LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS

British Parliament met on the 19th inst.

Hon. R.W. Scott has been appointed to the Senate.

Meeting of Parliament.—The Parliament of the Dominion will be convened on Thursday next.

Induction.—The Rev. John Sutherland has been 'inducted' into the pastoral charge of the Presbyterian congregation at Woodville.

Protection.—On the 11th inst. a deputation of manufacturers from Ontario and Quebec urged upon the Government their views regarding native industries.

The Prussian Gazette intimates that a dissolution of the Reichstag is bound to take place if it refuses to fix the number of the standing army at four hundred thousand.

Election Protests.—Up to this date there are in all thirty-two protests against the return of members to the Dominion House of Commons. Eighteen of these protests are against Ministerialists.

Postponement.—The closing lecture of the course before the "St. Dunstan's Reading Room and Literary Institute," was postponed owing to indisposition of E. J. Hodgson, Esq., who was to have delivered it on Friday evening last.

The Iron Trade.—A meeting in Ottawa, of iron mine owners and iron manufacturers is called for the 24th inst. They propose taking action towards laying their views before the Government on the development of the iron interest in the Dominion.

A Monster Porker.—The largest carcass of pork seen in Charlottetown for the last fourteen years was exhibited on last Friday by Mr. John Scott, of Cornwal. It weighed 774 lbs., which at 8½ cents, netted $65.79. Owen Connolly, Esq., was the purchaser.

Steam Communication.—Messrs. Call & Miller, of Newcastle, Miramichi, have purchased the stern-wheeler Andover, of the people's Line, and are to place her on the route between Chatham and Indiantown, on the Southwest Branch, and Red Bank on the northwest branch of the Miramichi, to run two trips a week. The owners have entered into a contract with the Government for a term of years, for $2 000 a year subsidy. The sum paid for the boat is $10,000, and is to be delivered in St. John on the first of May.—St. John Telegraph.

Evangelical Alliance.—The following gentlemen have been elected office bearers of the P. E. Island branch of the Evangelical Alliance:—President, Hon. Judge Hensley; 1st Vice President, Wm. Heard; 2d Vice President Archd. Kennedy; 3rd Vice President, James DesBrisay. Secretary Rev. Jno. McLeod. Treasurer. J. Pickard, Committee, F. W. Hales. John Scott, Jos. Knight and Dr. Beer.

During the current year quarterly meetings will be held in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, on the first Mondays of April, July and October, and on the first day of January, 1875.

Abolition of the Legislative Council.—Prince Edward Island journals are advocating the abolition of the Legislative Council in that Province. They contend that there is no longer any necessity for a second chamber, the Assembly being held sufficiently in check by the Minister of Justice on the one side and the people on the other. The abolition of the Upper House would effect a saving of over $3,500 a year. The reform would, no doubt, be distasteful to the dignitaries who compose the Council, but it would, we believe, be welcomed by the people and the province might in time learn to exist without the luxury as Ontario has done since confederation.—Ottawa Citizen.

Increase of trade.—The statement in our commercial columns, showing an increase in the traffic receipts of the Grand Trunk Railway, during the first eight weeks of this year, of £49,700 sterling, nearly a quarter of a million of dollars, will we are sure, be read with pleasure throughout Canada. This increase furnishes the justification for the large outlay incurred in the improvement of the line and the narrowing of the gauge, and it will we have no doubt be continued in even a greater ratio in the future, calling for further improvements, including a double track between Montreal and Toronto.—Montreal Gazette.

A Brave Boy.—The Montreal Star says: One day last week an event occured which deserves to be recorded. A young spirited horse ran away from the vicinity of St. Lawrence and St. Catherine streets, and went along at a fearful pace. Several men endeavoured to stop him by forming a line across the street, but the animal dashed past them, and they gladly made an opening in their ranks. Several ladies narrowly escaped serious injury. A young lad, a pupil of the Catholic Commercial Academy, named George Dunn, who had seen how things were going coolly waited his opportunity, and as the horse and sleigh dashed past he dropped his books, and by a vigorous spring vaulted into the sleigh, and seizing the reins brought the infuriated animal to a stand-still, after a short struggle. On being requested to go to the owner and receive remuneration for his brave act, he declined, thinking, seemingly, that he had done nothing more than his duty.

