod, Ch'town, 92; W.
Aiton, 79; I. Gammel, 77.
French—H. McLish, Pownal, 85; H. McN.
Smith, 85.
Hebrew—G. Carson, 86.
Rhetoric—J. M. McLeod, Valleyfield, 81.
Botany—H. McN. Smith, 80.
Mathematics—Miss L. B. Calkin, 84; D. A.
Murray, 80; J. P. McLeod, Valleyfield, 77; K. Martin, Eldon, 77; Miss Newcombe, 76; History—W. Crowe, 79.
Ethics—G. Carson, 76.5.

The present session has been a very successful one, the only occasion for regret being the serious illness of Prof. McDonald who has not yet recovered. Several innovations and improvements have, during the winter, marked the progress of the College, among others the equipment of a first class gymnasium—a valuable addition and very greatly appreciated—and the enlargement and improvement of the reading room. The two pioneers of the gentler sex, who this year availed themselves of Dalhousie's privileges for their education, have acquitted themselves very creditably, taking high honors, and their example will doubtless be followed by a considerable number of lady candidates coming forward at the next session. The P. E. Island, students, of whom there are a larger number now than heretofore, have all done well, some of them particularly so. The pass list of the graduating class this year is a good record, including all of the applicants for degree, and it is rather a large class; they, too, have set an example worthy of imitation in presenting to the college reading-room a handsomely framed photo of the group complete. The closing convocation will be held in the Assembly Room, Provincial Building, on Wednesday, at 3 p. m. The valedictory address of the graduates will probably be delivered by Mr. H. T. Mellish, of Pownal. The proceedings will, no doubt, be of a very interesting character.—His Chronicle.

The Late Archbishop of Halifax.

IMPRESSIVE OBSEQUES—THE MILITARY AND CIVIC OFFICIALS IN THE PROCESSION.

Early on Friday morning, people began to collect at St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, to witness the solemn obsequies of the late Archbishop, and by nine o'clock the vast Cathedral was crowded with a reverent and mourning multitude. Shortly after that hour the bishops and priests entered the sanctuary, including all the prelates and priests from abroad and the city. These having taken up their positions the laity from the Office for the Dead were chanted by Right Rev. Dr.
Sweeney, Bishop of St. John, assisted by Rev.
Father Dowd, of Montreal; Rev. Mgr. Power, Rev. C. O'Brien, of Charlottetown, Rev. F.
Murphy, Rev. W. Verriker, of New Brunswick; Rev. J. W. Manning, of Tusket; Rev.
W. B. Hamilton, of Londonderry; and Rev.
J. C. Bernard, of Digby Co.
The office having been gone through, Right Rev. Dr. Sweeney entered the sanctuary, ascended the altar, and commenced the solemn requiem mass. The solemn high mass over, Rev. Father Wissel ascended the pulpit and delivered a lengthy and most impressive panegyric, at the conclusion of which the libera was sung and absolution pronounced.

At 12.30 o'clock the funeral cortege started from the Cathedral. It was headed by the Juvenile Catholic Societies of the city, behind whom came the deceased's medical attendants, the order being as follows:—

1. Juvenile Catholic Societies.
2. Medical Attendants.
3. Alter Boys and Acolytes.
4. Visiting Bishops and Clergy.
5. Officiating Clergy.
6. Officiating Bishops.
7. Chief Mourners.
8. Invited Mourners.
9. Members and Officers of the Corporation of City of Halifax 10. Warden and County Council of Halifax.
11. Officers of H. M. Army and Local Forces.
12. Various Catholic Societies.
13. Citizens, 4 deep.
14. Non-com. officers and men of the Army and Local Forces.
15. Carriages.

An idea of the length of the procession may be gathered from the fact that it took over half an hour to pass a given point.

The streets on the route were lined part of the way by Roman Catholic men of the various Imperial troops of the garrison and of the 63rd H. V. B. rifles. The whole wheeled in at the close of the procession marching four deep.

Every window and available points of vantage on the line of procession was crowded and business throughout the city was almost entirely suspended. Flags were displayed at half-mast from the citadel and public buildings, as well as on the shipping in port and many places of business and private residences.
The big bell of St. Mary's, of course, has been tolling ever since the death, and, to day, as the funeral passed through the streets, the bells of St. Luke's cathedral and St. Paul's church were also tolled.

Among the mourners in the procession were many clergymen of Protestant churches. On arriving at the Cemetery of the Holy Cross, the usual burial service was repeated and the coffin was lowered into its final resting place.

Herr Heinrich Haag, known in Europe as the "India-Rubber Man," was recently exhibited at the Ashland House, New York, before a number of medical men, among whom were Drs. Louis A. Sayre, H.
G. Piffard, Wm. M. Carpenter, Taylor, H.
H. Baxter, Charles Van Ness, and a score of students. Haag, who was born in Bavaria thirty-two years ago, is about the medium height, and by no means stout.
After being thoroughly examined by the medical men present, Haag stretched the skin of his forehead over his entire face.
He can stretch the skin of his chest fully a foot, and draw the skin of his legs over the knee and tie it in a knot. When the skin is released it immediately returns to its natural position.

