Burton

—St. Mark's church Young People met on Monday evening in the Parish Hall. The meeting was led with a suitable Lenten hymn, followed by a Scripture Lesson from St. Matthew's Gospel, chapter 26, read by Clarence Moase. The Rev. W. Eric Ingraham then led the group in prayer.

President, Lloyd Proffitt welcomed two new members and expressed the wish that they join actively in the A. Y. P. A. work.

Following the reading of the minutes it was pointed out by the Chaplain that Archdeacon Harrison would not be able to attend the May 23rd meeting as planned. It was moved and seconded that he and his A. Y. P. A. be invited to the May 8th meeting.

It was brought to the attention of the meeting that a letter request for the small collection at the St. Mary's A. Y. P. A. and that the St. Mark's group meet together for three Lenten addresses by Rev. Hugh Christmas. It being too late to arrange for the first talk, it was moved and seconded that arrangements be made for the next two meetings with the suggestion we journey to Summerside for the second one on March 14th.

To conserve fuel it was suggested that the Badminton players play on Thursday night instead of Monday, when the heat is on.

The treasurer read his report. A sum of thirty-one dollars was realized from the Valentine social. A balance of fifty-six dollars is now on hand. Collection was taken. Roll call was answered by fourteen members.

Then the Chaplain introduced the Rev. Hugh and Mrs. Christmas to the group. Mr. Christmas spoke on the shape of the church and what it should mean in our worship. The architecture has a symbolic meaning such as the rest for the center aisle which leads unobstructed to the altar symbolizes that nothing stands between the Christian and his God if he wishes to go to him. The different parts of the church can be a basis for meditation before and during the service.

Following the address lunch was served by the committee and games enjoyed by all.
