ELLEN'S DIARY

It's Pastures A Farmer Should Look To Says Mack

"The pastures aren't as good now as they were this time last year. They're not so velvety," Mack commented this evening.

"No not so good," he said coming to the old rocking-chair, where, when he has some problem to consider, when he wishes to repossess his young soul in quiet, he comes to rest.

"Put on your glasses, Granddaddy, and read this," she smiled, coming by with the precious slip after supper, when James sat a minute in the old arm-chair.

MARY HAWORTH

Man's Mistress Keeps Gifts After Her Marriage

Dear Mary Haworth: When my mistress of many years got married recently, without a word of warning to me, she brought her husband to live in the very apartment that I had shared with her for so long.

When I saw her recently I related her for this and said if she has no scruples or self-respect, she might as well consider my feelings particularly considered we have mutual friends and neighbors who know of our affair.

MISCOUCHE

Eighteen graduates of Miscouche High School received their diplomas and certificates at Commencement Exercises which were held on Friday evening in the town hall.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence MacKenzie, Pinedale, that their son, John has been promoted to the rank of lance sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. George Veno and son Wayne were in Moncton recently where they attended the nurses graduation at Hotel Dieu Hospital.

On Thursday evening the inspection of the Summerdale and Air Cadet squadron took place at RCAP Station. A number of boys the fuselage are carried on hand for this inspection.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Doucette of Halifax were recent visitors to Miscouche at the home of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. William Perry.

A banquet was given in honor of the Miscouche graduation class on Thursday in the Convention Auditorium of J. Keith.

Sister Mary Loyola, of the Congregation of Our Lady's Missionaries, former Mary DeLoach, Ennis, graduated from St. Michael's Hospital School of Nursing, Toronto, Ontario, May 19, 1962.

On Saturday evening a prom was held at the Clive Auditorium for the whole evening.

Miss Lois Murphy RN of Sea View, Miscouche, was the guest of honor at the wedding of Elaine Gallant.

Most likely, other plans for the evening which don't necessarily include the friend who is invited merely for a drink.

On the other hand, should the bachelor be a girl and say "May I come and drink with you" she is expected to join the crowd, have one or at the most two drinks, and go your way.

It has been my experience that many young bachelors of limited horizons are attracted to the first alternative as a method of repaying social debts on a modest scale.

Dear Mary Haworth: In the question, whether the bachelor who invites a girl to his apartment for a drink should try to escort her (they live in the same house) as if he thought there is an aspect that the disappointed might consider.

When I have had a harvest of doubt and desolation and humiliation - precisely what you are describing - I have read the words of Scripture: "As a man sows, so shall he reap."
