Meeting at Peake's Station.

A large and influential meeting took place at the above named place on the evening of the 16th inst., to take into consideration the best means to press our claims on the Dominion Government for better railway accommodation at this place.
Many leading men from different parts of the county, as well as several prominent persons from Queen's, were present and expressed their views on the matter.

Mr. P. Mooney was appointed to the chair and after assuming his duties announced the object of the meeting, stating that it was not called for any political purpose, but merely to inform the railway authorities, and the public in general, that a booking station at this place was of the utmost importance. He then introduced Dr.
Robertson, our Dominion representative, who, on coming forward, said it gave him much pleasure to be able to attend a meeting of this kind. Although he had to contend against a good many difficulties in making his way here to-night, still he thought he had done nothing more than was his duty to do. Whenever the welfare of any part of his constituency was at stake, he took a delight in being present to assist and promote the interests of it. He wondered greatly why the railway authorities did not place Peake's on the list of booking stations. A place so favorably situated, and a place which has grown so rapidly as Peake's did these last few years, was surely entitled to better railway accommodation.

He urged the inhabitants of Peake's Station and neighboring districts to draw up a memorial, placing thereon the grievances under which they labor, and have it largely signed and sent to Sir John A. Macdonald, the new Minister of Railways. Sir John, he thought, was more of a generous character than his predecessor and would, no doubt, readily accede to their demands. If no attention would be paid to the petition, he would engage the reason when in Ottawa the next month.

Rev. M. J. McMillan being present and called upon, told of the many inconveniences he himself experienced by not having a booking station at Peake's. He had often to prepay freight on goods. Unless he did this it would go to Cardigan, or be held at Mount Stewart. Often he was put to a great deal of trouble to find out where his goods would arrive. Both of these stations, Cardigan and Mount Stewart, largely received credit for work which ought to be done at Peake's. It was not around home he heard the wants of the people of Peake's Station discussed. He heard it freely talked of in nearly every settlement east of Charlottetown. Mr.
Mooney, the occupant of the station at present, he said, often discharged the duties of an agent, fearing goods might go astray or be lost, without even receiving the least remuneration. This state of affairs, he thought, should not be allowed to exist in a village like Peake's, which had sprung into importance so rapidly. He considered, and felt sure, that there was more business done at Peake's Station than at a great many places where there are booking stations. He closed his remarks by asking the people to push forward their claims in a clear, fearless and determined manner, and not to give up the agitation for the much-needed want until they obtained it.

Mr. Underhay, M. P. P., then took the floor, and fully expressed his opinions on the subject very much to the satisfaction of the audience. He said he had been speaking to Mr. Unsworth, the Superintendent of the Island Railway, who told him when he would learn the amount of business done, he would use his influence to gratify the wishes of the people. Mr. Underhay, like Dr. Robertson and Rev. M. J. Mc-Millan, invited the people fully to lay their claims before the proper authorities, and he would do all he could in favor of the movement.

Messrs. P. Koughan, J. Fraser, H. Currie and H. K. Mooney spoke at considerable length on the subject, and with a great deal of enthusiasm endorsed the statements that had been made by the preceding gentlemen.

A letter was received from Dr. P. A. Mc-Intyre, regretting his inability to attend owing to a pressing professional engagement. He said he would do all in his power to further the object of the meeting.

The following resolutions were introduced by Mr. H. Currie and seconded by Mr. P.
Keoughan, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The object of this meeting is to give an unanimous expression of opinion consequent upon the inconvenience heretofore existing in not having a Booking Station at this place.

Whereas, In the winter of 1884 the people of this place asked for the erection of a Booking Station, thinking at the time that when it would be built there would be an Agent placed therein. In the following summer the building was erected, but up to the present time the railway authorities neglected to appoint an Agent, thus failing to carry out the expectations of the people; and Whereas, Business men and others in the village and surrounding country suffer great inconvenience in having to prepay all freights that are marked for this place, otherwise goods will be held at Charlottetown or forwarded to Cardigan Station, thereby necessitating the owners to pay the freight to Cardigan and back, a distance of 22 miles; and that the present occupant of the Station is not responsible for the receiving and delivering of freights, his duty being merely to open and close the doors on arrival and departure of trains.

Therefore Resolved, That it is the earnest desire of this meeting to strongly disapprove of the neglected manner in which the people of Peake's Station and vicinity have been treated by the railway authorities in not giving to this place a proper railway and telegraph station.

Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Minister of Railways, requesting him to give, at the earliest practicable period, due consideration to the matter; and that a report of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to THE EX-AMINER, Herald and Patriot for publication.

And Further Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to draw up a memorial and present it to the Minister of Railways, asking him to fully consider the prayer of his petitioners.

The following were appointed to draw up the memorial and have it signed: Messrs.
A. McLaughlin, P. Koughan, H. R.
Mooney, J. Kelly and H. Currie.

It was desired by the majority of the meeting to attend next Saturday evening and have the petition read and signed.

After a vote of thanks was tendered our Dominion representative, Rev. M. J. Mc-Millan and Mr. J. C. Underhay, for their attendance, to which they made suitable replies, the meeting quietly dispersed, feeling confident that before the arrival of summer a telegraph agent would be appointed to take charge of a booking station at Peake's.

The P. E. Island Exhibition, 1889.

A meeting of the Board of Commissioners in charge of the building and grounds of the provincial exhibition was held at the secretary's office, on the 16th inst. His Honor Mayor Haviland, Chairman of the Board, presided. The secretary submitted the accounts for the year 1889, which were examined and approved by the Board, also statements showing that the exhibition was a success, financially and otherwise.

