MR. AND MRS. ERWIN CONNOLLY

Couple Reside In Dorchester Following Island Ceremony

St. Cuthberts Church St. Theresa's was the scene of a pretty wedding when Josephine Mary daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Bradley, Saint Theresas, became the bride of Erwin Francis Connolly, son of Mr. and Mrs Francis Connolly, Iona. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Eugene Murray.

Baskets of roses and mixed flowers decorated the church and each of the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride was radiant as she entered the church on the arm of her father, as the wedding march (march nuptiale) was played by Sister Mary Alfred, and the girls choir sang under the direction of Sister Marie Annette.

The bride wore a floor length gown of embroidered pure silk organza, with scoop neckline and long tily point sleeves. Her elbow length veil of tulle was held in place by a tiara of simulated crystal beads and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red roses, with white streamers.

Miss Joyce Connolly, sister of the groom was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of pink organza over taffeta, featuring a bell shaped skirt. Her matching headdress was styled with a pillbox hat and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Louis Bradley, brother of the bride acted as best man and the ushers were Beverley Connolly, brother of the groom and Kenneth Bradley, brother of the bride. The bride's younger brothers, Kelvin and Merlin Bradley assisted as altar boys.

Mrs. Bradley, wore a lime green linen dress with maribou hat and white accessories, her corsage was of white and yellow carnations.

The groom's mother wore a brown and beige printed silk sheath with nylon organza hat. She wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at the Beaver Club in Montague. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Father Murray proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Tommy Dunphy acted as master of ceremonies.

The guest book was circulated by Dianne, sister of the bride and Donna, sister of the groom.

For a honeymoon trip around the Cabot Trial the bride wore a pale yellow linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Among the congratulations and best wishes the young couple received a telegram from the groom's sister, Shirley Connolly, in Dedham, Mass.

Prior to her marriage the bride was given a miscellaneous shower at the home of her uncle Chester Bradley.

The young couple have taken up residence at 82 Woodrow Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., where both are employed.

Good Care Helps Make New Non-Stick Pans Last

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

THE NON - STICK FRYPAN created quite a sensation when introduced.

Many persons liked it, found it really was non-stick and reported it was durable for a year or even more.

THE GOOD GUYS

They were the ones who followed directions exactly, never applied an abrasive to the lining and never, never used a commercial cleanser on it or scraped it with a knife or spoon.

They also were careful to cook the food at a moderate temperature, so it would not stick and burn onto the surface.

WHEN THEY GOOFED

If perchance they were careless, they poured warm water into the pan and let the burned food stand to soak free.

Now we have an almost complete line of non- stick utensils—saucepans, griddles, bakeware such as muffin, cooky and loaf pans, even roasting pans are available.

REALLY ARE NON-STICK

They certainly keep foods from sticking and can be of real help.

Should you buy one? Only If you have the patience to follow the directions for use and cleaning that accompany them.

TOMORROW'S DINNER

Sliced Tomato Sweet Pickle Marinade
New England Corned Beef
Beet and Horseradish Relish
White Potatoes
Cabbage and Carrots
Apple-Raisin Gingerbread
or Glazed Baked Apples
Coffee Tea Milk

Measurements level; recipe for 6

SWEET POTATO SOUFFLE

2 lbs. sweet potatoes
½ tsp. ground nutmeg
¼ tsp. ground cloves
¼ c. light brown sugar
¼ tsp. salt
2 tbsp. butter or margarine
¼ c. cream
3 egg yolks
3 egg whites

Cook sweet potatoes in boiling water until tender (or use vacuum-packed, non-sweetened sweet potatoes). Drain, peel and mash until smooth.

Beat in spices, sugar, salt, butter and cream.

Beat egg yolks and add; fold in whites, beaten stiff.

Bake in 3-pt. buttered souffle mold or casserole in hot oven, 400 degrees F. for 35 min. or until risen well and brown.

OLD VIRGINIA TIPSY CAKE

5 egg yolks
¼ tsp. salt
2 c. sugar
2 c. sifted flour
3 tsp. baking powder
½ c. cold water
1 tsp. vanilla
5 egg whites
1 pt. sherry wine

Beat egg yolks, salt and sugar together until very light.

Sift flour and baking powder together; add alternately with water and vanilla, adding a little water first. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Pour into unoiled angel food pan; bake in mod. oven, 350 degrees F., for 50 to 60 min.

Invert pan on rack until cool. Remove from pan.

A few hrs. before serving, pour cherry wine over cake and let it stand. Serve with whipped cream laced with brandy or brandy extract.

Comment: You can take the "Tipsy" out of the cake by using equal parts of strained orange juice and Virginia apple juice with a whiff of grated nutmeg instead of the sherry.

THE CHEF'S NEW ENGLAND CORNED BEEF WITH VEGETABLES

Wash 3 to 4 pounds corned beef brisket or plate. Place in a deep saucepan, cover with water, add 1 tablespoon vinegar and bring slowly to boiling point.

Discard water; pour in boiling water to cover. Close cover; simmer until tender — about 3 hours for brisket, 2½ hours for plate.

If desired, potatoes and carrots may be cooked with the corned beef during the last 40 minutes, but cabbage should be cooked separately.

When the corned beef is done, cut off excess fat and slice meat in crosswise pieces: arrange overlapping on a heated large platter.

Pile cooked potatoes and carrots at one end; dust with a little minced parsley. Heap cabbage at the other end.

Garnish with beet and horseradish relish.
