ON TRIAL.—The press correspondent who telegraphed New York and San Francisco papers that the Raymond excursion party was destroyed on the C. P. R. and forty lives lost, is now on trial for publishing maliciously false news, and has a good prospect of going to the penitentiary.

THE COMING EVENT.—The principal topic of conversation in the city to-day is the excellent programme to be presented at the closing exercises of the Convent de Notre Dame on Wednesday evening next. The programme prepared by the ladies of the Convent for the occasion promises to eclipse all their former efforts in this direction.

L. O. A.—We understand that the Orangemen of the city will attend church in the forenoon of the 12th July, and hold a private pic-nic in the afternoon. Other celebrations are to be held at Freetown and Glen William. The Grand Lodge, held last week at Lindsay, is to meet next year at Halifax. This will bring some prominent citizens down from the Upper Provinces.

Fuller, Chief Architect, stating that permission had been granted the city of Charlottetown to connect a sewer with the sewer leading from the Dominion Building, to which His Worship made reference at the Council meeting on Monday evening. A telegram to His Worship from Senator Ferguson states that instructions have been sent to Mr. Harris, architect, to allow the city to connect with the sewer. Mayor Dawson is entitled to credit for his action in this matter, and Mr. Davies and Senator Ferguson are also deserving of thanks for the prompt attention they gave to His Worship's letters and telegrams.

A. O. H.—The picnic at St. Dunstan's College on Thursday next promises to be the best affair of its kind held in recent years. Division No. 1 will leave their rooms on Queen Street the morning of the picnic, and, headed by St. Dunstan's College Band, will march to the station, thence by train to the College grounds. A fine programme of sports has been prepared, and no doubt all the events will be keenly contested. A baseball match has been arranged between a team from the city and the College nine. The teams are practicing each evening, and both feel confident of the medal offered to the winners. First-class booths for dancing will be on the grounds and excellent music furnished for terpsichorean devotees. There will also be well-stocked saloons and ice-cream booths. Professor Cosgrove will be present with all his specialties, and everything will be provided in the way of amusement. Reduced fares by steamers. Trains will run at regular intervals between the city and the picnic grounds. See small bills for particulars concerning games, etc.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

SHIPMENT OF CHEESE.—Fifty boxes of cheese from the factory at New Perth arrived in the city last evening.

ZION CHURCH.—Evangelist Scott preaches at the morning and Rev. Wm. Scott at the evening service in Zion Church to-morrow.

EXCURSION.—The altar boys of St. Dunstan's Cathedral, with the League of the Cross Band, are having an excursion in the May Queen this afternoon.

THE FASTNET.—The steamer Fastnet arrived at Charlottetown from Summerside this forenoon at ten o'clock, with a general cargo and two passengers. She will leave here for Halifax about four this afternoon with a full cargo of lobsters, pork, potatoes, etc., the shippers being J. H. Myrick & Co., Longworth & Co., Walter Matheson, Rattenbury Bros. and others.

THEATRICAL.—The Harkins Dramatic Company have been playing at the Academy of Music, Halifax, for several weeks past, drawing large houses. The company is one of the best on the road. Their repertoire includes The Still Alarm, the Soudon, the Arkansas Traveller and other standard productions. Cannot some effort be made to have the company visit Charlottetown? We feel sure they would draw good houses.

OLD SHOES IN A NEW LIGHT.—A French savant has invented a new science which he terms spralogy, whereby he proposes to diagnosticate mental qualities from the appearance of the shoes worn by the subject. He claim that shoes that have been worn are full of faithful indications as to lack of energy, fickleness, bad temper or the opposite qualities, as the case may be. If the sole and heel of a shoe, after two months' wear, are equally worn, the owner is an energetic business man, an employee that can be relied on, a good wife or excellent mother. If the outside edge is most worn, the owner is adventurous to rashness and of a bold and persistent turn of mind. Wear of the inside edge indicates irresolution and weakness in man and modesty in woman.

TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE.—The Pictou Standard says: Some time ago, Dr Chalmers, V. S., Truro, was called to Bayview to examine a sick cow in Sir Hibbert Tupper's herd of jerseys. The doctor pronounced the animal suffering from tuberculosis. Upon this being reported to Ottawa Sir Hibbert ordered that the animals be put under Dr. Koch's lymph test. The doctor made the test and found that all the animals, eight in number, except one, were afflicted. As soon as this report reached Ottawa Sir Hibbert Tupper ordered that the lot be destroyed, including the unaffected one, which was done this week under the supervision of Dr. Chalmers. The herd was very valuable, being imported from the Island of Jersey, the bull being valued at $600. The doctor thinks there are scores of cattle throughout the country afflicted in the same manner.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Last week, John Wambolt, who lives a few miles from Annapolis, N. S., was arrested on a charge of fraud and brought before Stipendiary Lovett, who gave him four months in jail. There has been no one home to do the spring planting, so his wife went to work with vigor, bound that the crop should appear in the fall as heretofore. On Thursday while at work on a piece of "burnt land," her dress caught fire, and her screams were heard by the school children. The neighbors were soon on hand, but the woman had not a garment left on her body—nothing remaining but a pair of shoes. Medical aid was called in, and at latest accounts the death of the unfortunate woman was hourly expected. Dr. Robinson, of Annapolis, was at once sent for, and he did all in his power to save the poor woman's life. A report reached town this morning that she was dead.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

PNEUMATICS.

