In Memoriam

FREDERICK GEORGE LARTER

Hampshire and district received a shock when it learned the sorrowful news on March 25th that Mr. Fred Larter, aged 70, had passed away after only a few hours immediate illness. He was of a friendly disposition and will be much missed in his home and community. He was a member of the Kingston Baptist Church. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. G. Wakeling assisted by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd. Hymns sung were "For ever with the Lord," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Shall we meet beyond the River?" also a solo "Sometime we'll understand." Sorrowing relatives include his widow, formerly Frances Hyde, two sons, Charles and Watson, one daughter Mildred (Mrs. Richard MacLaren) on the homestead, one brother, Thomas of Washington, and four sisters, Mrs. George Ritchie and Mrs. Lemuel Worthy of Charlottetown, Mrs. Alex Rooney, of Dakota and Mrs. Tremere of Hampshire, P. E. I.

Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. Worthy, on Monday, April 27th, at 10 o'clock. Burial was in the cemetery. The casket was borne by Messrs. Wilbert and Robert Reeves, John MacLean, Stephen Askland, Robert Edwards and Pope Tremere.

MRS. ROBERT T. MOASE

The death occurred in Summerside Monday of Mrs. Robert T. Moase at the age of 74 years.

Mrs. Moase was born at Long River, the daughter of Samuel Burrows and Mary Johnstone. She lived all her married life, over fifty years in Kensington. Mrs. Moase was an active worker in the Presbyterian Church and leaves many friends.

There are left to mourn five daughters and five sons, Mrs. Robert Stavert, Wilmot; Mrs. John A. Hogg, Kelvin; Mrs. Bracken J. Simmons, Wilmot; Mrs. Reuben Large, Wilmot; Mrs. Maxwell Robertson, Summerside; Darrah, Free-town; Edgar of Revelstoke, B. C.; Davis, Travellers Rest; Major, St. Eleanors, and Harold of New Annapolis.

She leaves also one brother John A. Burrows of Wilmot and two sisters, Mrs. John Moase, New Annapolis, Mrs. H. B. S. Birch, Port Hill. Her husband predeceased her 12 years ago.

The funeral was held on Sunday the 29th and notwithstanding the unfavourable state of the weather, a great number of the neighbours gathered at the home, where a short service was conducted by the Rev. Arthur Organ of Bedouque United Church. Some of his favorite hymns were sung at this service, and Mrs. Helen Bell, and her son Mr. Charles Bell, sang a beautiful duet. Abide with me. The remains were then conveyed to St. John's Church Craupud, which was filled to its utmost capacity by old friends and neighbors, of the deceased, to pay their last tribute of respect to a good citizen. The beautiful burial service of the Anglican Church was then conducted in a very impressive manner, by the Rector, Rev. E. R. G. Bridgewater, and all that was mortal of Albert Sherrin was solemnly and tenderly laid to rest by the side of his first wife in the cemetery where three or four generations of the Sherrin family are now resting. The pallbearers were all nephews of the deceased, Messrs Geo. E. McDonald, Fred W. McDonald, Clifford Sherrin, George Sherrin, Arthur Sherrin and Stewart Sherrin.

MR. ALBERT SHERREN

On Friday March the 27th, 1936, the grim reaper death visited the peaceful and happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sherrin, of Cape Traverse, and removed the husband and father, in the person of Mr. Albert Sherrin, at the age of 72 years. Mr. Sherrin had suffered from Asthma and heart trouble for some years, but was never laid aside from work. He was up and working the morning of his death as usual. He was a very active man and was at work in the morning, removing the banking from his house, and cleaning up his lawn and garden, in preparation for the coming summer. When the mail courier arrived at his gate he went and talked to him for a few minutes, carried his mail into the house laid it on the table, took a seat by the table, and Albert Sherrin's work was finished, for God called him, and he threw up his hands immediately and was dead in an instant. No long tedious sickness. He was always a worker and died in harness, which was the way he wished to.

