Teachers' Institute.

The Annual Meeting.

AFTERNOON, FIRST DAY.

Mr. Ozenham's Report—Continued.

The President reported that an oil painting of the late Prof. T. A. LePage, by Robert Harris, Esq., and worth $110, had been secured for the sum of $35; the balance being a donation from the artist.

The said painting was here produced and hung behind the President's chair. It is a work of first-class merit.

On motion of Mr. Seaman, the action of the committee on said matter was endorsed by the Association.

On motion, resolved that the thanks of the Association be tendered to Mr. Harris for his liberal donation.

Mr. J. D. Seaman, from the committee appointed to report on a Library for the use of the Institute, said that the committee had met and considered the matter. The first question that presented itself was: "Where should such a Library be kept, and how distributed?" The late Superintendent of Education undertook, a short time before his death, to provide a place for it in the Education Office, but he did not live to carry out his intention. Up to the present time Mr. Nicholson had been too busy to attend to the matter. If any member of the Institute wishes to have any particular book in the proposed Library let him make a request to the committee to have it placed on the list. There is good reason for hoping that in due time the Library will be provided.

On motion, resolved that the names of Messrs. Stewart, Campbell, Ives and Kiely and Miss Snaddon be added to those of the Library Committee.

Mr. J. W. Young, from the committee appointed to report on the President's Address at the opening of the present session of the Convention, presented their report, which was as follows:

Your committee to whom the President's address was referred, compliment that gentleman on the very excellent address with which he has favored the Institute, containing as it does so many valuable suggestions, and strongly recommend its publication.

The committee further recommend that a special committee from this convention be appointed to consider and draw up a sliding scale of salaries, on the principle of Mr. Arbuttle's suggestion. In this connection, though not embodied in the President's address, we would suggest that something be done towards the founding of an insurance fund for teachers.

The committee further recommend that the Institute urge upon the Government the necessity of providing a greater degree of professional training for teachers.

The idea of an Educational Exhibit, we believe, is worthy of the attention of the Institute, and steps should at once be taken to have one at our next Provincial Exhibition.

JOHN W. YOUNG,
J. D. SEAMAN,
E. E. MCKINNON.

On motion, the consideration of the Report was laid over until the afternoon.

Mr. Miller, from the committee appointed to report on a suitable memorial to the late D. Montgomery, Esq., Chief Superintendent of Education, presented their report, which was as follows:

Your committee appointed to report on some suitable memorial expressive of the high esteem in which the late Donald Montgomery, Supt. of Education, and a member of this convention, was held by us, beg leave to recommend that a portrait of him be procured to be hung in our convention hall.

L. MILLER,
J. M. DAWSON,
EWEN STEWART.

MR. MACSWAIN.—As the Association have not ways and means wherewith to purchase an expensive oil painting of the late Mr. Montgomery, we might provide a memorial of a different kind, and one which would be more in keeping with the career of that gentleman, while he was with us. A good library to be named "The Montgomery Educational Library" might be established by the Association.

As we have no hall where portraits can be hung, we have little or no use for them. He moved in amendment that the Association procure a library costing $50, and that it be named in honor of the late Chief Superintendent of Education—Mr. Montgomery.

Mr. Seaman said that it was the intention of the Association to secure a library, apart from the proposed memorial, and to name it after the late Mr. Montgomery would cost nothing. This would be a cheap way of providing a memorial. The Association would require a room for the library as well as a place wherein to hang the portrait. A small subscription from each teacher would secure a first-class oil painting of the late Chief Superintendent; and all would feel a greater personal interest in such a painting than in a library.

Mr. Norton favored the purchase of a suitable library, the books from which would be in constant use among the teachers, instead of an expensive oil painting, which would be seen by them only once a year when they met in Charlottetown.

Mr. Crafer thought the Association should give a more tangible expression of their appreciation of the services of the late Mr. Montgomery than providing a library. He agreed with the report of the committee that a portrait should be procured, and hung in some suitable room, such as the Education Office, where the portrait of the late Prof. LePage should also be placed.

