THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 15, 1894.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

The two most striking points mentioned in the Governor-General's Speech are those relating to the subject of tariff revision and the proposed fast Atlantic steamship service. The question of revising the duties of customs has been under consideration for several months, and a vast amount of evidence has been accumulated. The country at large will be glad to learn that while the Government do not propose to change the principle on which the existing enactments on this subject are based, the amendments which will be offered are designed to simplify the operations of the tariff, and to lessen, as far as can be done consistently with the requirements of the treasury, the imposts which are in force. It is reported that the measure is almost ready to be submitted to Parliament. Mr. Huddart's proposals for a fast Atlantic service will also be promptly submitted to the representatives of the people, and authority will be asked for increasing the subsidy from half a million to $750,000. The sum to be paid is large, but the service is one of the greatest importance; for it will bring Canada into closer and more direct commercial relationship with the greatest market in the world, and tend to make still greater the increasing value of our annual trade. Lord Stanley, a year ago, in his speech from the throne, said that it was expected the volume of trade during the then current year would exceed that of any year in the history of the Dominion. This expectation has been fully realized. Canada's progress continues to show every mark of stability and permanence. There is deep cause for thankfulness that Canadian people have been spared, in a very great degree, the sufferings which have visited all other countries during many months past. Although the commercial depression prevailing abroad could not but affect the activity of business in the Dominion, Canada has been free from extensive financial disaster and widespread distress. Still there are in Canada and will ever be some occasional cases of failure in business; and the wishes of the mercantile community are to be met by the introduction of a measure on the subject of bankruptcy and insolvency.

The Government's bill of fare for the Parliamentary session beginning to-day and is a substantial one and calculated to benefit the country.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Commenting upon the proposed fast atlantic service contract, the Montary Times says: The subsidy is the pivot on

—Does the Premier and Attorney-General intend to hold an investigation—according to his promise—into the shooting of McInnis at Summerside, or is justice to be balked in that case also?

—Advices received at Washington indicate that the Brazilian rebellion is about ended. The despatches contain the information that Admiral Dagama has gone aboard the Portuguese war vessel Mindello, now in the harbor in Rio, and has sent to President Peixoto by the Portuguese officer, an offer of surrender on condition of full protection for himself and his followers. Secretary Gresham believes that this marks the end of the Brazilian war.

—The Premier's explanation of his Tax Act is to be made at Mount Stewart, on Monday, the 19th inst., and the Legislature is to meet in Charlottetown on Wednesday, the 28th. In the meantime, the speech is to be reported and printed, read, considered, and decided upon by the people throughout the Province. Is this fair to the people? Will the people have sufficient time to consider so important a matter? Or is the Premier merely trifling with the people? Of course he does not imagine that the few residents of Mount Stewart and vicinity, who may hear him, are the people of Prince Edward Island. He evidently intends to carry his measure independently of and in spite of the wishes of the people. His "consultation" at Mount Stewart is mere humbug.

—The London Hospital has been sounding a note of alarm regarding the extent to which the habit of tea drinking is indulged, no less a quantity than 207,055,679 pounds having been consumed in Great Britain last year. This paper states that "not only are we yielding with all the weakness of an inebriate to the disease of nerve and stomach which excessive tea drinking brings in its train," but, after instituting a comparison between teas of Chinese and Indian growth, it continues: "We drink more tea than our parents; we take it oftener, stronger and of coarser quality. The results are less obvious than those of alcoholic intoxication, but not less serious; and, in truth, the time may not be far distant when the earnest disciples of the new temperance will plead with us, with tears in their eyes, 'Give up this accursed tea and take to cocoa or even to beer.'"

OBITUARY.

Fortified by the last rites of the Catholic Church, in the 76th year of her age, Mrs. Lavinia C. Fogarty passed to her reward on Thursday, March 1st, 1894. The deceased, who was born in Plymouth, England, in the year 1818, came to Charlottetown when eight years of age, and was a resident of that city until two years ago. In 1834 she was married to John Ogle Nantes, a respected citizen, who died in 1847. In 1853 she was again married, to Martin Fogarty, whom she survived. About two years ago, as above mentioned, she moved to North Melville, Lot 29, where her son, Mr. John H. Nantes, resides, and where she remained till the end came. The deceased, whose maiden name was Exworthy, was a highly educated and estimable lady, a kind and intelligent wife and mother, and in her last moments had the consolation of receiving the earnest and loving solicitude of her son and his family. She leaves to mourn their loss, Mr. J. H. Nantes, of North Melville; Mr. Wm. Nantes, of Pennsylvania; and Mr. George Fogarty, of New Glasgow; and one daughter, Clara Fogarty, now Mrs. Gaffney, Boston, besides many grandchildren and a host of friends. Her funeral took place to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross, Lot 29, on Saturday morning, the 3rd of March, where the last rites were performed by the pastor, Rev. P. A. McEllmeel.

