Blanchard Corner

It has been two beautiful weeks since the last visit to Blanchard Corner. Many exciting things have happened, like Chris Rushton's car accident at Freetown International Speedway.

But Blanchard's hockey team is off to a great start, 3-1-1 at the time of writing. The latest victory was over the Selects, an excellent team who were selected from zoos all across Canada.

Jim Johnstone, Jim Campbell and Wayne Murphy continue to have problems finding the rink. Mitch Murphy has helped fill the void created by the absences of the aforementioned.

Other news out of Blanchard has our girl's basketball team looking for recruits after embarrassing losses. How about it J.R?

Finally the person who sent $9.95 to Blanchard Corner forgot their return address. Your money will be forwarded to the "Get Tony Carrol a Bigger Helmet Appeal". And that's the way it is.

Intramurals

By I.M. Hanging

Intramurals last week saw only 2 days of action being played and in these two days there was lost of snow to keep the players from showing up for their games.

The snow did not keep the Selects from showing up for their clash with the engineers. The Selects, who 10 minutes before the game qualified for the chugging contest, still managed to show for the game. But after the Selects showed they found that the engineers did not show. The engineers were out shifting gears in the parking lot. The engineers proved they were not dedicated to the sport of hockey. Rumour has it the engineers are not going to be in the league much longer.

As mentioned in the previous article the annual all-star contest is up and coming and there has been some more players added to the list. Scott "Phozzie Bear" MacDonald has placed first on all ballots for stick boy and Mike "Jello" James has been selected as all Canadian sad sack. Other nominees were: Steven "Pinochio" Bishop, who has been selected player most likely to get splinters in his nose; Larry MacAdam, the most hated man in the league, and will probably win the Right Guard Award for most consecutive games without taking a shower. While the Korakin team will win the award for fighting the most and winning the least. Glenn Gaudet will win the award for the most turtle-like human being alive. He is starting in the new movie "Turtle Man".

FAN VAN

Fan Van to Mount A. Last Tuesday, January 26, a fan van was organized and 12 students and a priest were the passengers. (The priest was there not for the obvious reason but because of his age.) The van was part of the Winter Carnival events and went across to Mount A. to cheer on the Men's and Women's basketball teams.

The van reported that a good time was had by all and they would like to see another one going over again. Well, on Wednesday, Feb. 10, the Hockey Panthers are playing at Mount A. A Fan Van will be organized and the student union would like to see two vans going over.

The hockey game is scheduled for 7:00, so the van could leave around 4:30, catch the 5:30 crossing and make it to the game. The reason why it is leaving so late is to enable those with afternoon classes to attend.

The cost of the previous trip to Mount A. was only $5.00 per head, which was very reasonable. The cost of this trip will depend upon the amount of interest which is generated. Please, if you are interested let the organizers know, as vans have to be booked and other details worked out.

The student union is very enthusiastic about getting this trip off the ground.

Once again, if you are interested, phone the Barn, ext. 316, 395, 396 and ask for Patti Bradley. Office Hours are, Mon, Wed, Friday, am- 9:30-10:30 and Tues, Thurs, am 9:30-11:30.

A deadline and a deposit fee of $5.00 are required for this trip. Monday, Feb. 8 at 12:30 will be the final day to sign up for any one interested in going. The deposit fee is simply to ensure the van's departure and will go towards the total cost.

Think about it and remember, the Van's deadline is Monday at 12:30. Get your name on the list and climb aboard. Here's hoping to see or hear from you.
