Strong Competition In Guernseys At Winter Fair

AMHERST, N.S. (Special) — Harold Palmer and Son and Alton Bell, both of Kensington, P. E. I. were the Prince Edward Island Guernsey men competing at the Maritime Winter Fair yesterday. Both had moderate success in very strong competition.

Mr. Palmer scored a win with Maiden Hill Girl as the Junior yearling heifer class. Mr. Bell won with his Jabet's Buddy in the two-year-old bull class and also took the senior male championship.

In addition to these Palmer had five seconds, three thirds, and several others. Bell had one second, two thirds and one other placing.

Top winners in the Guernsey ring included F.W. Saunders of Aylesford, N.S., Walter West of Moncton and John S. Longley, Kingston, N.S.

Saunders had the junior champion male and West the junior champion female.

Wannamaker Bros. of Nawigewauk, N.B. had the junior champion female. Saunders showed the reserve champion. As usual in dairy breeds only the milk classes drr cksses were shown on the first day the milk classes dry classes shown today.

CLYDESDALES

Cecil J. Stewart of Hampshire was basking in the limelight of success last night after the registered Clydesdale horse show was completed here at the Maritime Winter Fair. Mr. Stewart took the 3-year-old female class with his Anne's Favorite Rilla and the reserve junior champion His Stallion, Sunny Crest Favorite won his class and was reserve junior male champion.

Mr. Stewart won the get of sire class and was second in the progeny of dam class. But the horses that won the progeny class and the horses that placed second in the get of sire class were all of his breeding.

The three horses that placed second in the get of sire were owned by Archie W. Moore and Son, Oxford, N.S. and they are all out of Torchy Marina, a mare that Mr. Stewart sold him several years ago. She is by Civic Chief Jr. The two animals that placed first in the progeny class are colts of Torchy Marina and are sired by Civic Chief Jr.

The junior champion, Clairville Princess, was bred by Mr. Stewart and was sold by him in July of last year to William M. MacCartney, Clairville, Kent County, N.B.

Considerable concern was shown by the members of Presbytery at hearing the news that the Reverend J.M. Sproule of Alberton is not in good health, and arrangements were made whereby he might have a needed rest from his work. Prayer was offered by the Court for his early restoration to full health.

Information regarding a possibile Home for Senior Citizens in Montague was given to the Court, and a committee of six was appointed to investigate the matter of costs, etc., and to report back to the Presbytery.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions adopted by Presbytery during the report on Rural Life were as follows:

"We would recommend that the United Church congregations their ministers and our leading laymen, become actively associated with farm organizations; and particularly those designed to study and solve rural problems; and that special action be taken to promote Farm Radio Forums in each church centre; and to give leadership and support to our farm people in their efforts to maintain and develop a satisfactory social and economic structure in this province.

"We urge that a more active interest be developed in the farm problem at the local church, presbytery, and conference levels; and that rural leadership provided be at each level, and also for gatherings brought together to discuss the relationship of farm conditions to our social, economic, and religious security"

Announce Two Candidates For United Church Ministry

The Committee of Colleges and Students of the Prince Edward Island Presbytery of the United Church of Canada reported two new candidates for the ministry at yesterday's sessions in Hearts Hall, Charlottetown. They are Bruce Roberts, of Kensington, and Alexander MacLean of Charlottetown.

Mr. Roberts has recently left his position as engineer with a local construction company an has taken up studies leading toward ordination at Pine Hill Divinity Hall, Halifax. He was recommended to the Presbytery by the Session of Kensington Church.

Mr. MacLean is a son of Rev A. Frank MacLean, Minister of Trinity Church, Charlottetown. He is presently a fourth year student at Prince of Wales College, and is the second of Mr. MacLean's sons to become a candidate for the ministry.

A great deal of routine business and reports were received at yesterday's sessions of the Presbytery. Cheques for over $14,000 were presented to the new Park-Royal congregation just outside of Charlottetown. This money was received from the Church Extension Fund of the United Church, and was largely raised within the Presbytery a few years ago.

RURAL PROBLEMS

Over an hour of the morning's sessions were taken up with consideration of the church's role in rural areas. The report of the Committee on Rural Life was presented by Rev. E.A. Betts, Winsloe. In speaking on the report, W.R. Shaw noted certain statistics of recent years showing that farm areas are not sharing in the economic prosperity of the nation as a whole. The result of the discussion was that the executive of Presbytery has been asked to arrange for a special Rural Life Conference to be held at an early date.

