young Geese crowding around Mrs. Honker and him. "I was afraid of something of this kind. Your brother was always a little bit too careless. A little bit can be much too much. It was this time. The careless Geese never lives to grow old."

"Don't you think we better go a little farther out to sleep?" ventured a young traveler, looking back fearfully at the Black Shadows where his brother had disappeared. THE HAGUE, Nov. 5 — (Reuters) —The Netherlands has launched a protest against the U. S. for selling surplus cheese to Britain at "cut rate prices." An Agriculture Department spokesman said Saturday that the Dutch complained to the International Food and Agriculture Organization, though no official protest was lodged.

Girl Guide News

Details Scroll-of-Friendship Week

Leaders, you are waiting for this news so please read and note carefully. Make sure that your Guides are fully acquainted with the programme. Your commissioners will be contacting you respecting the duties of special Guides and Brownies, Monday, Nov. 13th. Guides are requested to send a card of Guides and Brownies in full uniform accompanied by an adult in charge, to the Airport at 4.15 p.m. If you should have any difficulty in obtaining a car contact your Commissioner but your Church Committee should be requested to help. The Scroll will be arriving at the Airport at 4.30 p.m. so do not be late. Tuesday, Nov. 14th, the Scroll will be on display to the children and members of the public from 4 p.m. until 7.30 p.m. A Guide and Brownie will be on guard by the Scroll all the period of display. At 6 p.m. we shall have a rally of all Queens County Guides and Brownies. This will include Southport, Marshfield, Rustico, East Royalty, Central Royalty and Morell. Charlottetown Companies and Packs are also included. Guides and Brownies will meet at their respective churches and proceed to Prince of Wales College Auditorium where the Scroll will be on display and the Rally will take place. Guide leaders are requested to choose a smart color party and to carry the Company flag if possible. We plan to have a color party from each Company, this is important. Once again we would ask that Guides and Brownies behave in a very orderly and quiet manner and do not cause any undue disturbance either inside or outside the building. The Rally will conclude at 7.30 p.m. Mrs. Jenkins will be available this week if you are in any doubt regarding the arrangements or phone your Commissioner. Mrs. MacDonald, telephone 1454 and Mrs. Dumont 875-L. Mrs. Jenkins will also be at the Rally should you need help. Wednesday, Nov. 15th, is the date of the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Girl Guide Association. This will be held at the Clover Club at 3.05 p.m. Tea will be served and the Scroll will again be on display. Miss Lucille MacQuaid, Summerside Guide, will talk of her camping experiences while in Florida. Members of the Provincial Council, the Executive and the Local Associations are invited and members of the public will also be welcome. Guide and Brownie leaders are especially requested to attend in full uniform where possible. We would also be happy to have leaders assist as ushers and in the serving of the tea. This is a very large programme for the week of Nov. 13th but it should be a week that we shall remember for always. Your co-operation is earnestly requested to make the week a success and to ensure that as many Guides and Brownies attend the Rally as possible.

HAPPY DAYS AT TIGNISH GUIDE COMPANY

The 1st Tignish Guides had the most impressive meeting since they commenced Guiding. On Friday last 1st Guides and their leaders invited parents and members of the C.W.L. to a very special presentation ceremony. Guides were smartly turned out in full uniform, pins polished, ties spotless and conduct superb. It is a company with which all Prince Edward Island Guides can feel proud to be associated. Guides marched into horseshoe formation with color party, Myrtle Keough, Shirley Perry and Jean Skerry. This was the first time Tignish carried the colors and were they proud! Recruits enrolled by Mrs. Jenkins were, Doris Richards, Doris Keough and Ernestine MacDonald. Guides receiving Second Class Badges were Aurelia Perry, Irma Harper, Teresa MacPhee, Freda Hogan, Barbara Shea, Florence Huote, Jean Gaudet, Marion Keough, Irene Richard, Lorna McInnis, Helen Marie McCormack, Joan MacDonald, Shirley Perry, Jean Skerry, Myrtle Keough. Mrs. J. J. McNally, Commissioner presented the badges and congratulated each recipient. Mrs. Jenkins explained the work to be undertaken for the winter. The World Guiding Essay was the first of the new work to be tackled and Mrs. McNally was to organize a Child-Nurse course as given in Charlottetown. Parents showed considerable interest and one said how happy she was to come to the meeting to find out what went on at Guides as the girls were always so anxious to attend meetings. Films were shown on Fire-prevention and Safety in the Home. Arthur Arsenault very kindly gave of his time to operate the machine for the showing. A lovely Camp Fire in the dim red light and never have the Guides of Tignish sung so well, it was lovely and Evensong and Taps renewal of the Guide Promise concluded the Guide evening. Refreshments were appreciated by everyone after the exciting evening and were kindly provided by the C.W.L. who are the sponsors of Guiding in Tignish. On Saturday the girls met with Mrs. Jenkins, F. Sec. to take notes for the Guiding Essay and they worked with a will and it will not be long before that part of the First Class Test is completed. Mrs. Skerry, C.W.L. President, spoke most sincerely on the work of Guiding and thanked all those who helped to make it a success.
