TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market suffered a further decline Wednesday after a feeble attempt during mid-day to climb out of its downward trend.

During the day, golds and base metals all posted minor gains on their indices, but at the close lost their advances. Western oils led the market lower, off 1¼ points on index.

Trading was slow throughout the day and the final volume of 1,548,000 share was way below Tuesday's final volume of 2,017,-000 shares.

Senior base metals were mixed to lower. Falconbridge advanced 1¼ at 22¼ and both Hudson Bay and International Nickel gained fractionally. Algom, Consolidated Mining and Smelting and Hollinger were among the losers.

Western oils had fractional losses among senior priced issues but Fargo Oils gained 60 cents at $5.50 against the trend.

Index losses: industrials .42 to 396.08; golds .37 to 68.17; base metals .26 to 144.69; western oils 1.36 to 125.41.
