The Unexpected Change.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

(Island Correspondence of the St. John Sun.)

"The feeling is most intense among all classes that gross injustice has been done, and it cannot be wondered at since a continuance of the practice of filling all the best appointments from the other Provinces closes all avenues of promotion to our own young men."

(King's County Advertiser (Conservative).)

"The EXAMINER, we are pleased to observe, now insists upon having the vacancy filled by promotion among the employees of the Road, but as this rule has been lost sight of hitherto, it is not very remarkable to see officials from the sister Provinces pitchforked into office here when it is necessary to find places for them. If, as the EXAMINER says, none should receive the position except an Islander, would he be chosen from among the officials on the Road, if the selection were entrusted to our representatives? Or would a few wire-pulling politicians succeed in getting a favorite trained for a few months to fit him for the position, as has been done over and over again by both Grits and Tories? These are pertinent enquiries at the present juncture. If the most competent official on the Road were promoted to the position of Chief Superintendent, the Government would be entitled to the gratitude of every subordinate official, and the approval of every right-thinking person; but, if it should be otherwise, the least we can expect is a competent officer, no matter where he hails from."

Canada Pacific Railway.

THE SYNDICATE AND THE TERMS OF THE CONTRACT.

When the details of the Pacific Railway negotiations are published, it is more than probable it will appear that one division of the Syndicate is composed of Canadian capitalists, among whom are George Stephen, President of the Bank of Montreal; Mr. Angus, late manager, and representing Hon. D. A. Smith. The English division is limited to Morton, Rose & Co., agents of the Dominion in London; Mr. Greenfells, who was here, and signed on behalf of the firm, is the senior partner. The American division is Morton, Bliss & Co., of New York. The French, Reinach & Co., of Paris and Frankfort, and the Societe Generale.

Mr. Greenfells had a power of attorney from the house of Reinach & Co., of Paris and Frankfort, and from the Societe Generale, but the instrument did not vest him with plenary power, and at the last moment he had to cable to his principal for further instructions. These are now on the way out, but Mr. Greenfells was instructed by cable to sign the contract, and has done so.

The Syndicate is to have a paid up capital of $50,000,000, of which the Societe Generale, half of whose subscribers are Canadian capitalists, contributes $12,500,000, and the other firms the remaining fourth. A guarantee of $1,000,000 will be deposited with the Government, to be forfeited should the Syndicate fail in the contract. The Government is to hand over to the Syndicate the sections of the road already completed, or in course of construction, the value of which, including the surveys, &c., is put down at $30,000,000, and gives them a cash subsidy of $25,000,000 and a land grant of 25,000,000 acres. The land is valued at two dollars per acre so that the gross subsidy with these completed sections represents the sum of $105,000,000. The road is to be completed in ten years from Lake Nipissing, its eastern terminus, to Burrard Inlet, on the Pacific coast. There is a special provision that the prairie section—roughly speaking, 1,000 miles in length—from Manitoba to the Rocky Mountains shall be finished, equipped and running within three years. The Syndicate will control the completed sections, run them, and be responsible for the running expenses until the completion of the road in 1891, when the Government will take possession. It is provided that the Syndicate shall make no pooling traffic or any other arrangements with the American roads, without the consent of the Government, subject to ratification by the Dominion Parliament. The Government will reserve 25,000,000 acres in blocks alternating with those granted to the Syndicate, and this land will be thrown upon the market, as the prairie section of the road is building, at $2 an acre and it is believed that the land will bring much more. This will give $50,000,000—a sum sufficient to pay the cash subsidy to the Syndicate and to recoupe the country for the money already spent on the undertaking. Professor MacCoun and other authorities estimate that there are at least 200,000,000 acres of good land in the North West, so that after satisfying the land grant to the Syndicate, and their own reserves the Government will have 150,000,000 acres to dispose of.

Parnell is reported as saying on the 3rd inst., that the prosecutions of the Land League will only serve to strengthen that organization. He says "English constitutional government in Ireland is really on its trial, and the trial is supposed to be made under the most favorable conditions, since we have in power a Liberal Ministry with a strong radical element pledged to perform, but powerless to carry out, any single reform which it has undertaken."

City Assessment.

To the Editor of the Examiner

STR.—A notice signed "W. Shepherd, City Collector," appeared in your paper under date of October 11, 1880, notifying taxpayers that the office in question would be in the "City Clerk's Office," for ten days from that date—hours 10 to 4—to receive taxes in arrears. At the expiration of those ten days, we were told by the Collector, that the names of all defaulters would "be duly published and executions issued." The collector has not, however, fortunately for delinquents, carried his threat into execution. Why, Mr. Editor, should the citizens of Charlottetown be burdened with two gentlemen in the Clerk's office doing work which one official could discharge without any difficulty? The City Clerk is an efficient officer and could easily publish the notice in question without the aid of Mr. Shepherd and defaulters could be proceeded against by the City Clerk, aided by Baliff Chandler, thereby dispensing with the intrusion in his office of a second clerk in the person of a Collector. I ask, Mr. Editor, if the gentlemen who comprise the City Council employ more hands in their own business than they require? Why, then, should they continue an uncalled for imposition on the citizens, who are in many respects, unnecessarily overburdened?

Yours,
TAXPAYER.

Official Electioneering.

Our Washington Correspondent writes:—"If woman suffrage were to-day the law of the land, and woman was called upon to exercise the precious boon," the executive department of the Government would be closed during the week preceding the day of the Presidential election. Just now the gentle sex are holding the fort, while the men are off to exercise a freeman's right, but little public business is being transacted. The Departments have themselves a funeral look, and affairs of State appear to be running on their own axis."

Late returns in the recent elections held in the United States show the following results: The House of Representatives stands 146 Republicans, 141 Democrats and 6 Greenbackers. The Senate stands 37 Republicans and 39 Democrats. Republican Governors are elected in Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, and New Hampshire; and Democratic Governors in Florida, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas, with Tennessee still in doubt. The Democratic State Executive Committee have adopted resolutions alleging extensive frauds in the vote in New York, and requesting the County Commissioners to ascertain and report its extent. They say the unaccountable increase in the Republican vote in New York and King's County, and the plain evidence of fraud in such vote, demand immediate investigation on the part of the respective Democratic organizations of the country.
