

The Duke of Edinburgh chats with Group Capt. J. G. Stephenson, commanding officer of RCAF station Rockcliffe, before leaving for a tour of the Chalk River atomic plant. There, he was checked for radio-activity and saw the huge reactor.

North Baltic

her departure for Hamilton, where she has recently been called and where she will be stationed for the next year.

Miss Carol Fisher, Old Barnes, N. S., is now the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon.

Rev. S.S. Christine, accompanied by Rev. S.S. Mary Hilda, both of Montreal, spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of St. Christine's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Mossey, East Baltic.

Friends of Mr. Harry Mallard are sorry to hear of his illness in City Hospital, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Arnold Brown, Montreal, with her daughter is vacationing with her mother, Mrs. Flora McEachern, Priest Pond.

Mr. Matthias Carew recently returned from Ottawa, where he has secured a position. Mr. Green intends going to Ottawa in the near future.

Mrs. Kay Farrell was a visitor to Charlottetown on July 28.

The Rollo Bay picnic was held July 28 and as usual was a success. Dinner was served by the ladies of St. Alexis parish in their usual good style.

Mr. Arthur Keene and Mr. J. A. MacInnes were visitors to Souris on July 29.

A meeting of the Altar Society was held on Wednesday night at Priest Pond school. Although the night was inclement, a successful meeting was held. East Baltic was represented by Mrs. John B. Fay, Mrs. G. H. Bowser and Mrs. P. D. Mossey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy and children, Montreal, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Eugene Murphy, East Baltic.

Mrs. Carrie Weldon, who spent a vacation at the home of Mr. R. Band of that city. Before departing, Miss Bruce was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson, Kingsboro.

Rev. S. S. Ronalds, St. Dunstan's University, spent two days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Muppy, before

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McMahon, Hamilton, Ont., are spending their vacation at their summer home at St. Columba.

Mr. and Mrs. Scotty McBride and two children of Hamilton, Ont., are spending some time at Mrs. McBride's former home at St. Columba.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMahon recently had as their guests, Rev. Robert Ross and Mrs. Ross, also Mrs. Ross's father, Mr. Freeman Garrett. Mr. Garrett was formerly a neighbor of the McMahon's, but retired from farming to live in Souris, P. E. I.

Mr. Garfield Robertson, accompanied by his wife and three children, motored from Lachine, Que., to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, where they will visit for a few weeks.

Miss Florence Bruce returned recently to Toronto, Ont., where she will become the bride of Mr. R. Band of that city. Before departing, Miss Bruce was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson, Kingsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bambrick, who have been with friends here since they arrived from Boston a month ago, have moved to Lakeside beach where they have purchased a cottage.

Miss Pauline O'Brien of the Charlottetown Hospital Staff, is spending her vacation at her home in Bristol.

Miss Rita Ryan, who arrived from Montreal a short time ago, has joined the staff of the Morell Co-operative store.

There are a lot of sick children here at present and doctors say that it is the summer flu; it is also attacking adults.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quinn and children, who spent several weeks with Mrs. Quinn's mother, Mrs. Jennie McCarthy at the old home, left last week on return to their home in Montreal.

Mr. Eph Malone returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital on Thursday, after being a patient there for a few days.

Rev. Frank MacDonald, S.J., Montreal, arrived here on Friday for a week's vacation.

The monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Herb Kenny. Following the business meeting a lovely supper was

There ought to be a law by Fagaly And Shorten

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Munn, Hamilton, Ont., were recent visitors to Murray River, visiting with old friends and relatives.

Miss Betty Clarey, Murray River, is spending a few days in Whim Road, guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Clarey.

Miss Kathleen Martin, Murray River, is spending her holidays with relatives in Moncton, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hickox and young sons of Port Credit, Ont.,

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gass and young sons have returned to Toronto, Ont., after spending their holidays with his relatives in New Haven and Mrs. Gass's parents in Murray River, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jenkins.

Mrs. Lennie Chandler, Mt. Albion and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren and son, Massachusetts, were recent visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. Lennie's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Art Gosbee.

Miss Patsy Cooper, Southport, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buell, North River.

