Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Kelly, Charlottetown, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary recently at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gallant, Kingora.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bond, Waltham, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bond, Belmont, Mass., are staying at Beach Light Cottage, Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jackson of Victoria Cross celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary

A deep tune, a dear tune — like a lullaby:
The little leaves were listening,
beneath the bending sky.
A sweet song, a slow song — I held my breath to hear:
And all the night was hearkening,
and all the stars came near.

Meadow-larks, and Church-tunes, and tricks that fiddlers learn:
There's a lot of music to make a man turn.
But there's naught can equal,
when all's said and spent,
A woman's low singing in a cottage corner.

"Peace be on your threshold, and blessings good and great.
I went bareheaded past the little gate:
I forgot the village, and I forgot the boy —
The brave streets, the broad streets, full of light and noise.
I sat on the hillside to watch the moon rise
With songs on my own lips, and dreams before my eyes."
Until Monday — Diary — Good night.....

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Murray

Reception At Shore Acres Follows Clyde River Vows

Clyde River Presbyterian Church was the scene of a recent ceremony when Catherine Carol Ann Gillespie, Mrs. and Mrs. John Gillespie, Clyde River were joined in marriage to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Murray, Clyde River.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Raymond L. G. 11118. Mrs. Gordon MacKinnon accompanied Mrs. MacPhee who sang "The Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over satin which featured a fitted bodice with full skirt. A detachable train fell softly from a satin rose at the waist.

Her headpiece was a small crown trimmed with sequins and lace applied attached to a bouffant hairstyle. She wore a single strand of cultured pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom. The traditional bouquet was a cascade of red roses, stephanotis and trailing ivy.
