

Local and Other Items.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Benjamin Chappell, of Summerside, is visiting the city.

STEAMERS MOVED.—The steamer M. A. sent left Halifax for this port this morning.

ADVANCE IN SUGAR.—A Halifax despatch to Mr. Horace Haszard reports a further increase of one-eighth of a cent on sugar.

SOCIAL.—The ladies interested in the Y. M. C. A. social are asked to attend a meeting in the new parlour on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

SEASONABLE.—The late cold spell may have been the forerunner of a mild season, and it may, judging from past years, be expected that we will have an open fall.

ARRIVED AT HALIFAX.—The cruiser Vigilant, Captain C. M. Lorway, arrived in port yesterday, having made the run from Shelburne in ten hours—regular clipper time.—H. Herald.

NEW CARBONS.—New carbons are expected by the Worcester. This will be good news to those whose stores are at present supplied with the poorer kind and which cause a great amount of flicker.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The public tea in Market Hall Thanksgiving Day promises to furnish a good time for all who attend. There will also be refreshment and fancy tables supplied with various attractions.

A LUCKY WOMAN.—Miss Alice McLean, North River, St. Ann's C. B., went to California about eight years ago and became housekeeper for a wealthy maiden lady. Her mistress died about two months ago, and by will left Miss McLean $15,000.

FREE OF CHARGE.—If it does not cure. Addison's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination, it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents. Trial size 10 cents. 35 wy 1w

SCOTT ACT CAMPAIGN.—The Temperance Committee Rooms, in J. D. McLeod's Building, No. 205 Queen St., will be open daily, from 10 a. m., till 10 p. m., during the Scott Act Campaign; where all temperance workers are welcome.

NOT DIPHTHERIA.—Mr. James L. Stanley, of this office, has been seriously afflicted in his family of late, his wife and four children being confined to bed at the same time. One child died Saturday night. There is not now any diphtheria in the house, that dread disease having been stamped out a week ago. Moncton Times.

TWO ACCIDENTS.—The Pioneer reports that while coupling cars on the Railway Wharf in Summerside, on Wednesday afternoon, a young man named John Howatt had his hand smashed so that one of his fingers had to be amputated. On the same afternoon, while coupling cars at North Wiltshire, Edward Martin had one of his hands badly smashed.

Y. M. C. A.—All especially young men, are invited to attend the meeting this evening in the Y. M. C. A. Hall.—Subject "A good Reason to be of Good Courage, Deut. 20:—4, 8. On account of the Temperance Meeting which commences at 8 o'clock, this service will begin at 7.30 o'clock, sharp. Be punctual friends.

THE SMALL POX EPIDEMIC.—Yesterday was the second anniversary of the Small Pox epidemic. On the morning of the 14th Nov. 1885, the flagging of the houses commenced. Our providential escape from much more serious consequences might be made one of the themes for Thanksgiving Day.

A WATCH STOLEN.—We are informed that yesterday afternoon a valuable watch was stolen from the pocket of a vest hanging up in the cricket house at Victoria Park. The facts of the robbery have been placed in the hands of the police and we understand a clue has been discovered which promises to lead to the arrest and conviction of the thief.

THE PHONOGRAPH.—Edison will place 500 improved phonographs in the market next January. This is the most wonderful invention of the age, and will effect a revolution among business men, with whom writing is a severe task—with the editor, who will only require to speak his articles into the instrument, and in scores of other ways make itself generally useful.

WESTERN TRICKS.—The Clinton N. L. correspondent of the Summerside Pioneer, reports that a masked mob composed of several young men who belong not very far from that place, and whose names are all known, one night visited the house of Alex. Smith for the purpose of raising a row, in which they were disappointed. It is a pity that there is not a suitable place for such persons nearer than Dorchester.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Don't fail to attend the meeting in the Market Hall to-night. Mr. Fraser's reputation as a platform speaker stands high, and an able address on the question of the hour may be expected. Other gentlemen of well known ability will also speak, and electors should hear what these gentlemen have to say, and weigh well the great interests at stake in the approaching election. Let there be a grand rally to-night. Come one, come all.

THE POPE'S JUBILEE.—The Provincial cabinet ministers of Quebec have joined together and intend presenting his Holiness Pope Leo XIII., on the occasion of his jubilee, with a massive silver and gold vessel worth several hundred dollars. A prominent ecclesiastic, who leaves for Rome shortly, will be the bearer of the massive present. The various parishes in the diocese of Antigonish, N. S., contributed $1,863.67 towards the jubilee collection for the Pope.

CONTEMPIBLE TACTICS.—The St. John Telegraph, a short time ago, stated that it was believed that the black mare Nellie T., which trotted and took good positions in the 3-minute and 2.50 races at Woodstock and Fredericton was none other than the black mare Maud R., record 2:40, owned by W. F. Robins, of Charlottetown. Mr. Robins informs us that the Telegraph was correct in supposing that Nellie T. and Maud R. were one and the same, but says he was not in any way responsible for the contemptible trick. He says that several months ago he placed his mare in the hands of "Al" Slipp and Lee of Truro for training, and that during the summer they wrote him repeatedly about the mare's success at Fredericton and Woodstock, but never so much as hinted that they were sailing under false colors—that the mare was trotting under an assumed name. Had they done so he would at once have called a halt and exposed the whole proceeding. He feels quite sure over the contemptible business and will probably give Mr. Slipp a piece of his mind at the first opportunity.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

Serious Consequences Feared.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14. A shooting affray that may have a tragic end occurred in Joe Beef's well-known cantine to-night. Two men, both of whom were under the influence of liquor, commenced to shoot promiscuously on the people at the bar. One man named Canovan was shot between the heart and the lung, another called Woods was shot in the temple, and one Henry Irving was shot in the left eye. All are in the general hospital. Canovan is in a most dangerous condition. The police are searching for the miscreants.

