IN MEMORIAM

LIVINGSTON - In loving memory of John Alexander Livingston who departed this life Oct. 20th, 1963. A page in the book of memory. Sister Mary, Sister, Belle, Jeanne and Margaret.

RAYNER - In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, Wallace H. Rayner, who died on the Lord called home, October 20, 1964. Wonderful memories of one so dear. Treasured still with a love sincere in my heart he is living yet. I loved him too dearly to forget. Ever remembered by his wife, Linnie.

CARD OF THANKS

WIFE - In loving memory of Ernest L. Corroy, who passed away October 28th, 1965. Ever remembered by son Orvin, daughter-in-law Wanda and girls.

PROCTOR - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Leasing Proctor who departed this life October 28th, 1965. So many things have happened since you were called away. So many things to share with you that we have not had time to do. Every day in small ways. Memories of you come our way. Though absent, you are ever near. Still missed, loved, always dear. Sadly missed by wife, Bernadette, children, Patricia and John.

RAYNER - In loving memory of our dear dad, Wallace H. Rayner, who departed this life October 20, 1964. We had a wonderful day. To us he was one of the best. Then one morning God called him home. To the beautiful haven of rest. It broke our hearts to lose him. But he did not go alone. For part of us went with him. The day God called him home. Lovingly remembered by his family, friends and neighbors.

THANKS!

The Family of the late Mrs. Patrick Mulligan, Newton wishes to express sincere appreciation to Dr. Daniel Stewart, Bedeque, her Doctors and Nurses at Charlottetown Hospital, her neighbors and friends who were so helpful in so many ways at the time of her illness and death.

CARD OF THANKS

THE FAMILY of the late Winifred Dunn, wish to thank their many kind friends and neighbors who sent cards, flowers and helped in various ways in their recent sad bereavement. Thank you, I remain, Mrs. Winifred Dunn.

OBITUARY

JAMES LEONARD COURT - On August 23, 1965, God called to His Heavenly Home the soul of James Leonard Court. Although his illness was of a severe nature which confined him to the Charlottetown Hospital for several months his condition had improved and recovery was expected. His sudden death despite all medical aid and tender care came as a great shock to his family and friends.

Born the son of Joseph Court and Lauretta Paldwell at Mill Cove, December 10, 1910, where he lived until the war broke out in 1939 when he enlisted with the Royal Canadian Artillery, with this unit he went overseas in 1940, serving in England and France until 1944 when he returned to Canada. Being discharged in 1945 he took up residence in Charlottetown where he resided until his death.

Jim was he was familiarly known to his many friends and neighbours was always ready with a helping hand to those in need and is sadly missed by all who knew him.

Left to mourn his sudden passing are his wife, the former Nora Bowlan, two sons, Joseph, 11; and Lloyd, 4; also two sisters, Mrs. Gordon Coles and Mrs. Charles Reid, both of Suffolk, P.E.I. two brothers, Albert and Ernest of Mill Cove. A sister Mrs. Wilfred Ellis and a brother, Bradford, predeceased him. His largely attended funeral was held from the Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Pius X Church, Parkdale where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. P.P. MacDonald, V.G. who also conducted the service at the grave. Seated in the Sanctuary was a Rev. O.P. Wood, Rev. Andrew MacDonald assisted in the choir. The pallbearers were six nephews, Everett Court, Nelson Court, Kenneth Ellis, John Weir, Paul Weir and Roland Horne. The Royal Canadian Legion service was conducted by Harry Mortimer. Burial took place in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The many floral tributes, Mass Cards, and letters of sympathy received pay tribute to the esteem in which he was held.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let Perpetual Light shine upon him. May His Soul rest in Peace.

HE'S ON THE LIST
Scamp Walton, held by his master, Toronto rector Robert Walton, checks voters list for Spadina riding and finds his name—and "occupation." Mr. Walton said Scamp put on quite a performance for enumerators and his high IQ apparently earned him the franchise. Owner took it as a joke when he was handed slip with dog's name on it.

CNR Admits Responsibility In Tieup Of Export Grain
VANCOUVER (CP) - The CNR has admitted it could be a grain tie-up here that has caused concern to shippers. The CPR declined to take any responsibility. Meanwhile, some elevators were only half full and eight ships waited at anchor in the harbor for grain. Only six of Vancouver's 19 grain berths were loading grain Friday. The secretary of the Vancouver Grain Exchange, W. A. C. Sankey, said the economy of Canada could be seriously a danger unless the grain clog were freed. "Overseas buyers are disappointed and will seek supplies from other countries," Sankey said. He blamed the railways for not moving grain to the elevators fast enough to meet the demand.

COULDN'T MOVE
The CPR agreed the cars were billed to specific elevators but said they couldn't be moved in unless there was space for them. There was no storage space at the elevators. A CNR spokesman however, admitted there had been some delay on the CN's part in getting grain cars to the elevators from city yards. He said it was largely a case of congestion on the city waterfront, but added there appeared to be a slowdown at times by train crews. The company had not been notified of any specific grievances on the part of the crews. One authoritative source in the grain trade blamed the tie-up solely on the CNR. "The CN can't even pull empties away from the elevators when requested," he said, "and this fouls up the CPR as well because of the interchange service wherein they both use the same tracks." He estimated that grain shipments could be increased by at least 25 per cent if the CNR could speed up service between its city yards and the elevators. Meanwhile, the Vancouver Grain Exchange said Monday it had received no reply from an urgent telegram to trade Minister Mitchell Sharp regarding the grain bottleneck.
