NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — A further stay of the Taft-Hartley injunction against the steelworkers Thursday sent the stock market to its sharpest loss in a month.
 In the midst of the general decline, electronic, missile and rocket stocks had a bull market of their own.
 Texas Instruments at one time was ahead around 10 points to a record high. In the late decline the stock lost part of its gain and closed with a rise of 6 1/2.
 Leading industrials and rails took losses running from fractions to 2 or more points. The AP 60 stock average fell $2.20 to $219.
 Studebaker - Packard was the most active stock, off 1/4 at 21 on

Of 238 issues traded, 65 advanced, 76 declined and 95 were unchanged. There were two new yearly highs and seven new yearly lows.

some stocks with early gains down to former levels, but all sections except banks, papers and golds came out with small gains.
 Steels were fractionally higher with the exception of Steel of Canada, which held at 79 1/2, up 1/4. Half-point gains showed for Atlas at 26 and Dominion Foundries at 79 1/2.
 Banks took losses in late trading, with Montreal off 1/4 at 55. Utilities were mixed in a wider range than earlier. Quebec Power added 1/4 at 84 1/2 and Newfoundland Light was off the same at 50.
 A mixed base metals section showed Aluminum cooling off after early gains to take a loss of 1/4 at 31 1/2. Off 1/4 were Noranda, another strong spot earlier, at 47, and Nickel at 92 1/2.
 Pipelines also levelled off with Interprovincial down 1/4 at 56, and Trans-Canada off 1/4 at 55. Volumes were 91,500 industrials and 203,800 mines and oils.
 Closing averages showed banks off 22 at 60.63, utilities up 3 at 141.9, industrials up 1 at 295.2, combined up .8 at 244.1, papers off 1 at 418.5 and golds off 4 at 85.25.

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market, following the lead of New York's Wall Street, declined during the final minutes of trading Thursday.
 Through most of the session prices were generally firm with mines recording a strong gain but with 30 minutes left in the session.
 Base metals, ahead more than 1 1/2 points for most of the day, were off nearly one-quarter point at the close. Golds closed more than a half point lower at their low. Western oils were down a few decimal points.
 Senior base metals and western oils were mixed to lower with changes in a fractional range. A few individual mines showed moderate gains but the heavier-traded issues were mostly easier.
 Index losses: golds 66 to 87.41; base metals 19 to 164.21; western oils .15 to 100.09.
