FREE TRADE is, as I have repeatedly explained, FOR US IMPOSSIBLE.—Edward Blake's Manifesto.

IN the Prince of Wales College and Normal School Prize list, published a few days ago, the prize awarded to John McPhee by Hon. D. Laird for General Proficiency was omitted.

A DISGUSTED Free Trader says, that as a lawyer, Mr. Blake is all very well; but "as a politician, he is the greatest humbug in Canada." In our opinion he is not worse than Cartwright.

REPORTERS have reached England of the discovery of vast quantities of gold on the Gold Coast; it being stated that the roads and the city streets are a glitter with the precious metal.

JOHN L. DOYLE, Esq., of Bridgewater, says Minard's Liniment cured him of a severe case of neuralgia in the head, also a perfect cure of an abscess of the jaw, of long standing.

WE learn that Mr. James Dover, of this city, has been selected a member of the Wimbeldon Team. He is the only representative of this Province, and will, no doubt, give a good account of himself. The team sails from Quebec on the 23rd inst. Mr. Dover, therefore, will scarcely have time to vote.

PERSONAL.—W. B. Knight, Secretary of the Peter's Combination Lock Company, left town this morning, for Pictou, Nova Scotia. We understand he intends visiting several of the leading towns in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island on business in connection with the Company.—Moncton Times.

LIEUTENANT DANENHAUER and his fellow-survivors of the "Jennette" Arctic expedition arrived at New York on Saturday night by the "Celtic." The party were met in the Bay by a party of distinguished friends on board a steamer specially chartered for the occasion. The meeting between Lieutenant Danenhauer and his parents was very affecting.

THE steamer "Carroll," Capt. Wright, arrived from Boston last night, with a large freight of merchandise, including 2,400 barrels of flour. The "Carroll" remains the same substantial, well arranged and well equipped steamer she was last season. Her passenger accommodation is first-class, and with careful and attentive officers, such as Capt. Wright, Capt. Brown, Mr. Nickerson and Mr. Walsh, a trip to Boston cannot fail to be otherwise than enjoyable. We wish the "Carroll" and crew success in her summer's work.

THE Halifax Chronicle says: Rev. Thos. Duncan, the popular pastor of St. Andrew's Church, in this city, has been asked to labor in North Merchiston Church, Edinburgh. We understand Mr. Duncan will respond favorably to the call. His departure will be regretted not only by his congregation, but by all who have known him in this city. All will join in congratulating him on the high honor conferred upon him by so prominent and influential a parish as that from which the call comes.

THE steamer "Carroll," Captain Wright, sailed for Boston this evening with a cargo consisting of lobsters, potatoes, eggs, and canned goods. She had also the following passengers:—John Taylor, Mrs. John Gaffney, Miss Lydia, Mrs. W. J. Hornsby, Mrs. Charles Brewer, Miss Etta Brooks, Mrs. Benj. CORRESPONDENCE.

The Campaign in Queen's. DAVIES SOLICITING THE SECOND VOTE.

To the Editor of the Examiner. DEAR SIR,—Canvassing for a second vote was considered treacherous when done by Hon. D. Ferguson. But what are we to think of it when done by no less a dignitary than Hon. Louis H. Davies? But Mr. Davies' case is even worse, for he canvassed a respectable elector of Eldon for his second vote on the ground that he was brought out by both parties! Now, two things are self-evident—either Mr. D. is afraid Mr. Laird may be elected, and whatever grabbing is to be done he will do all of that business, or he (Mr. D.) finds Mr. Laird's crookedness will very much obstruct the way. Any way, Mr. D. is evidently getting discouraged, and is determined to get in himself by any means. By the way, I may add that the meeting at Eldon was very small. Mr. Laird said he came down here to "instruct the ignorant." Yours very truly, ELECTOR. Belfast, May 31, 1882.

The Patriot's Misrepresentations Refuted.

To the Editor of the Examiner. SIR,—I notice in yesterday's Daily Patriot an item in reference to Victoria Bridge, condemning Mr. Campbell for mismanagement in reference to this work, and also charging Mr. Anthony Collet for not being an efficient man for the inspection of such work. The facts are Mr. Collet had nothing whatever to do with this contract, nor did he receive one dollar for it. The contract was let to Wesley and Robert Myers, and when it was finished all parties claimed it was a good job, but there being such a strong current running through the arches it washed out the mud from under the brush-work, and the work, consequently, settled. It is now being filled in with hard stone at a small cost, and it is supposed will stand for years. If the editor of the Patriot will enquire at W. D. S., I have no doubt he will kindly tell him who inspected the work. ONE WHO KNOWS. Crapaud, May 31, 1882.