SIR,—When I gave the "emphatic endorsement" to "Psycho's" utterly absurd contribution, I had not seen Mr. Davies' challenge or Mr. Moore's acceptance, but had formed my conclusions from the general talk. Being absent from the Island these gems of modesty and free advertisement had not reached me. However, I have since hunted them up, and find contained in a letter in the Guardian of May 28th (in which Mr. Davies writes about Mr. W. W. Moore and his own liniments) the following words: "Mr. Moore claims he did not challenge me—granted, I now challenge him and others to race from New Perth cheese factory to Southport within the next four weeks for the long distance championship of the Island and the championship cup won by me two years ago." The words and others may have been intended to mean any other Island wheelmen or it may have been some little clique who were to accompany them. It is not a broad term, and certain it is the wheelmen did not understand it as a general challenge. I have yet to find the first cyclist who noticed the words "and others" in it. Mr. Moore's acceptance has no word for anyone except Mr. Davies.

But wait! What "championship" was it that Mr. Davies held from "two years ago"? In the autumn of 1892, a cup was offered. Two boys were coaxed to enter the race with Mr. Davies to make a race of it. Those boys were both in their first season's wheeling. They had played around on the one bicycle. But No. 2 borrowed another wheel, and so the conditions of the race were filled, a one-mile race run, and Mr. Davies, "in a regular and legitimate way," won the Island championship and silver cup. Oh, glorious fame! This is the only Island championship of which he has ever been the proud possessor. He evidently knew, when he challenged, that he did not hold the long-distance championship. The champion never challenges; he simply holds his laurels until challenged and defeated. If Mr. Davies thought he held the long-distance championship he was certainly ignorant of sporting rules to challenge. Surely that were ground enough for my endorsation of "Psycho's" contention. I never referred to the intrinsic value of the cup by insinuation or otherwise. I still hold it was not skill but brute force that was required for the late race. Yes, brute force, brawn muscle. "Pluck and sinew" are the base of brute force. "Endurance"? One hour and forty-eight minutes! Wonderful! "Intelligence"? The circumstances do not reveal an overstock. "Petty laurels." The above shows how petty they are. "Hard won." Well, 1.48 of "pluck, sinew, endurance and intelligence" is surely all it was worth to defeat the victor of those two boys.

I must apologize for the length of this letter, but cannot close without a word for the———well, I will not name it, who would use an individual's name no less than six times in a letter coupled with such epithets as "characteristically childish," "contemptuous," "absurdity and foolishness, etc.," and then himself hide behind a nom de plume. I ask not, I care not who or what it is. The term coward was not coined for that class. Contemptable does not describe his actions, nor is it "sour grapes" that ails him, it is—don't know any better.

W. P. DOULL.

THAT MUG.

SIR,—Allow me to briefly criticise one statement made by Mr. Doull in his letter commenting on the Moore-Davies bicycle race. He says "the mug is of no value." This statement is, sir, incorrect. The mug, I think, cost the Directors of the Charlottetown Driving Park three dollars and fifty cents, and is beautifully embossed and finished. It bears on the inverse side the inscription "In hoc signo bicyclo," and on the reverse side "In much wind, success." It is a magnificent trophy even if it is made of pewter, differing only from the one owned by your correspondent "Columbia," which, I understand, is made of brass.

PIG LEAD.

TOO MUCH OF IT.

SIR,—The universal impression is that you are devoting far too much of your space in publishing letters on bicycle races. The general public have long since lost any interest they had in the Davies-Moore-wind-race-farce and are not very much concerned now in the almost personal controversy going on in your columns. To put the contest between Fred. Davies and Moore in a nut shell, it comes down to this: Davies lost, honestly and fairly, simply because Moore was and is the better man. For the same reason Fred. Davies won at the Driving Park last fall twelve month, when he contested against a number of boys who knew next to nothing of driving. He got the cup at that time very easy. Moore got it this time in like manner. It now remains for some other chap with more muscle and perseverance than Moore to turn up with a "goat" and get the cup out of his possession.

As the City Council are making an effort to clear the sidewalks of all unnecessary and useless hinderances and obstructions, it would not be out of place for the Stipendiary Magistrates to instruct the police force to see that these bicycle gentry (who appear to be running the town as well as the newspapers) keep off the sidewalks and on the street proper, or in the Park. It would appear that besides spoiling quite a portion of the Park they wish to monopolize both Queen Square and the sidewalks, to the annoyance and danger of pedestrians.