A. C. 2 Arnett MacLean and A. C. 2 George Best who are stationed with the R. C. A. P. in Halifax spent the week-end of July 31, at the home of Arnett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard MacLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Nicolle, Charlottetown, are spending a few days in Murray River guests of Mr. Norman MacLeod, while here they attended the wedding of their granddaughter the former Norma Nicolle, whose wedding took place on July 31, in the Church of Christ, Murray River.

Mr. Russell Munn, Murray River, is spending his holidays, visiting with friends in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Porter and young son Larry of Windsor, Ont., are spending their holidays at the home of their mothers, Mrs. Ada Buell, White Sands, and Mrs. Clara Porter, Murray River.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hume and young sons, Charlottetown, were Sunday visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crete Beck.

Mr. Harold Moore High Bank left recently for Ontario, where he hopes to find employment.

Mr. William Stewart, who is employed at West Cape spent the week-end of July 31, at his home in Murray River.

The state of Viet Nam in French Indo-China was conquered by the Chinese in the third century, B. C.

St. Georges

Miss Eileen Johnston is now employed in Souris.

Miss Sarah MacCormick was a business visitor to Charlottetown on July 13.

Mr. Joseph FitzPatrick is a patient in the City Hospital. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald returned to Dorchester, Mass., after spending two weeks in St. George's and Newport.

Mr. Albert MacPhee is visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George MacPhee, Vernon River.

Mr. Austin Johnston, accompanied by Mr. Allan MacPhee and Mr. Jack Somers were business visitors to Georgetown on July 22.

An enjoyable dance was held in Cardigan North school recently. A large crowd attended. Music was supplied by the Turner-MacLeod orchestra.

Misses Georgia and Julia Campbell returned to Boston after spending the past two weeks at their old home in Poplar Point.

Misses Mary Somers and Yvonne Gardener, who are taking teacher's training in Charlottetown, spent the past week-end at their homes in St. George's and launching.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitney, Rosindale, Mass., have arrived here to vacation with Mrs. Whitney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald at the old homestead. Mrs. Whitney left here many years ago and her many friends are giving her a big welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Millar, New Haven, Conn., are visiting their old friends here. At present they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eph Malone.

Mr. Art Kenny and two sons, arrived Saturday night from Rumford, Maine, to vacation with Mr. Kenny's brother Herb and Mrs. Kenny for a couple of weeks. They will also visit Sturgeon and Iona before returning home.

During the week this scribe had several visitors from the U.S.A. whom he had never met. They were old Islanders who follow this column and wanted to visit here to meet the writer of home news.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith have arrived in Bristol from Ontario to visit Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus MacDonald.

Dr. and Mrs. Chisholm have arrived from New Waterford, N.S., to vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bonnell for a few weeks.

Miss Cathy MacDonald, Halifax, N.S., arrived here on Saturday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. MacDonald. She has resided in Halifax, along with her two sisters, for several years now.

Miss Agatha MacDonald, Montreal, who is on vacation with her parents in the city at present, spent a few days in Bristol last week with her pal, Miss Tillie Gauthier. Both these girls will leave late this month on return to the big city.

Mr. J. J. Dunphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dunphy, who graduated from B.D.U. last spring, has been spending the summer in British Columbia at the Canadian Army depot. He will return home shortly for a vacation before following up his studies in Halifax, N.S., next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quinn and children, who spent several weeks with Mrs. Quinn's mother, Mrs. Jennie McCarthy at the old home, left last week on return to their home in Montreal.

Mr. Eph Malone returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital on Thursday, after being a patient there for a few days.

Rev. Frank MacDonald, S.J., Montreal, arrived here on Friday for a week's vacation.

The monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Herb Kenny. Following the business meeting a lovely supper was

There ought to be a law by Fagaly And Shorten

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bambrick, who have been with friends here since they arrived from Boston a month ago, have moved to Lakeside beach where they have purchased a cottage.

Miss Pauline O'Brien of the Charlottetown Hospital Staff, is spending her vacation at her home in Bristol.

Miss Rita Ryan, who arrived from Montreal a short time ago, has joined the staff of the Morell Co-operative store.