Mr. Ives agreed with the remarks of the last speaker. The Association should procure an oil painting which would be a companion picture to that of the late Prof. LePage. If subscriptions were asked for to defray the cost, he believed the teachers would readily respond.

Mr. Norton.—If a tangible memorial is required, a library would prove to be more tangible than a portrait.

Mr. McSwain's amendment was put and lost.

Report agreed to.

MR. SEAMAN moved that a companion portrait to that of the late Prof. LePage be procured in memory of the late Mr. Montgomery, and that the funds necessary for the purchase of same be raised by subscription.

Mr. Ives seconded the motion.

MR. J. M. DUNCAN thought the Association should ascertain whether Mr. Harris would supply it with a portrait similar to that of the late Prof. LePage, at the same price, before ordering such a picture. The Association could secure first-class steel point engravings of both of the deceased for less than the price of an oil painting for one, and he considered the former style of picture superior to the latter.

MR. MILLER.—If a subscription is to be taken up for the purpose of securing the funds, I would strongly urge that Mr. Duncan's suggestion be adopted, as the price of the steel engravings is much more moderate than that of the oil painting.

MR. DUNCAN was in favor of the purchase of the steel engravings by the Institute, instead of by subscription.

MR. SEAMAN'S motion in favor of the purchase of an oil painting was then put and carried unanimously.

MR. DUNCAN, from the auditing committee, reported that they had carefully examined the accounts of the treasurer for the year 1889, and found them correct.

Report adopted.

MR. CAIN, from the committee on the nomination of officers for the Association for the coming year, presented their report, recommending the appointment of the following to the respective positions named, namely:

President—Ewen Stewart, Georgetown.
1st Vice-President—J. D. Seaman, Charlottetown.

2d Vice-President—Miss Janetta McPhail, Summerside.

3d Vice-President—James Landrigan, Souris.

Sec.-Treasurer—R. H. Campbell, Lower Montague.

Cor. Sec'y—Miss Carrie Haslam, Charlottetown.

Executive Committee—Messrs. Benjamin Crafer, Malpeque; George E. Robinson, Charlottetown; Bruce Shaw, Flat River; Miss Mary Farmer, Charlottetown; Miss Sarah Harris, Charlottetown.

On motion, said report was unanimously adopted.

A lesson in geography, by maps, was then given to a class of girls from the Prince Street School, by Miss Maggie McNeill, of Prince County, to whom a due meed of praise was accorded for the excellent manner in which she acquitted herself.

Sir Casimir Gzowski was presented with a congratulatory address by fellow civil engineer at Montreal last evening on having been honored with knighthood.

It is stated that Great Britain, France, and Austria have all signified that they will not participate in the so-called World's Fair at Chicago in 1893. The reason assigned is that there is not much use exhibiting there wares in a country whose people are not in a position to buy them. It appears to us that the same reason should prevent Canada having anything to do with it.

THE OLD STORY.—Two men, named William Buckley and John Oats, hailing from Margaree, C. B., registered at the Hampton House, Haymarket Square, Boston, last Thursday night. They retired about 11 o'clock, and about noon next day a smell of gas was noticed in the corridors near their room. The door was broken in. Buckley was dead and Oates unconscious. He will probably die. Both were apparently laboring men.

AGAINST THE LOTTERIES.—Papers in the United States containing lottery advertisements are now denied the use of the mails. The Louisiana lottery company, however, think they have discovered a way in which the provisions of the anti-lottery law may be safely evaded. Their scheme is to buy a Montreal newspaper, fill it with advertisements of the lottery and flood the United States with copies of it. They claim that under the terms of the postal union United States authorities will have no right to exclude the paper from the mails.

AGAIN BLACKBALLED.—Hon. J. W. Longley, Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, was again blackballed out of the Halifax Club a few days ago. This is the third time the Attorney-General has been blackballed from this Club, and he can never be again proposed.