The amount appropriated by the Board for prizes was $1642.75, of which sum $1382.25 was awarded to successful competitors. The receipts and disbursements accounts show a balance of $280.41 in favor of the board, exclusive of the secretary's allowance.

In view of the fact that tenders were called for by the directors of the Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association for the erection of exhibition buildings "to be completed on or before the 15th day of August next," it was considered advisable that the secretary should notify the Commissioner of Public Works that the buildings, sheds and all material under the control of the Board would be at the disposal of the provincial government.

On motion of the Hon. Senator Haythorne, seconded by William Mutch, Esq., of Flopeton, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"That the thanks of this Board are due and are hereby tendered to A. McNeill, Esq., for his valuable services as Secretary in connection with the Provincial Exhibition for the year 1889, being the last of the long series held in the Military Drill Hall of this city and adjacent grounds, during the past twenty-two years, in which he acted in the same capacity with general acceptance and satisfaction."

The Secretary acknowledged the high compliment paid him, and thanked the Board for their appreciation of his services.

A resolution was also put to the meeting, and unanimously carried, conveying to His Honor the Chairman the thanks of the Board for the very efficient manner in which His Honor had presided over their meetings, and the deep interest always evinced by him in the success of our agricultural exhibitions, to which His Honor suitably replied, after which the meeting closed.

A. McNEILL,
Ch'town, Dec. 18, 1889. Sec'y.

Lecture.

On Friday evening the 13th inst., J. T.
Mellish, Esq., delivered a lecture in the hall at Vernon River Bridge, his subject being, "My trip to Scotland." Although the night proved stormy and traveling bad a fair audience assembled.

D. Macdonald, Esq., occupied the chair, being a direct descendant of the great Clan-Ronald, and a true son of the Heather.
He, as a matter of course, gave Mr.
Mellish a Highland welcome. The learned lecturer described the picturesque scenery of Scotland, palaces, castles, churches and institutes of learning, the most noticeable being Holyrood, where the historic Mary Queen of Scots resided, not forgetting, however, to mention Wallace's Cave, Bruce's helmet, Scotland's crown, and the stone on which the kings were crowned.
Concluding his remarks he paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Scotland in a strain of language but which had to be heard to be appreciated. Mr. Mellish was tendered the heartly thanks of the meeting for his masterly effort to which he replied in suitable terms.

Writing Plays.

Nearly everybody has heard or read something about the accomplished star actress, Rose Coglean, who has been charming theatre-goers for the last few years in the principal cities of Europe and America.
Last week she completed a most successful week's engagement at the Walnut Theatre, Philadelphia, in the thrilling and interesting historical play, "Joeclyn," written by her father, Charles Coglean. This play is of a high literary merit, being a romance of old French chivalry, full of thrilling situations and intense interest from the beginning to the close.

Mr. Coglean, the writer of this and other plays, with his wife and daughter, are residing at Souris. They spent the summer at Abel's Cape, Bay Fortune, where their kindness and affability of manner made them many friends. For the winter they have rented the cottage on Knight's Cape, which was occupied last summer by the family of our local Premier, Mr. McLeod. Mr. Coglean, they say, is well pleased with the Island, and intends making it his permanent abode.
From works already written, it is said, he has amassed quite a fortune. He is still engaged in literary work, however, intending to stage, on which his talented sister continues to be so distinguished and attractive a personage.

MANY an otherwise handsome face is disfigured with pimples and blotches, caused by a humor in the blood, which may be eradicated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest blood medicine in the market, being entirely free from arsenic or any deleterious drug.

Local and Other Items.

A Big Loss.—It is estimated that 12,500 cases of shoes, valued at $800,000, were burned in the Lynn fire.

A RARE CHANCE.—Queen, Graphic, Nineteen Century, etc. at Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

REASONABLE ADVICE.—Judicious advertising always pays; and an abundance of it in the holiday season is the best outlay the business man can make.

GROWING.—Montreal is growing in Population and wealth. The city revenue increased the past year $130,000, collected principally from real estate, water rates and business taxes.

IT MUST BE.—An exchange says: It is funny to hear two women talking to each other across a fence as they are hanging out clothes, each with a half dozen clothes pins in her mouth.

UNLESS more care is given to the hair, the coming man is liable to be a hairless animal; hence, to prevent the hair from falling use Hall's Hair Renewer.

WOULD BE HAPPY.—A Spanish editor has been made a marquis by the Queen Regent.
The average Canadian editor would be happy if his subscribers would all pay in advance, or even keep square on the books.

TEA AND FANCY SALE.—The "Girls Band" in connection with Zion Church, will hold a Tea and Fancy Sale in the basement of the Church to-morrow (Friday) opening at 2 p. m.
A pleasant afternoon guaranteed all who attend.

THE CLIMAX OF ELOPEMENT.—A recent Waterford, Miss., despatch says: William Bailey, aged 25, eloped with Sadie Wallace, aged nine, and married her at Bolivar, Tenn.
Great indignation is manifested at Waterford.
Both parties were arrested.

THE special quality of Ayer's Hair Vigor is that it will restore the natural growth, color and texture of the hair. It vitalizes the roots and follicles, removes dandruff, and heals itching humors in the scalp. In this respect, it surpasses all similar preparations.

WHAT DID HE MEAN.—During the delivery of an excellent sermon in the Free Baptist Church Frederickton N. B., on Sunday evening last, Rev. Dr. McLeod, while declaring that too many people are living in imaginary security, said: "There are those in this city to night, who fancy they are well; but in reality they are sick in bed."

Ask For Ayer's

when you want the best blood-purifier.
With its forty years of unexampled suc-

to any other. The fore-runner of modern blood medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla
is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far excel those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Dr. Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them consentiously."—C. Bickhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples.
There is nothing so good for the youthful blood as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."— R. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun,