There are a lot of sick children here at present and doctors say that it is the summer flu; it is also attacking adults.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quinn and children, who spent several weeks with Mrs. Quinn's mother, Mrs. Jennie McCarthy at the old home, left last week on return to their home in Montreal.

Mr. Eph Malone returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital on Thursday, after being a patient there for a few days.

Rev. Frank MacDonald, S.J., Montreal, arrived here on Friday for a week's vacation.

The monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Herb Kenny. Following the business meeting a lovely supper was

North Baltic

A meeting of the Baltic and Glencorodale Altar Society was held on July 30 at the home of Mrs. John B. Fay. Ten members were in attendance. Mrs. P. D. Mossey is president of this group and Mrs. John B. Fay, secretary. This group made a fine showing during the past winter months.

Misses Jean MacGregor and Ruth Fay, of this district, returned on July 29 from Charlottetown where they attended a sewing short course for Junior 4-H Club members at the Vocational School.

Mrs. Arthur Whynot, Melrose, Mass., is vacationing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jerome MacDonald, Souris.

Rev. S.S. M. Pauline spent a few days recently at St. Mary's Convent, Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahar, Jamaica Plain, Mass., are spending a vacation at the home of Mrs. Mahar's mother, Mrs. Margaret Ryan, Lakeville.

Mr. Augustus Grady, Toronto, is now visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Steve Miller.

Miss Christina McDonald, R.N., is visiting at her old home in Glencorodale, the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. J. A. McDonald and Mrs. Neil McEachern.

The Misses Philomena and Marguerite MacPhee, Boston, Mass., are vacationing at their summer home at Big Pond.

A reception was held on July 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean, Rockbarra, in honour of their daughter, Sarah, and her husband, who were recently married in U.S.A. Dinner was served to over 100 guests and dancing was to the lively strains of the violinists of Big Pond.

Miss Bernadette McDonald, Cambridge, Mass., spent some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. A. McAulay, St. Columba.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and family of the late George Gillis, whose unexpected death occurred on July 28 at his home at South Lake.

Misses Ingersoll and Matthews who were teaching Junior Bible School in East Baltic, finished their work here and moved to Hazelbrook where they will perform their duties.

Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Kingsboro, recently visited at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorrey, Montague.

A piece of land has been purchased in Souris, on which a new modern school which will take care of the higher grades, including Grade 12, will be erected.

It is now hoped that a Co-op store will be opened in Souris. A successful meeting was held here July 28 in its interest and many farmers from surrounding districts were in attendance. For the first time two women were appointed on the board of directors, one of those being Mrs. George MacDonald, East Baltic.

Capt. W. P. Burke, Charlottetown, is now visiting at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Miller.

The wet weather has impaired the harvesting of the hay crop in these parts. A great many fields of good hay have had to be left without gathering as the heavy rains fell on them. The grain and potato fields look promising, also the gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMahon recently had as their guests, Rev. Robert Ross and Mrs. Ross, also Mrs. Ross's father, Mr. Freeman Garrett. Mr. Garrett was formerly a neighbor of the McMahon's, but retired from farming to live in Souris, P. E. I.

Mr. Garfield Robertson, accompanied by his wife and three children, motored from Lachine, Que., to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, where they will visit for a few weeks.

Miss Florence Bruce returned recently to Toronto, Ont., where she will become the bride of Mr. R. Band of that city. Before departing, Miss Bruce was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson, Kingsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bambrick, who have been with friends here since they arrived from Boston a month ago, have moved to Lakeside beach where they have purchased a cottage.

Miss Pauline O'Brien of the Charlottetown Hospital Staff, is spending her vacation at her home in Bristol.

Miss Rita Ryan, who arrived from Montreal a short time ago, has joined the staff of the Morell Co-operative store.

There are a lot of sick children here at present and doctors say that it is the summer flu; it is also attacking adults.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quinn and children, who spent several weeks with Mrs. Quinn's mother, Mrs. Jennie McCarthy at the old home, left last week on return to their home in Montreal.

Mr. Eph Malone returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital on Thursday, after being a patient there for a few days.

Rev. Frank MacDonald, S.J., Montreal, arrived here on Friday for a week's vacation.

The monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Herb Kenny. Following the business meeting a lovely supper was

There ought to be a law by Fagaly And Shorten

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bambrick, who have been with friends here since they arrived from Boston a month ago, have moved to Lakeside beach where they have purchased a cottage.

Miss Pauline O'Brien of the Charlottetown Hospital Staff, is spending her vacation at her home in Bristol.

Miss Rita Ryan, who arrived from Montreal a short time ago, has joined the staff of the Morell Co-operative store.

Souris

Miss Joan Hanlon of Boston, Mass., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hanlon, New Zealand.

Mr. John MacDonald of the staff of Johnson and Johnson drug store, Charlottetown, and his wife are visiting in Souris at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex P. MacDonald.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Harry Mallard who passed away on July 30 after a lingering illness.

Mr. Frederick Deveau of Boston, Mass., is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Joseph Deveau, Rollo Bay.

Miss Jean Deagle of Boston, Mass., is spending the summer at the home of her uncle, Mr. Clifford Peters, Rollo Bay.

Miss Catherine Bernard of Alton, Ontario, is spending the summer holidays with her aunt, Mrs. Leonard McCormack of Souris.

Miss Mildred Fraser of Souris is visiting in Moncton, the guest of Mrs. William McInnis, who also has as her guest her sister, Miss Nellie MacEachern, formerly of Souris and now of New York.

Mr. T. J. Kickham, MP, has returned from Western Canada where he attended the funeral of his brother and nephew who were the victims of a drowning accident. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Kickham and family.

Miss Helen Marie MacCormack of Souris, a Red Cross Swimming Instructor is now employed at Morell as instructor for that community.

Dr. James McInnis and family and his sister, Miss Mary McInnis, R.N., both of Winnipeg, Manitoba, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian McInnis of Souris.

Mr. Kenneth MacDonald of Saint John, N. B., is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. John E. MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larter and family motored to Charlottetown on Sunday to visit parents and friends.

Mr. William Acorn, M.I.A. and son Earl, were on a business trip to Saint John, N.B., during the past week.

Mr. Griffin of Griffin Fisheries, spent several days recently in the Magdalen Islands on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cheverie of Charlottetown, were visiting friends and relatives at Souris on Sunday.

Mr. Leo Gallant of the Post Office staff at Souris is at present enjoying a well-earned holiday.

The Misses Anne and Lois Smith, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Charlottetown, are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. E. Kassner of Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy White of Florida, are visiting Mrs. White's relatives in Souris and Fortune.

Mr. Alfred Meurant of Boston, is visiting with his brother, Mr. Andrew Meurant of Souris.

Mr. George W. Jay was a visitor in Charlottetown on July 31.

Masters Wayne and Brian Birt, Charlottetown, are spending some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Birt.

Mr. Floyd Jay was a business visitor in Montague on July 31.

Mrs. Owen Kelly was in Morell on July 26, attending the Kelly - MacDonald wedding.

Mr. George W. Jay was a visitor in Lorne Valley on July 31, guest of his daughter, Mrs. Earle MacDonald and Mr. MacDonald.

Mr. Alan Burke, merchant at Pisquid was in Charlottetown on business last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jay and daughter, Gail, were visitors in Charlottetown on July 31.

Mr. Guy Jay spent the last week-end in July at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jay.

Mr. Tom Sanderson, accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Green, paid a short visit in Pisquid East last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jay and Mr. Floyd Jay.

The ladies of Pisquid East Women's Institute met at the school house for their regular meeting on July 29. When routine business was finished an interesting contest was put on by Mrs. Edward Jay and won by Mrs. Harold Jay. Lunch was served with soft drinks supplied by Mrs. Wallace Birt. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Wallace Birt on September 2.

Miss Mabel Jay, Charlottetown, spent the July 31 week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford, Royalty, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jay on Aug 1.

Mr. Floyd Jay and Miss Juanita Jay were visitors in North River on August 2.

Misses Alice and Betty Ann Millar were visitors to Charlottetown on July 21.

Mrs. Mary Deans, Keene, New Hampshire, spent the week-end of July 24, with Mrs. C. J. McLure.