LET OUT AND SHOT DOWN.

The Way Plotters Against the Government Are Treated in San Domingo.

The steamer Columbia, which arrived at New York recently from Colon, brings details of the shooting of the two sons of ex-President Baez, of San Domingo, by order of President Heureaux. The elder son had previously been sentenced to imprisonment for life for plotting to overthrow the existing Government, and when the younger son was also discovered to be implicated, Heureaux declared that both should die. Soon after the younger son's arrest, the President sent word to the Baez family that the two brothers had need of two broadcloth suits. The clothes were sent, and the next morning the youths were told to put on the black suits. When they had complied they were told that the freedom of the jail yard was given them. In the yard was a squad of soldiers whose bullets speedily put an end to their lives. This, it is said, makes seventeen martial executions of the Dominican rebels in sixty days. Among the twelve was that of Francis Pitado, an alleged dynamiter, brother of the Spanish consul to San Domingo. The consul himself was ejected from the island without recourse to any of the diplomatic formalities.

LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION.

A meeting of the Liberal-Conservatives of the the eastern section of east Queen's was held in the hall at Little Sands on Friday, the 9th inst., for purposes of organization.

Owing to the almost impassable state of the roads, the attendance was small, still delegates were present from Murray Harbor South, Murray River, High Bank, Wood Island's, Belfast and Mahar's and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Messages of regret were received per telephone from several districts. The following gentlemen were named as a committee to confer with representations from the western section of the district to name the time and place for a central meeting, where the organization of the party in this district can be effected. A. Martin, Esq., Valleyfield; Jas. Clow, Esq., Murray Harbor North; A. P. Prowse, Esq., Murray Harbor South; A. J. McInnis Esq., Murray River; A. B. McNeill, Esq., Little Sands and M. S. McMillan and Neil Crawford, Esqs., Wood Islands. After some discussion on ways and means, the meeting adjourned to meet again at the time and place decided upon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

REPLY TO "OUTSIDER."

SIR,—"Fairplay's" remarks seem to have ruffled the temper of one who signs himself "Outsider." He first attacks "Fairplay" for tardiness in noticing the paragraph headed "A Hard-Working Clergyman." Let me say that it would take some time to convince any sensible person that such a paragraph was not intended for a joke. It he attributes "Fairplay's" tardiness to "inclemency of weather" and "obscurity of location," to what does he attribute his own, as he was only a few days ahead of "Fairplay."

He says that the Methodist minister at Souris is no novice in the ministerial harness. We are well aware of the fact, as well as that he is no novice at other things! He fires a little shot at the tender-footed youths of the present day" in the ministerial work, but as "Fairplay" doesn't happen to be a minister, that falls harmless to the ground.

He seems to have been very closely connected with the Souris minister in his past life, and is, indeed, an ardent admirer of that gentleman, judging from his remarks in regard to the "mental and moral efforts put forth in the pulpit, etc." by him. He informs us that in these respects he ranks among the best. We are glad to learn the fact as we have always understood that he was rather inferior in those things; but we have no doubt that the "moral" efforts he puts forth will tell well for the people of Souris, especially in the temperance cause. I think the "mental and moral efforts" of a man in whom there exists such a spirit of seltishness that he considers his own interests before those of the church, will not have a very good effect upon the people to whom he ministers.

What the Methodist people of P. E. Island want is advance not retreat. They do not want to have their circuits made so large that they cannot get the amount of preaching they have been accustomed to get, nor to be shoved off from the circuit to which they have formed a part, without their consent or knowledge to be added to one already large enough for any man to work, and that by the manœuvering of one man to get a nice easy little place for himself

The Mount Stewart circuit as it now stands is an injury to the cause of Methodism. Any just person, who has any knowlenge of the work to be done, will admit that no man, however clever and industrious he may be, or however little, his horse may "be bound to stop short," can accomplish the work in a satisfactory manner.