Defying the Police.

DUBLIN, Nov. 14. A meeting of Land Leaguers was held in front of Lisfarny Castle, Waterford, the residence of Mr. Pyne, the member of Parliament for whose arrest a warrant was recently issued. Mr. Pyne it will be remembered took refuge in the Castle, well fortified and entrenched. He addressed the crowd through an aperture in the Castle and boasts that the building was perfectly fortified and defied the police to make an assault.

The Trade Deputation.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. The St. John, N. B., deputation on trade matters had a final interview with the members of the Government this afternoon. In all likelihood a subsidy will be granted to a line of fast freight steamers to run between Liverpool and St. John. If the experiment is a success passenger steamers will ultimately run into the latter port which on the completion of the short line railway will become in the opinion of the delegates a rival to Portland.

Diplomatic Relations Severed.

BUCHAREST, Nov. 14. The Diplomatic relations between Roumania and Greece have been severed. The Roumanian Minister at Athens was recently recalled in consequence of the quarrel over the estate of a person who died in Roumania, whom both governments claimed as their subject.

Big Reception Promised.

DUBLIN, Nov. 14. A committee of 73, composed of highly influential citizens, has been formed to receive Lord Hartington and Mr. Goschen on their intended visit to the city. The Express predicts that the meeting will be the greatest gathering in Dublin ever seen in this century.

The West India Trade.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. Mr. Joseph Wood, of Halifax, after interviewing several members of the Cabinet on the West India Trade, left for Toronto to-night to negotiate with those merchants there who are pressing the matter.

Doings in Limerick.

LONDON, Nov. 14. The Land Commission has reduced the rents in Limerick forty per cent. The city of Limerick have been proclaimed under the Crimes Act.

Appointed Judge.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. T. F. Bain, of Winnipeg, has been appointed Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench, Manitoba, vice Taylor, promoted.

New Harbor Master.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14. James Grady has been appointed harbor master of Summerside, P. E. Island, vice Ronald Campbell.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Nov. 15—10 a.m. South and east winds; partly cloudy to cloudy, mild weather by night.

Boston Comedy Company.

A big house gladdened Manager Webber's heart at the Lyceum last night, and the "Octonour" was thoroughly enjoyed, for it was finely performed. Of the cast Miss Gray gave a true interpretation of the character of Zoe, and she was rewarded with many rounds of applause for her effectiveness. Of Mr. Farrish's Indian, we have spoken in terms of praise before, and we can only add he was even better than ever. Jacob McCloskey found an excellent representative in Mr. Mills, his scene in the beginning of the fifth act, being given with an earnestness that thrilled his auditors. George Peyton, by Lionel Vaughan, was pleasing and refined; and Old Pete, by Mr. Bedell, was simply excellent. Paul Carroll, as Little Paul, E. J. Sullivan as Capt. Ratts, and Owen Carroll, as Sunny-side, were all very good. Mrs. and Miss Hillman, as Mrs. Peyton and Dora, left nothing to be desired. Mr. Webber's nothing to be desired. Mr. Webber's best efforts, as we have said before, and last night showed he had lost none of his former fire or earnestness. The closing tableau was given with a fine effect. To-night the ever-popular "Hidden Hand" will be given, and to-morrow (Wednesday) evening Miss Grey will have a benefit, appearing as Lady Isabel in "East Lynne." We trust the little lady will get a crowded house, for she richly deserves it.

ANOTHER BLAZE.—The dwelling house of Mr. S. W. Mathieson, of Muddy Creek, was burned to the ground with all its contents on Sunday morning about 2 o'clock. In fact all of Mr. Mathieson's crop was consumed, it is supposed that it was the work of some malicious parties. By the kind help of the neighbours the barn was with the greatest difficulty saved from the flames. Probably it was by the sagacity of Mr. Mathieson's dog that his life and that of the young man in the house were saved. The first he knew of the fire was when the dog by jumping on the bed and barking awakened him, and the flames were creeping down the stairway.—Pioneer.

Stipendiary Magistrate's Court.

THERE was a large array of legal talent and a goodly number of spectators present at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court today. The docket consisted of eight Scott Act cases, five young lads charged with stealing sheep pelts from the premises of Messrs. Blake Bros., King Street, and two other boys arrested on suspicion of stealing money from the Messrs. Blake's private office in their meat market, Queen Square. The hearing of the evidence and argument in the Scott Act cases engaged the attention of the Court until almost two o'clock in the afternoon, and as a result two convictions—one for a first offence and the other a third—were secured. The defendant in the first case was ordered to pay a fine of $50 or go to jail for one month; and in the second, imprisonment for two months was recorded. At this stage of the proceedings an adjournment for dinner was agreed to. About half-past two business was resumed, when the case of the boys charged with stealing the sheep pelts was proceeded with. One of them named Daniel Steele was sentenced to three months imprisonment and another named Henry Clinton was sentenced to one month; the remaining three were discharged. The case of the two boys arrested on suspicion had not been concluded up to five o'clock this afternoon.
