

RESCUE.

A Living Scorpion Broom.—They are coming to wash the bridge; they will likely cross by the rocks...

UNCLE BEN'S RAM.

Uncle Ben was a queer old man. A queer old man was he; He would a ram, a biting ram; But he'd be biting anything prompted him to do anything he could see.

Uncle Ben had a fat old spouse, A fat old wife was she; He would a ram, a biting ram; But he'd be biting anything prompted him to do anything he could see.

Now Uncle Ben was very worth, Ah, very worth was he; He would a ram, a biting ram; But he'd be biting anything prompted him to do anything he could see.

But when Uncle Ben arose next day, And went into his pen; He would a ram, a biting ram; But he'd be biting anything prompted him to do anything he could see.