Let me remind "Outsider," in his defence of the Souris minister that that expression "hardworking clergyman" is altogether uncalled for and very much out of place. Does he know that the Souris minister claimed that he was not able to do hard or even moderate work, and on that ground, by means best known to himself, he got rid of all the driving which "Outsider" claims is "not the hardest part of a minister's work," and three-fourths of the membership of the circuit with all the "mental" and "moral" effort necessary to attend to the spiritual wants of that number? If not able to work why so much ado about hard work.

FAIRPLAY.

MR. McRAE'S DENIAL.

SIR,—I was much surprised at learning through the newspapers that Mr. Samuel McRae had been appointed Sanitary officer for the city, for I was present at a meeting of the electors of our ward just before the civic election, and heard Mr. McRae charged with being an aspirant for the position. Mr. McRae then publicly arose in his seat and said the charge "was false," and that he had not been promised the position, nor was he looking for it. I don't see how Mr. McRae can accept the "job" after the emphatic manner he repudiated it at our meeting, and if Mr. McRae then spoke the truth, it makes the action of the Council worse in thus foisting an office on a man who did not want it, at the same time increasing the expenses of the already over-taxed citizens to the extent of three hundred dollars.

MONTREAL, March 12.—The Star cable says: London, March 12.—Messrs. Contes & Co., stated to-day to a correspondent that the Quebec loan was a complete success. The invitations for subscribers were issued on March 8th for taking up of £600,000 of four per cent. of the province of Quebec at 97½, the proceeds of which are to be used in paying of the matured and maturing liabilities of the province. The loan has been considerably over-subscribed.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 12.—The Hawaiian steamship Warrimoo, just arrived, brings confirmation of the enlistment of Canadian volunteers for the service of Queen Liliuokalani. The plan was fully described in despatches sent from here early in January, which at the time were discredited as false. It now appears that their authors were in full possession of inside information on the subject.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 12.—Two bogus doctors, one giving the name of E. Henry, called on an old woman in Brantford, March 1st, and the latter said he was sent by Dr. Gaylord, her physician, to examine her eyes. Almost by force he made the examination and then demanded $100. He could not get this amount, but frightened the woman into giving him all she had in her pocket book, $37.

CAMDEN, N. J., Mar. 12.—A horrible outrage was committed in this city yesterday afternoon, by two colored boys, named Conrad Coke and John Ellis, who seized Charles Tinney, a white boy, aged 8 years, and, tying him to a stake at Seventh and Mechanic streets, piled brushwood around him and set fire to it. The agonizing cries of the lad attracted the attention of a colored man, who rescued him, but not before he had been probably fatally burned. The doctors say if they succeed in saving young Tinney's life it will be necessary to amputate both his arms. Coke and Ellis ran away, but were afterwards arrested. Pure develry is the only motive assigned for the fiendish act. The police kept the news of the outrage quiet until they arrested the perpetrators.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

The Governor-General's Speech.

A Good Bill of Fare for Members.

OTTAWA, March 15.

This day, at 3 o'clock, p. m., the Governor-General proceeded in state to the chamber of the Senate in the Parliament Buildings and took his seat upon the throne. The members of the Senate being assembled, and the members of the House of Commons summoned to the chamber of the Senate, His Excellency was pleased to open the fourth session of the seventh Parliament of Canada with the following speech:—

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In the Queen's name I greet you for the first time since assuming the high functions intrusted to me by Her Majesty, and it is with feelings of the liveliest satisfaction that I thus meet you assembled for the labors of another session of Parliament.

This feeling of satisfaction is enhanced by the opportunities which I have already enjoyed of visiting, and, in my official capacity, renewing my acquaintance with several of the localities of the enterprise and activity of the Dominion. Nor need I refrain from assuring you that I have been deeply impressed by the heartiness of the reception accorded to me as Her Majesty's viceroy and representative, which has once more manifested the loyalty, the cordiality and the public spirit of the Canadian people.

My predecessor was able to express gratification to you last year on an increase in trade, and the continued progress of the Dominion. It is gratifying to me to observe that the expectation which was then formed, that the volume of trade during the then current year would exceed that of any year in the history of the Dominion, has been fully realized, and that Canada's progress continues with every mark of stability and permanency. It may be observed with satisfaction that a large proportion of this increase is shown to have been due to an extension of our commerce with Great Britain.

It is a cause of thankfulness that our people have been spared in a very great degree, from the sufferings which have visited the populations of some other countries during many months past, and that, while the commercial depression prevailing could not but effect the activity of business in the Dominion, we have been free from any extensive financial disaster or widespreaddistress.

