Revue Said Financial Success

The semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter IOOE was held in the Legion Home, Summerside on Saturday, October 26, with the president, Mrs. Earle Macdonald presiding.

The meeting opened with the procession of the provincial staff, followed by the eight primary standards and the members of the executive.

Many interesting reports were heard, highlighted by the one given by Mrs. A. Weir, treasurer of the Red Glove Revue, which was exceptionally successful.

The finances of the chapter were reported as being in a sound state, with a surplus of $100.00.

The closing ceremony, the Summerside members served sandwiches and small cakes which made a pleasant finale to the afternoon's activities.

ST. GEORGE'S CWL The monthly meeting of St. George's Parish Council was held in the church vestry, the president, Mrs. A.D. Macdonald was in the chair.

Various committees submitted their reports. Plans were made at this meeting to visit the sick and aged in three nursing homes in Charlottetown during the month of October.

SUMMERFIELD CWL The October meeting of the Summerfield Council of the Catholic Women's League was held at the home of Mrs. James Lawlor with 13 members, four visitors and the Rev. Father Green presiding.

A letter was read from Miss Patricia Agnew, provincial president asking for all parish councils to give a spiritual bouquet for the success of the Eucharistical Council. Card parties are to be held in the homes and 12 folding chairs were purchased.

An altar society was appointed with Mrs. Thomas Sullivan and Mrs. Louis O'Connor on the committees for the month of October.

Mrs. C.W. Croken gave her report on the retreat held recently in the Notre Dame Convent. A special guest at the meeting was the retired headmaster, who was the first president of Summerfield CWL and is also past president. She was presented with a crystal rosary by the president, Mrs. John L. Murphy.

Miss Mary D. Green who joined the Sisters of St. Clare Croken invited the members to her home for the November meeting. Rev. Father Croken presided at the meeting with the league prayer. Lunch was served by the hostesses.
