

Local and Other Items.

LAVERS will probably have us alone in future. The elections are over—now let's proceed to business. WHERE are all the disappointed office-seekers hiding to-day? THE market to-day was well attended and stocked. Prices unchanged. SPECIAL telegraphic news and other interesting reading matter on first page. No business at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. Nineteen drunks stand over. WELL done Cardigan! Step to the front again. You have fully redeemed the error of 1882. HOWATT'S "ninth plank" proved a treacherously rotten one for him in Summerside District. THE Patriot of yesterday does not give the fate of the Government as pronounced in its preceding issue. MR. HARRY CHAPPELLE, of New York, son of the late Stephen Chappelle, formerly of Charlottetown, is in the city. THE Rifle Club will hold a "spoon match" at Kensington Rifle Range, at 2 p. m., to-morrow, Saturday. Ammunition can be obtained on the ground. REV. T. W. JOHNSTON, the Rector of Crispald, and D. W. Palmer, Esq., delegate, left by steamer this morning to attend the Synod in Halifax. A TEMPERANCE MEETING will be held at the Gospel Army Hall on Saturday evening, led by Staff-Capt. Herbert. Several gentlemen will also speak on the subject. JOSEPH UNSWORTH, Esq., Mechanical Superintendent of the P. E. I. Railway, returned home last evening, after spending several weeks' holidays in Montreal, Ottawa and other places. BY a unanimous vote of the congregation of the Baptist Church, the Rev. Mr. Whitman was asked to withdraw his resignation and continue the pastorate, to which he has consented. GALBRAITH'S BAND is to attend the Orange Tea at O'Leary, on 7th July. This is the first time this band has visited west of Summerside, and friends attending the Tea can look for a treat. THE steamer M. A. Starr arrived from Halifax at half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon with a general cargo, and sailed again shortly after six with a cargo of cattle, lobsters, etc., and one passenger. THE RIFLE.—The annual shooting match of the King's County Rifle Association will be held on the Georgetown Rifle Range on Saturday, the 3rd day of July, commencing at 7 o'clock a. m.—R. Stewart, Secretary. THE grand Moonlight Excursion in aid of the Firmens' Fund will be held in the steamer St. Lawrence on the evening of Wednesday, the 14th inst. All the amusements usual on such occasions may be expected, and those who attend cannot fail to enjoy themselves. ABOUT half-past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, smoke was discovered issuing from the roof of Smallwood's Factory, Upper Queen Street. On investigation it was discovered that the roof had taken fire; but as the fire had not obtained any great headway before being discovered it was soon extinguished without calling out the fire brigade. THE steamer Carroll sailed for Boston at 6 o'clock last evening, with a general cargo and the following passengers:—Mr. James Richards, Mrs. James Richards, Mrs. Michael Pidgeon, Misses Mary B. McKenzie, M. A. Graham, Flora McKinnon, Maggie McLeod, Jessie McLeod, Katie McKay, Sadie Brooks, Jennie McPhee, Ellie Macdonald, Mrs. Stewart, Master John Francis. WORLD CHEER ANYHOW.—On the evening after the election, at the close of the polls, several enthusiastic Grits conversed before their rooms on Queen Square. The result of the election was discussed, and after fully satisfying themselves that victory for their cause was impossible, they resolved into a select committee and proposed three cheers for defeat. They were determined to celebrate the day at all events. LOONE HOTEL, Tracadie Beach, was successfully opened yesterday—the general manager, Mr. Bent, S. Davies, doing all in his power to make things comfortable and agreeable for the very goodly number who spent the holiday there. The hotel, in its appointments is everything that can be desired for a summer resort, having been just refitted by Mr. W. E. Hickey, of the City Upholstery, in his best style, and we must say it does him every credit. The neatly-furnished parlors are supplied with a first-class tri-chord piano. The handsomely set dining table, well supplied with all the delicacies of the season; the large, airy, newly carpeted bedrooms and spacious halls—all tend to make the place most attractive. We only hope that the promoters will receive such patronage as will amply repay them for their outlay, which must, indeed, have been large. DOMINION DAY was generally observed in the city. The principal places of business were closed, flags floated in the breeze, and the usual royal salute was fired from Fort Edward by No. 1 Co. Artillery. The half-fares along the line of railway were taken advantage of by great numbers, all the trains being crowded. The early out-going trains were thronged with pleasure seekers—some for the picnic at Lot 65, some for the Tea Party at St. Peter's, some fishing, some shooting, and all determined on enjoying themselves. A large number enjoyed a pleasant afternoon's sail to Orwell and return in the steamer Heather Bell. The weather was splendid, the excursionists agreeable, and everyone was well pleased with the trip. A private picnic was held at Rocky Point. It was attended by a large number and judging from the pleased countenances of those who attended all enjoyed themselves. Another large party, on pleasure bent, had a very pleasant private picnic at Farquharson's Wharf, and an excursion in the steamer Southampton in the evening. Several other picnics and excursions were held, and it may be safely said that Dominion Day was never more thoroughly enjoyed than this year.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.] Bright's Alternative Scheme.