Georgetown Ferry.—The following resolutions passed at a meeting recently held at Georgetown:—

Resolved, That whereas the sites of the Steam Ferry Wharfs as at present laid off, are very inconvenient, and not at all adapted for public convenience, being located at the conflux of two rivers on which the winds West and N. West, blow at certain seasons with great severity, the Georgetown site being placed at westward of a beach running two-thirds across said rivers where the ice accumulates and remains a month earlier than on the Southern part of the town: Therefore Resolved, that the Georgetown Site be changed to the foot of Prince's street, where at a large public meeting of the inhabitants and others, it was originally fixed.

Resolved, Whereas the Government of this Island have within the last three years granted £200 per annum as a subsidy for a steamer on the Georgetown Ferry. And whereas within the last year advertized for, and accepted Tenders for Slips or docks to build the most suitable place to secure a short and direct route for the Ferry Boat, and whereas the Tenders of no parties having been accepted for said Slips, the Government have located one at the Western end of Bourke's Point, against the voice of the inhabitants at a public meeting held previous to the letting of the contract; and the one on the South side at Aitkens' wharf; and whereas the present location will make the Ferry a mile and a quarter in length, whereas if it were directly opposite, at or near the site of the old Ferry wharf, the distance would only be half a mile in length; if either wharf route is adopted the boat will be prevented from running for a fortnight earlier in the spring and three or four weeks later in the fall. Therefore Resolved, that this meeting condemn the action of the Board of Works in locating those slips, and disadvantageously, against the future prosperity of Georgetown and the surrounding country, and so far a distance apart that it will prevent capitalists from tendering or competing for said Ferry, when advertized for

We recommend the framer of these resolutions to a careful study of literature and logic!

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

A Centenarian.—Jeff. Johnston, a colored man, aged 105 years, died in Liverpool, N. S., last week.

Large Porker.—A hog, fed by Hon. Senator Montgomery, and weighing 667 lbs. was brought into town this week, and realized the handsome sum of over £51 00.—Patriot.

Sudden Death.—William Brooks of Lot 7, retired on Monday evening last apparently in good health, but before daylight was found dead in his bed. The coroner, Dr. Stewart, having been sent for, summoned a jury who found the following verdict: 'Deceased came to his death by the visitation of God—in all probability of heart desease.' He leaves a wife and five children to mourn their loss.—Summerside Journal.

Auxiliary Bible Society.—At the annual meeting of the Auxiliary Bible Society, held in Young Men's Christian Association Building, on Monday evening last, the following resolutions were carried:—

"Resolved, That this meeting acknowledges God's goodness for the many opportunities He has afforded in extending the usefulness of the Bible Society; by means of which the many errors of the present day have been kept within very prescribed limits."

"Resolved, That this meeting most earnestly appeals to the Christian public for enlarged sympathy and increased support, so that, with the blessing of God our Heavenly Father the prosecution of Bible circulation may tend to the salvation of many more immortal souls, and thereby God's name be abundantly glorified."

"Resolved, That the same committee appointed last year be requested to continue their valuable and efficient services for the ensuing year, with power to add to their number."

Mr. Gladstone.—In a note to Earl Granville, Mr. Gladstone says:—For a variety of personal reasons I would not contemplate an unlimited extension of active political service. I desire my political friends to clearly understand that, at my age, I must resume entire freedom to divest myself of the responsibility of leadership at no distant time. My need of rest will prevent more than my occasional presence in the House during the present session. I should be desirous before the commencement of the 1875 session to consider whether it be advantageous to place my services for a time at the disposal of the Liberal party, or whether I should then claim exemption from the duties hitherto discharged. If, however, I am led to believe that instead of the course which I have sketched, it would be preferable in view of the interests of the party generally, for me at once to assume the position of an independent member, I should willingly do so, retaining all my desire for the welfare of the party, and if a leader is to be chosen or interim provision be made for the present year, my successor should receive every assistance he might seek or I can render.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

By Telegraph to News Room and Examiner.

London, March 19.—Parliament assembled to-day. The Queen's speech was read. Her Majesty refers to continued friendly relations with foreign powers, and alludes to the marriage of the Duke of Edinburgh as a pledge of friendship between the two great empires. Warm praise is given to the troops composing the Ashantee expedition for the courage and endurance displayed in the campaign. Speaking of the famine in Bengal, the Queen says:—"The Governor-General of India has been directed to spare no cost in his efforts to mitigate the terrible calamity." The estimated expenditures of the ensuing year will be submitted to the House of Commons immediately. A measure will be submitted to Parliament which, it is hoped, will do away with the delay and expense attending the transfer of land in England. Several local matters are referred to, including the working of the Act affecting relationship between master and servant; the Act dealing with offenders connected with trade, and the law of conspiracy.

"THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT."

LETTER FROM E. J. HODGSON, ESQ. — THE CHARGE REITERATED.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—In the Patriot of this evening there is a long letter from Mr. Haythorne, chiefly directed against myself. I am so unwell that it is an effort for me to write at all; but as I leave town, if I am able on Monday, for some rest, I am unwilling that my silence should be misunderstood.

My reply to Mr. Haythorne shall be very short. I confidently appeal to his published letter to Mr. Hooper in confirmation of every statement I made to Mr. Sullivan.

I wish to be understood as directly reiterating every charge I made.

Mr. Haythorne's whole defence rests upon this ground: that when the Appraisers' award was made it was final, and nothing remained to be done but to pay it. In this he is wholly incorrect; for the awards in every case he specifies might have been removed to the Supreme Court by Certiorari, and, under certain circumstances remitted to the Appraisers for further adjudication. The cases, therefore, referred to in his letter were, in the fullest sense, "then pending before the Appraisers." Mr. Haythorne should have known this. Indeed, the great difficulty in dealing with him arises from the impossibility of realizing his utter want of knowledge upon questions which, from his position, one would have supposed him ordinarily acquainted with.

Mr. Haythorne is under the impression that because his letter "was dated and despatched from a public office," that it cannot be a private communication. This is a mere play upon words. It was private so far as the persons were concerned whose awards were the subject-matter of his letter. I have no objection to substitute the expression exparte for "private." Mr. Haythorne will perceive that this is, if possible, a still more serious charge.

When my letter was written to Mr. Sullivan, I had not seen the full text of Mr. Haythorne's letter. Had I seen it, my charges against him would have been more serious, and there would have been more of them.

I admit the word "exorbitant" is not in Mr. Haythorne't letter. I never said it was. The only possible conclusion that the Appraisers could draw, was that their awards were found fault with for being "exorbitant." A perusal of Mr. Hooper's letter shews that that the Appraisers so understood it.

I have not read the Tichborne case, so that the illustrations drawn from it, are quite wasted upon me.

I can honestly say that I do not know what he means when he connects me with the Editor of the Examiner.

Mr. Haythorne does not deem it improper to impute bad motives to me. This is poor work; but as his charges are specific, I can the more easily answer them.

As to the Prothonotary; I never heard or knew that Mr. Haythorne was prominently engaged in the abolition of his fees. Even if he had been, I should never allow such a circumstance to interfere with the discharge of the duty I owed to a client. The fact is the reverse was the case. I do not think I am guilty of a breach of confidence in saying that I was informed by a gentleman of high position, that when that matter was under consideration, Mr. Haythorne was not averse to placing the Prothonotary's salary at a higher sum than that at which it was afterwards placed. This is the only connection I know Mr. Haythorne to have had with the matter.

As to Lot 19, I freely grant him my fullest permission to make what political capital he can regarding my connection with that estate.

The 'revesting clauses' are naturally a very sore subject with him. I had no interest whatever in the revested lands. My duty was to protect my clients interests and this I did to the best of my ability; and so far from having any feeling against Mr. Haythorne in this matter, I take this opportunity of publicly conveying to him the expression of my thanks for having so worded the "revesting clauses" as to have enabled the Court of Chancery to protect my clients' rights, and to prevent them being made the victims of one of the most corrupt and venal Governments which ever existed in this Island.

When Mr. Haythorne speaks of my 'myrmidons,' he becomes so enigmatical that I cannot see what he means. I have not any 'myrmidons,' and if I had, I should not know what to do with them.

Mr. Haythorne is, I am aware, very angry with me, and not disposed to pay much attention to what I may say. Still, I trust he will accept my assurance, that although I neither admire nor respect him, I am not by any means actuated by those feelings of hatred towards him for which he gives me credit.

Yours truly,

Edward J. Hodgson.

PUBLIC MEETING AT LOWER MONTAGUE.

Pursuant to notice, a large and influential meeting was held in the Lower Montague Schoolhouse on Monday evening, the 16th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration matters relative to the new Ferry Wharf now building at Aitkin's shore. Thomas Annear, Esq., was chosen to preside; and the undersigned was appointed Secretary.

R. Cameron, Esq., was the first speaker. He considered Aitkin's shore the most convenient place for the ferry wharf, as it is the terminus of the roads leading from various parts of the country. As the building of the new wharf is so far advanced, he considered it putting the country to an unnecessary expense to have the wharf removed.