Mr. Sherrin was known and highly respected by a great number of people along the south side of the Island extending from the Town of Borden to the village of Bonshaw. He was a man of splendid physique and was noted far and wide for his wonderful strength and staying power. There were no others in his generation that could begin to compete with him when engaged in any kind of labour. He was a member of a large family and was the son of the late James Sherrin, Sr. and Sarah Cairns, his wife. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Wilson of Hampton, and by the union, there were four sons, one of whom predeceased him many years. The three surviving are Heber of Augustine Cove, Ernest of Cape Traverse and Russell in Ontario. He is also survived by his second wife formerly Miss Milligan of Augustine Cove, and three young daughters, viz. Hazel, Alice, and Annie, all at home. He also leaves surviving him two brothers—Alfred Sherrin of Victoria and David S. Sherrin of Craupud and one sister Mrs. Celia Biggley, of Brocton, Mass. Mr. Sherrin when a young man lived at Hampton, then for a few years at Victoria, and then removed next to Augustine Cove, where he purchased a farm, and where he spent the greater part of his life, and on this farm he prospered greatly. Finally on account of ill health and getting on in years, he gradually found his great strength leaving him, and he disposed of this beautiful farm, and

MR. C. H. MACNEILL

There passed away at the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown on March 20th, 1936, Mrs. Colin Hector MacNeill of Little Sands, at the early age of 52 years. Mr. MacNeill had been in poor health for some months, he was removed to the hospital with the hope that his life might be spared, and while everything was done for the three weeks he was a patient there, he passed away on the above date.

He was a man who was well known and very highly respected. He was of a quiet and unassuming nature strong in his friendship and one who by his industry and good management made for himself a very fine home. Besides his widow (nee Miss Mary G. MacLean) he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Sibbald MacNeill, Little Sands; Miss Dora MacNeill, Little Sands; Miss Margaret MacNeill, Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. J. H. C. Beck, New Glasgow, N. S.; and Mrs. Stanley Dumas, Worcester, Mass. They were all present at his funeral except Mrs. Dumas. His funeral was held on the 23rd inst. and conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. R. Goudge assisted by Rev. J. R. Skinner, Bell River. The large attendance bore testimony to the esteem felt for him, and the sympathy for the bereaved. He was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery. The following were the pall-bearers: Harold A. MacLean, Lemuel MacLean, Wm. D. MacDonald, Hugh MacNeill, Alex. Blue and George Blue.

Another "CROWN BRAND" Baby

NONE BUT THE BEST IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR HIM

There was no doubt that this young gentleman should have Corn Syrup in his first feedings... and there was no doubt that the Corn Syrup used should be "CROWN BRAND". His doctor recommended it because it is so full of nourishment and energy... a fact proven in children's hospitals and clinics throughout Canada.

And this fine boy, strong, sturdy and as happy as the day is long, continues to get his "CROWN BRAND" CORN SYRUP... only the best is good enough for him. Give your children this most delicious energy food. They will love it and thrive on it. Why not buy a can to-day. Your grocer sells "CROWN BRAND"... your doctor will recommend it.

Wallpaper Tells of Famous Story

BOSTON, April 28—(CP)—Some writer who has lately visited the home of Louisa Alcott, the author, says:

"There was the seat under the old tree in the yard, and the sausage cushion on the Victorian settee... and the wallpaper border in the Amy's room that the girls pasted up themselves. It was that wallpaper border that finished us. We sat down on a little back stairway and spent a whole afternoon in a wistful reminiscent mood, and

New Demand In Bartholomew Case

LOS ANGELES, April 28—(C.P.)—A new petition asking for all money on hand earned by the child actor, Freddie Bartholomew, was filed today by his mother in further action against his guardian-aunt.

The mother, Mrs. Lillian Bartholomew, recently denied a petition to end the guardianship, again asked for such action, charging the boy was taken from England contrary to the laws of the country.

Mrs. Bartholomew asked that Freddie's aunt, Miss Mylicent Bartholomew, be required to give an accounting of his earnings. She charged the boy was placed in films without the consent of her or his father.

FAILS TO ESCAPE

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—A prisoner made a futile attempt to escape from Alcatraz Island federal prison today and met death when he plunged over a 60-foot cliff as guards fired at him.

Joe Bowers, 40, mail robber, died from a broken neck.