The report of the Missionary and Maintenance Committee given by Rev. Avard showed that missionary givings as of the 15th October are slightly down from last year. Note was made of the fact that the Kensington Church has increased its givings from $1,200 at this time last year to a present total of about $1,800

Bring "Concerto Festival" Here

The Concerto Festival, a distinguished combination of artists whose appearance at the Prince of Wales College auditorium this evening marks the opening of this season's concerts under the auspices of the Community Concert association. The popular American pianist Eugene List has been joined by the Knickerbocker Players to present to the Canadian public for the first time a liberal sampling of the rich repertory of music composed expressly for piano and small orchestra. In addition to Mr. List, there will also be a featured trumpet soloist.

The gala "Festival" program has been fashioned with unusual care. After a spirited curtain-raiser by the 17th century Italian Torelli, the magnificent Concerto No. 1 in D minor of J.S. Bach will be complemented by a rollicking, tongue-in-cheek work by the contemporary "Bad Boy of Music," Dimitri Shostakovich. Following the intermission will come Liszt's "Malediction" Concerto, a fiery and dramatic early work of the great Romanticist which will be heard for the first time in most cities on the "Concerto Festival" tour.

The evening's grand finale will be a sparkling Tarantella by the first internationally acclaimed native American composer, Louis Moreau Gottschalk. It is Eugene List's recently released long-play recording of Gottschalk's responsible for the current revival of interest in this long-overlooked composer.

Laymen Hold Supper Meeting

Baptist Laymen From East Point, O'Leary and intervening districts attended the Baptist men's monthly supper in the Lower Church Hall on Monday evening. Forty-eight members partook of a turkey supper put on by the Princess Elizabeth Group of the Church. Representatives from many Island churches were in attendance and enjoyed an address by the guest speaker for the occasion, Mr. B. D. Stevens, Halifax, president, Maritime Layman's Association. It was a joyous get together.

In the absence of Rev. Harold Mitton, who is conducting evangelistic services in Halifax, The Rev. Mr. Britton dismissed the gathering with the benediction.

Young People Hold Meeting

The Central Christian Young People held their regular meeting Tuesday night in the annex.

The meeting opened with prayer and sing-song, led by Wallace Platts. Adie Beck was the pianist.

The devotion was led by Heather Matheson, on the subject of prayer.

Following this, the business session was held. The minutes were approved as read. The report was heard from the Island Christian young people's newspaper. It was decided to have an editorial adviser for this paper, and Mr. Preston Beck was nominated. Financing of the paper was also discussed.

It was announced that a conference will be held in Summerside Nov. 16 - 17, and Ruth Wood and Maude Kells were appointed to sing a duet at the conference.

After classes, the meeting was dismissed with a hymn, and prayer led by Mrs. Beck.

Liberals Of 5th Prince Hold Annual Meeting Last Night

Organizational plans for the forthcoming Federal election was one of the main topics of discussion at the annual meeting of the 5th District of Queens Liberal Association held last night at the Clover Club. Dick Dowd presided. Lloyd Weeks was secretary.

Speakers included Premier A. W. Matheson, Hon. B. Earle MacDonald and A.A. MacIsaac, M.L.A.

It was generally felt that the youth of the Province should be given a wider opportunity of serving on the executive of the Party.

Premier Matheson said he had been highly pleased with the attendance and enthusiasm displayed at various party meetings throughout the province.

PEARSON COMING

He announced that Lester B. Pearson who he noted was one of the most prominently mentioned candidates for the National leadership of the Liberal Party would be in Summerside to address a meeting of the East Prince Liberal Association on November 15.

Hon. Mr. MacDonald expressed regret that Mr. Dowd was leaving the Province and made reference to the contribution the retiring president had made to the 5th District Association. He also paid tribute to the efforts of the late Frank Quinn whom he described as a loyal and tireless supporter of the Party.

Mr. MacDonald predicted that a Federal election would be held within six months and noted that no Liberal Candidates had been named for Queens County. He urged the workers to give strong consideration to the holding of a nominating convention in the near future; preferably before Christmas.

PARTY RECORD

A.A. MacIsaac also made reference to Mr. Dowd's efforts on behalf of the Party. Mr. MacIsaac said there was not one basic policy being offered by the Conservative Party today that was truly Conservative. He said the Liberal Party had nothing to reproach itself for; affirming that during the past 30 years no country in the world has made such economic advancement as Canada.

W.R. MacNeil President of the Queens County Association explained that the reason why a nominating convention has not been held to date is because all the districts have not yet had their annual meetings. He assured the meeting that as soon as this had taken place, the convention would be held.

Other speakers were, John P. Nicholson, F. W. Campbell and Ernest D. Reid.

The report of the nominating committee named the following to the executive: Lloyd Weeks, Lester O'Donnell, Francis Campbell, Peter MacEachern, Frank Hughes, Roy Bevan, Wilfred Michael, Bonar Dalziel, Howard Douglas, Mrs. Milton Bell, Mrs. Russell Roper. The officers of the Association will be named at the first meeting of the Executive.
