

I Do Not Like to Hear Him Pray.

I do not like to hear him pray,
Who loans for twenty-five per cent.,
For then I think the borrower may
Be pressed to pay for food and rent,
And in the book we all should heed,
Which says the lender shall be blest,
As sure as I have eyes to read
It does not say "take interest."

I do not like to hear him pray
On bended knees about an hour,
For grace to spend aright the day,
Who knows his neighbor had no flour;
I'd rather see him go to mill
And buy the luckless brother bread,
And see his children eat their fill,
And laugh beneath their humble shed.

I do not like to hear him pray
"Let blessing on the widow be!"
Who never seeks her home to say,
"If I want o'ertake you, come to me,"
I hate the prayers so loud and long,
That's offered for the orphan's weal,
By him who sees him crushed by wrong,
And only with the lips doth feal.

I do not like to hear her pray,
With jeweled ear and silken dress
Whose washerwoman toils all day
And then is asked to "work for less,"
Such pious shavers I despise;
With folded arms and face demure,
They lift to heaven their "angel eyes,"
And steal the earnings from the poor.

I do not like such soulless prayers;
If wrong I hope to be forgiven;
No angels wing them upward bears—
They're lost a million miles from heaven.
I cannot like long prayers to hear,
And studied from the lips depart;
Our Father bends a ready ear,
Let words be low; he hears the heart.

Three Things.

Three things to love—courage, gentleness and affection.
Three things to admire—intellect, dignity and gracefulness.
Three things to hate—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
Three things to delight in—beauty, frankness and freedom.
Three things to wish for—health, friends and a contented spirit.
Three things to like—cordiality, good humor and cheerfulness.
Three things to avoid—idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting.
Three things to cultivate—good books, good friends and good humor.
Three things to contend for—honor, country and friends.
Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things to cherish—virtue, goodness and wisdom.
Three things to do—think, live and act.
Three things to thing of—life, death, eternity.

The cultivation of the opium poppy which has hitherto been exclusively confined to the East, bids fair to become thoroughly established and remunerative in Eastern Africa. Seeds of the best kind have been imported from Malwa into Mosambique, where 50,000 acres of uncultivated State land have been granted to a company with a capital of $900,000 for the purpose of cultivating and trading in opium.

The Office de Publicite, a weekly journal of Brussels, suggests that a statue should be erected there to Lord Palmerston, as one of the principal founders of the independence of Belgium, and that its unveiling should form part of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the independence of Belgium in 1880.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.

Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