Several other speakers addressed the meeting, and fully endorsed what Mr. Cameron said. Among them were, S. Mutch, Geo. B. Aitkin, George Moore, J. M. Aitkin, Wm. A. Poole, D. C. Campbell, R. B. Thomas, Esq., and Manoah Rowe, M.P.P. James A. Rutherford, Esq., Georgetown, also addressed the meeting. The objections he had against the present site were that the shareholders of the steamer would not run their boat on account of the distance between the two wharves, and consequently the fare would be increased. He also said that the river froze some three weeks earlier across from Aitkin's than down at the old ferry wharf. He was followed by Capt. J. Westaway, and Allan McDonald and S. Lavers, Esq., pretty much on the same strain.

The following Resolution was moved by Mr. S. Mutch, and seconded by Wm. A. Poole, Esq.:

Resolved, That this meeting fully endorses the act of the Government in locating the Ferry Wharf at Aitkin's shore, and would view with regret any attempts that might be made to convey a false impression of the site chosen.

The Resolution was put to the meeting, and carried without a dissenting voice,

The following were then appointed as delegates to express the sentiments of this meeting to the Government, viz: James Phillips, J. M. Aitkin, and W. A. Poole, Esqs., and the representatives of the District were also requested to act in conjunction with the delegates.

It was carried that the proceedings of the meeting be sent to the Patriot and Examiner for publication. After a vote of thanks was given to the Chairman, the meeting closed in the usual manner.

D. G. Cameron, Sec'y.

OPINION IN PRINCE COUNTY.

APPOINTMENT OF BELL — ABOLITION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir:—I am proud that the Examiner, at least, has had independence enough to resent the insult heaped upon the people of this country, by the appointment of Herbert Bell to be President of the Legislative Council. What his claims to such a position are, I am at a loss to know. A more time-serving, vaccilating politician, is not to be found at the Council Board—Haythorne not excepted. Who, that remembers his conduct after the passing of the Railway Bill—the dinner at Alberton and his speech at the time, and subsequently his treatment of Mr. Pope and his party, under the pretence of 'spruce sleepers,' can place the least confidence in such a political weather-cock. He has no ability; no political record for good, nothing in the world to justify his occupying such an honorable position. I was really astonished when I read that the Hon. Mr. Strong proposed Herbert Bell as President of the Legislative Council. Mr. Strong had better remember that one cannot touch pitch without becoming daubed; and should he ever appear again for re-election, he may find this act of his life may tell hard against him.

Now, Mr. Editor, since the Legislative Council has so degraded itself, as to place at its head such a man for President, 'go in' and advocate with all your might for the abolishment of the whole body. Send the 'old gentlemen' about their business. The country does not need such a feeble institution to help carry on her work. It is only a waste of public money to keep them there, and a burlesque and an insult to have such a President. Four of the able statesmen of that body go out this session according to law. Now, in the name of common sense, why not send the remainder out too. Is there not a member in the House of Assembly possessed of pluck enough to bring in a Bill to abolish the Council. Here, now, is an opportunity for the Hon. member who was so anxious to save the public money, that he moved for each member to pay for his own stationery—a thought that occurred to him after Laird had sold out his stationery store. Let the Examiner be outspoken, no matter how high the position of the individual who transgresses, and the country will support it, and it will become the fearless advocate of the people's rights it was when the much and justly-lamented Whelan conducted it.

Prince County, March 17, 1874.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir;

If you will allow me space to make a remark or two on the letter of the "Member of St. Dunstan's Reading-room." I will promise to trouble you no more. First, I congratulate him on having perpetrated a very tolerable joke, although it is rather wide of the mark.

Second, he has yet to learn that abuse, instead of proving anything, tends to make his case Care-in.

In a certain village in the West of England, a pedagogue placed a notice in his window, "English grammar taught here, them as larns manners pays tuppence more." I have no fault to find with the Herald's correspondent's grammar, but I would advise him to pay the extra twopence with the least possible delay.

Yours truly,

"When people see a man advertise they know he is a business man, and his advertising proclaims that he is not above business, but anxious to do it. Customers, like sheep, are gregarious, and flock where they see others go. If nobody else were engaged in the same business, it would be important to tradesmen and dealers to advertize in the paper, because they are tempted to buy what they read of. But others are engaged in the same business, and even if they do advertize, it becomes the more important for you to do so; if they do not advertize it becomes doubly important.—Anon."