Ladies' Land League.

The regular meeting of the Charlottetown Branch of the Ladies' Land League was held last night in Full's Hall. The President, Mrs. E. W. Smith, being absent on business, the Vice President, Mrs. P. C. Kelly, occupied the chair.

The Hall was well filled, and the names of ten new members added to the roll.
Mrs. M. A. Burke, being called upon, gave one of the most eloquent addresses on "Irish Grievances," that has been listened to since the organization of the League.

Miss Alice Patterson read a postical production from Donahoe's Monthly, entitled "The Dunganon Convention." Miss E.
Sweeney contributed very much to the entertainment of the meeting by reading Mr. T. P.
O'Connor's speech on "The doom of Lords and Landlords."

After listening to some vocal and instrumental music, the meeting adjourned to meet again on May 9th.

MARY F. COX,
Secretary.

April 25th, 1882.

Public Meeting at Centreville, Prince County.

A POLITICAL MEETING, called by the Opposition, was held at Centreville, on Monday, 24th inst., at two p. m.

Mr. F. Moyle was called to the Chair.
The speakers on the Government side were S. Burns, A. E. C. Holland, and G. W. Bentley; and, for the Opposition, Messrs. Lea, Stafford and Carruthers.

After a very spirited but orderly discussion, in which some important charges were made against the Government, and completely refuted by the late representatives (Holland and Bentley), the following gentlemen were nominated, and the nominations declared carried by the chairman:—

G. W. BENTLEY, proposed and seconded by Major Wright, Esq., and D. McDonald, Esq., of Bedeque.

A. E. C. HOLLAND, proposed and seconded by P. Duffy, Esq., and Nelson Clarke, Esq., of Cape Traverse, in the interest of the Government.

A. LAIRD, and W. C. Lea, Esqrs., were nominated in the interest of the Opposition.

Mr. Laird, who was reported absent through illness, was represented by James Carruthers.

The meeting was quiet and orderly, and each speaker got a good hearing.
The feeling throughout the district is very favorable toward the Government.

Land League Meeting at Mill Cove.

The inhabitants of Mill Cove spent a very enjoyable evening, on Wednesday, the 12th inst. The School-house was densely crowded by persons of all classes, creeds and nationalities. The President, James Trainor, Esq., occupied the chair.

The speakers from Charlottetown were Mrs. E. W. Smith, Messrs. Richard Walsh and James Byrne.

Mrs. Smith was the first to speak, which she did in her usual pleasing style; and when I say it was equal to her former speech, I think it sufficient praise. The audience, by their attention, showed their appreciation of Mrs. Smith's noble efforts.

Mr. Richard Walsh was the next speaker.
He, in a very suitable manner, explained the Land Question, referred to the work accomplished by the Land League, and refuted the charges and slanders cast on the Irish people. Ardor and love of country seemed to be combined in every word Mr.
Walsh uttered, and he was listened to with the greatest attention.

Towards the close of his address he read an extract from a letter in the Pilot by John Murdoch, Esq., whom the speaker designated a whole-souled Scotchman.

James Byrne, Esq., on being called upon, wished the audience to understand that he was only a subordinate to Mrs. Smith and Mr. Walsh. However, it is difficult to imagine Mr. Byrne as subordinate to any one, particularly in the way of public speaking; and on this occasion he especially delighted the very intelligent audience, as Mr. Byrne was pleased to term it.

The meeting was also addressed by Messrs. James Morrison, Peter Campbell and Angus McInnis. Mr. Morrison's speech was well received, as it deserved to be. Mr. Campbell, in his usual impressive manner, gave a correct account of the terrors of landlordism in P. E. Island, and also in Scotland. Mr. McInnis's speech was good, and truly eloquent.

After the speeches a large number of new members were enrolled, and a handsome collection taken up. The total number of members enrolled is seventy-four.

Several persons volunteered to give addresses, readings and recitations for next evening's entertainment.

I must not forget to mention the readings by Miss Nelson and Miss Patterson, which were heartily applauded.

A unanimous vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Smith, Mr. Walsh and Mr. Byrne, which was suitably acknowledged.

After a few encouraging remarks from the President, the meeting adjourned until Wednesday, 3rd May next, at half-past six o'clock, p. m.

JOHN T. MCINNIS,
Secretary.

Somebody, it seems, has been at the pains to collect the elegant names that have been bestowed by one of the kept newspapers of the license victuallers, fac-tiously known as the "Barrel Organ," on Sir Wilfrid Lawson. "They have called me," says that long-suffering humorist, "that Old Cracked Tea Pot, the Water-Jester, a Demented Creature, that Washed out Water Party, the Drivelling Idiot, the Brainless Fanatic, the Confiscatory Molly Coddle, the Empty-headed Noodle, the Peregrinating Pump Handle, the Tea-drinking Twaddler, the Pop-bottle Pump Orator, the Permissive Platitudinist, the Peripatetic Agitator, the Utopian Dreamer, the Maudlin Mountebank, the Crowning Clown, that Fool of Fools, the Wailing Cant, the Arrant Humbug, the Apostle of Slops."