The revenues of the year have been ample for the services which you provided for, and have met the expectations on which the appropriations of the last year were based.

The peaceful conclusion, by the award of the arbitrators at Paris, of the controversy which had prevailed so long with respect to the seal fisheries in the Pacific Ocean and the rights of British subjects in the Behring Sea, has removed the only source of contention which existed between Great Britain and the United States with regard to Canada. There is every reason to believe that Her Majesty's Government will obtain redress for those Canadians, subjects of Her Majesty, who were deprived of their property and liberty without just cause while the controversy was in progress.

At an early date, a measure will be laid before you, having for its object a revision of the duties of Customs with a view to meet the changes which time has effected in the business operations of all kinds throughout the Dominion while my ministers do not propose to change the principles of which the existing enactments on this subjects are based. The amendments which will be offered for your consideration are designed to simplify the operations of the tariffs and to lessen as far as can be done consistently with those principles and with the requirements of the Treasury the imposts which are now imposed.

There will also be laid before you a measure on the subject of bankruptcy and insolvency, which will, it is hoped, make more adequate provision than now exists on the subject for the increasing trade and commerce of the country and for the greatly expanded trade between the several provinces of Canada.

Measures will also be submitted to you making more effective provisions for our line of steam communication on the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans, for improving the law with regard to Dominion lands and with regard to the management of Indian Affairs; also a bill respecting joint stock companies, another with respect to the fisheries, and several less important measures which experience has suggested with regard to various matters under your control.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The public accounts will be submitted to you at an early date, and also the estimates of the expenditure which has been considered necessary for the ensuing year.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

While it is hoped the public measures which demand your attention will not be very numerous, some of them will be of great weight and importance; and it is my earnest hope and prayer that the care and zeal which you will apply to the deliberations of the session may be aided by the abundant blessing of the Almighty.

MEETING AT VERNON RIVER BRIDGE.

Professor Robertson and Mr. Dillon addressed a largely attended meeting at Vernon River Bridge on the 2nd inst. Among those present were D. Ds., M. Ds., Honorables., merchants and mechanics, all interested in the farmer's welfare. The Professor gave a full account of the work done on the Island during the past year. Though laboring under many disadvantages, the business, on the whole was fairly successful. He spoke of the almost unlimited possibilities of dairy farming, the hopelessness of growing grain and roots for exportation in competition with the cheap labor of the world. He urged the farmers to become manufacturers as well as producers; to employ the best available skill, as the demand was always for a high-class product. He alluded to the true nobility of the farmer's calling and to his responsibilities, as the general welfare depended on his success. The professor's reasoning was conclusive. He spoke for over an hour and was listened to with marked attention.

Mr. Dillon gave a very practical address. He dwelt principally on the rearing and caring of stock, the possibility and practicability of winter dairying and the necessity of growing more, better and cheaper winter feed, thus increasing production and lessening its cost. He urged the farmers to make the most of their conditions and give the industry their hearty support.

Edward Grant, Esq., showed a sample of ensilage from his silo which was pronounced excellent, after which he moved a hearty vote of thanks to the professor and Mr. Dillon, which was given with a will.

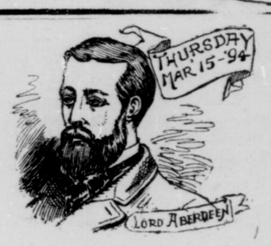
JAS. PATON & CO.,



TO-DAY the Parliament of the Canadian Dominion meets at Ottawa. The session promises to be a long and lively one, and the great fight will be over the tariff. For weeks the government has been preparing a bill on protection lines, which the Reform party, favoring a tariff for revenue only, will strenuously oppose, and thus the issue will be squarely presented.

The STAR TAILOR wishes to put the matter squarely before our people, that the few who pass us by (unconsciously) may have their eyes open (if not too late) to see the values we are offering. For your own manhood's sake, for your family's sake, and if you have any regard for your friends, come in to-day, that you may learn of what we can do for you. Trade is keen, but when it comes down to comparative values in the special lines we offer, as you will readily believe, others are distanced in the race. Of course you want to be in the swim,—"when in Rome do as Rome does." The popular sentiment of the people points to the STAR TAILOR as surely and unmistakably as does the needle of the compass point to the north. Of course you don't want to be odd. Come in to-day.