Mr. Lyman Jackson has returned to his home after spending several weeks in Dartmouth, N. S.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Graham are pleased to hear their young son, Bobby, has returned to his home after being a patient in the King's County Hospital.

Mrs. Roy Beaton and family, Boston, Mass., are visiting at Peter's Road, guests of Mrs. Beaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clow has as their guests on July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gammell, Lois and Billy and Mr. John Aiken, Arlington, Mass., and Miss Gail Johnston, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Howard Munroe, Malden, Mass., is spending the summer months at her home in Peter's Road.

The many friends of Mrs. Willard McClure will be glad to know she has returned to her home after spending several weeks in the King's County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reid and son David, were Sunday visitors to Murray Harbor, the guests of Mr. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herring.

Mrs. Robert Cameron and family, New Glasgow, N. S., who are spending their holidays at her home in Sturgeon, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, Trenton, N. S., are spending their holidays at Murray Harbor North, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham.

Mr. George McDonald, Charlottetown, was the recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Willard McClure and Mr. McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Beck, Alliston, were recent visitors to Murray Harbor North, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Millar.

Miss Gail Clow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clow, is spending her holidays in Lower Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Collings.

Mr. Henry Lannigan, Toronto, who has been vacationing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Lannigan, St. Mary's Road, spent some time visiting his sister, Mrs. Preston Llewellyn and Mr. Llewellyn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Graham returned home recently after spending several days visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham in Trenton, N. S. On their return they were accompanied by their little granddaughter, Carol, who will remain with them for some time.

Miss May and Blanche Millar were hostesses to the members of the Ladies' Aid Society on July 20. Thirteen members responded to the roll call with a verse of Scripture. Eight visitors were present. Roll call at next meeting is to be answered with an article for the bazaar. At the close of the devotional period, lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Matilda Millar and Mrs. Harry Millar. Mrs. George Clow invited the members to her home for the August meeting.

ST. JEROME, Que. (CP)—A 39-year-old salesman, who moved his living quarters to a platform 50 feet above the ground a week ago, today is down to earth again.

Johnny Barrette first climbed to his tarpaulin-covered home between two telephone poles last Thursday because home baseball game attendances hovered around the 300 mark.

"I'll stay up here until at least 1,000 of you decide to watch our games," he told the 25,000 citizens of St. Jerome, 30 miles north of Montreal.

Thursday night 1,077 percent turned up at the game as the home-standing Cardinals defeated St. Therese 10-6 in a regular Laurentian league match. And as soon as the tickets sold had been counted and recounted—down came Barrette amid cheers from all.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jay and wife, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clow has as their guests on July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gammell, Lois and Billy and Mr. John Aiken, Arlington, Mass., and Miss Gail Johnston, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Howard Munroe, Malden, Mass., is spending the summer months at her home in Peter's Road.

The many friends of Mrs. Willard McClure will be glad to know she has returned to her home after spending several weeks in the King's County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reid and son David, were Sunday visitors to Murray Harbor, the guests of Mr. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herring.

Mrs. Robert Cameron and family, New Glasgow, N. S., who are spending their holidays at her home in Sturgeon, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, Trenton, N. S., are spending their holidays at Murray Harbor North, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jay and wife, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clow has as their guests on July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gammell, Lois and Billy and Mr. John Aiken, Arlington, Mass., and Miss Gail Johnston, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Howard Munroe, Malden, Mass., is spending the summer months at her home in Peter's Road.

The many friends of Mrs. Willard McClure will be glad to know she has returned to her home after spending several weeks in the King's County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reid and son David, were Sunday visitors to Murray Harbor, the guests of Mr. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herring.

Mrs. Robert Cameron and family, New Glasgow, N. S., who are spending their holidays at her home in Sturgeon, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, Trenton, N. S., are spending their holidays at Murray Harbor North, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jay and wife, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clow has as their guests on July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gammell, Lois and Billy and Mr. John Aiken, Arlington, Mass., and Miss Gail Johnston, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Howard Munroe, Malden, Mass., is spending the summer months at her home in Peter's Road.

The many friends of Mrs. Willard McClure will be glad to know she has returned to her home after spending several weeks in the King's County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reid and son David, were Sunday visitors to Murray Harbor, the guests of Mr. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herring.