

Be in Time.
 Be in time for every call;
 If you can, be first of all—
 Be in time.
 If your teachers only find
 You are never once behind,
 But are like the dial, true,
 They will always trust to you—
 Be in time.
 Never linger ere you start;
 Set out with a willing heart—
 Be in time.
 In the morning up and on,
 First to work and soonest done—
 This is how the goal's attained,
 This is how the prize is gained—
 Be in time.
 Those who aim at something great,
 Never yet were found too late—
 Be in time.
 Life with all is but a school;
 We must work by plan and rule,
 With some noble end in view,
 Ever steady, earnest, true—
 Be in time.
 Listen then to Wisdom's call;
 Knowledge then is free to all—
 Be in time.
 Youth must daily toil and strive;
 Treasure for the future hive;
 For the work they have to do,
 Keep this motto still in view—
 Be in time.

Weights and Measures.
 All families are not supplied with scales and weights, and therefore the measures given below will be found convenient:—
 About sixty drops of any thin liquid will fill a common-sized teaspoon.
 Four tablespoonfuls, or half a gill, will fill a common-sized wineglass.
 Four wineglasses will fill a half-pint measure, a common tumbler, or a large coffee cup.
 A tablespoonful of salt will weigh about one ounce.
 One pint of water or milk will weigh one pound.
 One pint of molasses will weigh one and one quarter pounds.
 Three tablespoonfuls of baking powder should weigh one ounce.
 One quart of flour weighs one pound.
 One quart of Indian meal weighs one and a quarter pounds.

A Fact for Little Boys.
 In one of the agricultural counties of this country a very rich gentleman lived, and occupied a mansion, with all, or nearly all, the land in the parish. But he had one very bad fault—he was very passionate, and when riding about his farm, if he saw anything contrary to his wish, he would swear very badly, so that his wife was very unhappy, and used to tremble when he came home, lest he should be in a passion. After harvest a poor little boy, who used to go out in the field attending the pigs, one day made a mistake and took his pigs into the wrong field. After a time his master, as usual on his rounds, went into the field, and began to swear badly at the little boy for taking his pigs into the wrong field, and sitting on his horse, was about to flog him with his whip; when the poor lad, looking steadily at his master, said, "Pray, sir, do not swear at me so; I will do anything you wish me, but do not swear at me so, for I cannot bear it!" The simplicity in which the words were spoken so struck the master that he saw his sin, and from that time left off swearing. When he came home he called the children, and told them that if he ever heard any one of them use bad words he would severely punish them. From that day the wife was cheerful and happy, as her husband no longer used profane language, but always returned home with smiles and kind words. To mark her estimation of the good boy's conduct, she gave him a new suit of clothes.
 Boys, beware of anger and improper words. Take care of your lips and of your temper. Even rude words are displeasing to God.

Be Kind to the Living.
 It is all very well to give men fine funerals when they die, and write long obituary notices proving them saints uncanonized. It is a good thing to pause—we who must all die some day—for a little moment to do honor to the dust and ashes that were yesterday a man. But while do this can we not also give a little kindness to the living? Can we not be generous and just and forgiving to those who still have ears to hear, and hearts to thrill with pain and anxiety? How many hearts might have been saved from breaking by a perusal of their obituary notices; how many might have been comforted by an anti-mortem perusal of verses on their tombstones! It is after he is dead that we may say of the man he was brave and good; of the woman, "She was pure and pretty." The abuse, the sneer the invective, the malicious whisper, the coarse caricature—these are for living, breathing, bleeding human bosoms. Any amount of tombstone praise and funeral pageants that you like, but would it harm us to be a little kinder to the living.
 The best throw of dice is to throw them away.

Sons of Temperance.
 The following Circular issued by the Grand Division of the District of Columbia, was received by a gentleman in this City last week. In a letter accompanying it, F. M. Bradley, P. M. W. P., of Washington, says:—"At Buffalo last year I voted to have the 34th Annual Session of the National Division, in your City, Charlotte-town, but I was outvoted, and the Session is to be held here, beginning June 17th. I have met a number of your representatives at various sessions during the past fifteen years, and should be glad to have them all come to Washington. I cannot write to them however, as my time is so fully occupied with the other arrangements, but will thank you to invite each of them, for me, extending my sincere regards and warm wishes."
CIRCULAR.
 WASHINGTON, D. C.,
 April 21st, 1879.

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF NATIONAL DIVISION, REPRESENTATIVES:
 The thirty-fifth annual session of the National Division, will be held in this City, beginning June 17th. Our Grand Division invites a full attendance of Members and their friends. Washington has many attractions. The various Departments of Government will be open to visitors, and we expect to arrange a reception by the President. There is a fair prospect that the U. S. Congress will be in session. An excursion to Mount Vernon will be a part of our Entertainment. A public reception will be tendered to Representatives, on Tuesday evening June 17th.
 We desire to arrange such entertainment as will be agreeable to our guests, and yet not conflict with the business session of the National Division. The short stay of many Representatives, make this a difficult matter. We wish, therefore, to ask that, if possible, you reach our City as early as Monday, June 17, and remain through the week. As the sessions are held only once a year, and many of the Delegates travel hundreds and even thousands of miles to attend, it would seem desirable that at least one week should be passed together in the transaction of necessary business, and in renewing and cultivating the spirit of fraternity.
 Arrangements for reduction of fare will be made with one first-class Hotel and with other smaller houses. Another circular will be issued in May, giving specific information. The Chairman of the Committee will answer all communications that may be addressed to him.
 Make your arrangements to come.
 Yours fraternally,
 F. M. BRADLEY, Chairman,
 1130 13th Street, N. W.

The Death-rate of
 Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year, especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find, too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy
CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—
 "DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your 'Constitutional Catarrh Remedy' was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be 'too good to be true.'
 I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward 'drop' from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.
 A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper.
 Yours truly,
 W. HINDALL, Methodist Minister.