LONDON, July 2. The elections began yesterday. Twenty-five Tories and Liberal Unionists and eleven Gladstonians were elected without opposition. At Colchester there was very little change in the voting from that of the last general election, the Tory candidate polling 500 votes less and the Liberal 177 less. The Marquis of Lorne has advised the Liberals to vote against Gladstone. John Bright made a furious speech at Birmingham, in which he stated that he would remain at the front as long as this great question remained unsolved. The Irish government created by Gladstone was only a forward step in the march to break up the kingdom through rapine, and the most astonishing proposal was that this conspiracy should be dignified by the name, form and power of Parliament. He opposed and would oppose any and every form of parliament at Dublin. Bright suggested as an alternative to the Government proposals that a permanent committee of the Irish members should be formed, and all Irish bills, after their first reading, should be referred to this committee. No English or Scotch member should be on this committee, and the House of Commons should only have power to consider the bill, upon the report of the committee. He admitted that the plan was a simple one and depended for its working upon the honest working in combination of the Irish party in the House of Commons. The plan might, he said, be called one of the "unexhausted resources of civilization," and it should be tried before they capitulated to one of the worst conspiracies that ever affected any country. (Prolonged cheers.)

Diamond Cut Diamond.

HALIFAX, July 2. There is an amusing story of "diamond cut diamond" reported from Shelburne, N. S.

The Portland, Me., fishing schooner City Point, Capt. Keen, bound for the Grand Banks, ran into Shelburne about dusk on Wednesday evening, in order to quietly obtain a supply of bait which had been pre-arranged for from some parties at Sand Point. The cruiser Terror happened to be in port, and a few minutes after the Yankee had anchored Capt. Quigley of the Terror went on board to interview Capt. Keen. The American's excuse for coming in was that he wanted to get his decks caulked. Capt. Quigley replied that he would be able to get that little job done in the morning, meanwhile he would leave an armed watch on board for the night. Next morning Capt. Quigley sent to the American to say that he had better get his decks caulked as speedily as possible and get outside of the three mile limit. Capt. Keen speedily acted on the suggestion, and proceeded on his voyage, a sadder if not a wiser man.

The Synod of Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, July 2. In his charge to the members of the Episcopal Synod, now in session here, His Lordship Bishop Binney referred to the important charges of the clergyman of the diocese; mentioned the necessity that exists that the Province should supply the material for its own clergyman; spoke of the condition and prospects of King's College, Windsor, and the necessity for instituting an academy for young ladies; touched upon the question of personal purity, the low state of public morality and the importance of teaching women that sin is sin; and pointed out the preparations that should be made for duly celebrating the centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Nova Scotia Bishopric (the oldest Colonial Bishopric in the world), which occurs next month. There is a very large attendance of delegates, but the business so far has been principally of a routine character. T. R. Jolly, Esq., a delegate, invited the Synod to hold their next meeting at Yarmouth, N. S.
