

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 14, 1896.

THE LIBERAL PARTY IN ENGLAND.

LORD ROSEBERY'S resignation of the leadership has greatly disturbed the organization of the Liberal Party. Sir William Vernon Harcourt has refused the succession, and Mr. Gladstone is, on account of his great age, practically out of the question...

LORD ROSEBERY'S VIEWS

GREAT interest was centered in Lord Rosebery's speech at Edinburgh. According to the telegraphic reports of this effort Lord Rosebery said that he had been extremely anxious to arrive at an entente with Russia. Nor was he without hope that a satisfactory understanding between Great Britain and Russia on the Turkish question would be reported...

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Toronto Globe: If there are many golden weddings in Canada like that of Sir Charles and Lady Tupper... The protest of Mr. C. H. Spurgeon, the widow of the great preacher, against the practice of holding bazaars and fairs in Christian churches has aroused some excitement...

THE CZAR IN PARIS.

Diplomatic Europe during a Good Deal of festivity. New York, October 12.—Mr. H. R. Chamberlain called from London to the Sun: "The Czar of all Europe," as one of the French newspapers, half seriously, half facetiously, called him, has at length withdrawn himself from public view...

A GERMAN ATTACK.

On the other hand, Prince Bismarck's organ indulged yesterday in these savage anti-English comments: "The British Army is not sufficient for the defence of the Mother Country or of the Colonies..."

LORD SALISBURY AND THE CZAR.

New York, October 12.—Mr. Harold Frederic cables from London to the Times: "The Czar is still as much in the dark as ever as to what business, if any, Lord Salisbury transacted with the Czar at Falmouth last week..."

NEWS NOTES.

Famine is threatened in the Amur province of Asiatic Russia, the crops having been destroyed by the floods. St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, provides lock stalls in the corridors for those who live long distances away and ride to service on their week-ends.

It is reported in Rome that the Rt. Rev. John L. Spaulding, Bishop of Peoria, will succeed Bishop Keene as rector of the Catholic University of America in Washington.

The fight between Pedlar Palmer, of London, and John Murphy, of Boston, for the Lantana weight championship of the world, took place in London on Monday night and was won by Palmer.

At the Parnellite convention in Dublin on Monday, John E. Redmond stated that the disappearance of the home rule question in England was due to the alliance of the inter-Parnellites with the liberals, and he claimed that the only way to promote union was to repudiate that alliance.

The bike and the trolley may be driving the horse out of some of its old employments, but the soldier still has need of it in its old employments. The 29,000 soldiers that France assembled at Chalons to do honor to the Czar, needed over eighteen thousand horses to complete their equipment for service.

The New York temperance women have formally denounced not beer as an intoxicant, usually sipping, home-distilling beverage, one of the devil's means for creating a thirst for alcohol among its devotees. As the stuff is not nice, and is thus condemned as naughty, it should surely be suppressed.

Lewis Cartwright, son of Sir Richard Cartwright, died at Lindsay, Ont., on Monday, of appendicitis. Sir Richard and Lady Cartwright arrived ten minutes before their son's death by special train, but he was unconscious and did not recognize them. The young man was 19 years of age and a clerk in the Bank of Montreal at Lindsay.

Vermont has changed Governors. In the process both the outgoing and incoming officials spoke of the expediency of doing something to make the prohibition law more effective. One commentator suggests that a good way to begin would be to close the open barrooms in the state. Prohibition in Vermont seems to be honored in the breach.

Senator Perry of Walesey says he is much disappointed on account of there being no increase in the estimates for the Northwest this session, although the expenditure for the whole of Canada is more by millions than it was last year. The same passed for the territories are just the same as those placed in the estimates last spring.

A dramatic version of the Pilgrim's Progress is being given in London. John Baynes was the greatest of dreamers, but he never imagined anything like this. To have his great creation diverted into an attraction in Vanity Fair is enough to make the Puritan banker's bones tingle in their grave.

Clonfert Cathedral in Connaught is in need of repairs that will cost $4,500. The cathedral is one of the smallest in Great Britain, but is very beautiful. It has a magnificent doorway of the twelfth century and a chancel window nearly a hundred years old. The sanctuary has a herring roof, which was originally made of Danish wattle.

There seems to be occasion for a very strict inquiry into the shooting of the convict, Hewitt, in the Kingston Penitentiary. There were, it appears, three of the penitentiary officials present at the time of the occurrence, and the circumstances under which, in a conflict between three men and one, any of the three is justified in shooting the one, are rare.

The newest Turkish trade forbids the Armenians to leave the Sultan's dominions on pain of loss of citizenship. If they stay at home they are liable to lose their property and all that makes citizenship pleasant, if not their lives. The Porte's threats under the circumstances, is not likely to deter many who have the means and the opportunity to emigrate.

The Queen has sent the following message to the widow of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who died in the rectory of Hawarden church on Sunday, after having been stricken down with apoplexy while attending the morning service in that church: "I am stunned by the awful news. My heart is full of grief, but my own sorrow is great. I was a fond of the dear, kind, excellent archbishop."

Rabbi Pereira Mendes has been appointed by the grand master of Free Masons in the State of New York to the office of grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge. He is the first Israelite who has received this honor since the institution of the Grand Lodge of the Masonic fraternity over a hundred years ago, says the American Hebrew. Right Rev. Bishop Potter, of New York, is the associate of Rabbi Mendes.

The State of Montana is practically bankrupt. Warrants issued for the payment of accounts by the State Treasurer are returned to those to whom they are issued with the words "Cannot tell when it will be paid" written on them. The State is overhauling for silver, and it is presumed that it will try and meet its obligations with 53-cent dollars in case Mr. Bryan is elected.

A serious subterranean disturbance, which caused an earthquake on a small scale, took place at Dunbarton, Scotland, at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. The Circassian, which was lying off a quay, was broken up and suddenly shaken and violently moved 30 feet in a commotion which lasted for some time. The land was up for a distance of 100 feet, and the shipyard was considerably damaged.

A party of adventurers from Cleveland, O., is going in search of some of that fabulous wealth of gold supposed to lie in the black sands of Cape Horn. The sea is stormy and the coast so inhospitable that many lives have been lost in the quest, and the labor of getting at the gold has hitherto kept it from being a paying investment, except in rare cases; but these explorers have some new appliances by which they hope to reap unlimited wealth.

It is refreshing to read in British Columbia papers of exploring expeditions of Vancouver Island, which sound so remote as if Madagascar were the scene of operations rather than a portion of the Dominion of Canada. So unaccounted for are the wild beasts to the sight of man that young deer showed no alarm at the sight of the explorers. The island is only a corner of the great Pacific Province, and has been long established, but it is still largely in a state of nature.

According to an official statement given out at the National Republican headquarters, New York, on Monday, the election of McKelvey and Hobart is accomplished and assured fact. They will receive 270 electoral votes, Bryan having 67 electoral votes which are doubtful. The probabilities all point to the fact that these 67 votes will go into the republican column and be added to the 270 now assured for McKelvey and Hobart.

LONDON, Oct. 14.
