and every other measure that might be submitted to him, either as Executive or Legislative Councillor. His sentiments do him honor; and the honor is enhanced by his conscientious adherence to the principles they inculcate; and we trust that he will foster and encourage in his associates the same spirit of adherence to the dictates of prudence and moderation, combined with the requirements of the wants and circumstances of the Colony that animates himself.

The English Mail, brought out by the steamship America to Halifax, arrived in town about half-past six o'clock last evening. We have made copious selections from the papers received, for our perusal, which, from their importance, will be read with interest. The couriers left Cape Tormentine early on Monday morning—the English and Colonial Mails having reached that place about 11 o'clock the previous night. Passengers: Andrew, Esq.; Capt. Bell, from Chicago; Messrs. McGregor, G. W. Underwood, A. Bethune.

A farewell note from the Trustees of P. T. Royalty Grammar School, to their late Teacher.

Mr. William Porteous;

Dear Sir,—As the very satisfactory parting examination of the Fanning Grammar School, in Princetown Royalty this day, affords us, (the Trustees of said School) a pleasing opportunity of giving expression to our feelings, as to your invariable correctness of conduct and excellent management of that School, which the forward state of the Pupils, manifestly proves. We with pleasure accord to you the meed of praise, so justly due to merit; and, in doing so, we are perfectly confident that the whole of the School supporters on this occasion, go with us and are as warmly inclined to express their regret at parting with you as we can be; but, as your future calling and movements in life are destined,—as we presume, by Providence—to be of a higher description, we part with you with regret, but with every wish, and almost an assured confidence that God will guide you, bless you, and place you in a more honorable situation than you were with us.

Farewell,

T. MACNUTT

P. E. Island, Princetown Royalty,
April 7th, 1854.

(Mr. William Porteous' Reply.)

Gentlemen,—The highest reward which man can look for in this life, is the consciousness of having faithfully discharged his duty, and the approval of those in whose service we were more immediately engaged. The value of this approbation is much enhanced, when coming from those who are capable of judging the services rendered. You will, therefore, easily understand, Gentlemen, what gratification your kind, but I fear too flattering address affords me, though as eulogy is one more to the many acts of kindness in my behalf, while conducting your School; I confess, it but heightens my regret at our separation. Accept then, my sincere thanks for yourselves as well as the supporters of the School generally; and, rest assured, that nothing but the hope of a vocation for a higher and holier calling, could induce me to relinquish the useful profession in which I have, however, temporarily engaged, and the prosperous and intelligent community among whom I have had the happiness to spend the last two years.

I have the honor, Gentlemen,
To remain,
Yours, very respectfully,
WILLIAM PORTEOUS.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These facts are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, but of medicines that have, for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, of this city, is recommended in some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. Persons of a bilious temperament will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon a weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE.

J. G. Moore, Esq., of the Daily News said, October 31st:—

"Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J., says:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is truly surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this remedy is universally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of the ills to which humanity is subject emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce evidences of the same merit."

For sale wholesale and retail by

THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Arch street, next door below Sixth. Philadelphia, and by respectable dealers generally throughout the country.

In this mammon-worshipping Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, Dr. J. C. AYER, whose name is now perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness. His medicines have attained an unprecedent popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire, according to the usual way of so, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his labors—among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his thee personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang their health. We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business, and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the sick are in such a needy condition, he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the net profit is small.—American Farmer, Phil.
