TEACHERS MEETING.—The Provincial Teachers association meets this evening at the Philharmonic Hall at 7.30. A paper will be read on "The needs of our school system." The public are respectfully invited especially the members of our local Government.

A RARE COMBINATION.—The Summerside Farmer is informed that Mr. Penrose Ellis while extracting a large pine stump at Boyle's Point on his farm in Lot 11, a week or two ago, came across a large find. These were a large pair of old rusty scissors over a foot in length, a large pair of pincers, also very rusty, a decanter, a wine glass and the lock of an old flint musket. These were underneath the stump

PRICE WEBBER AT MASONIC TEMPLE.—A big house at the Masonic Temple last evening, and the play of the "Octoroon" scored another triumph for Manager Webber's company. Miss Grey was especially good as "The Octoroon," and each member of the troupe was seen to fine advantage. The bowie knife fight, the detection of the murder by the photograph, and the closing tableau deserve the warmest praise. This evening the laughable comedy "The Honeymoon" will be performed.

SHE IS A PROUD WOMAN.—Mrs. Betsy Wiggins, of Emporia, Kansas, is the proudest woman in that town. In a recent cooking contest she surprised and distanced all competitors by making a buckwheat cake four feet in diameter. It was about an inch thick, and in the centre was set a trussed capon. Spokes of wheat flour radiated from this fowl hub to the circumference, which was cut in scallops. After the chicken is eaten, the hole will be filled up and the cake will be utilized as a cover for the well.

THE PEARY EXPEDITION.—In a letter to the press Lieutenant Peary gives in detail the results of his expedition up to Aug. 29th, which, owing to the severity of the winter have been very meagre. He says he has ample supplies for himself, his two companions and their Esquimaux assistants, but the experiment of exploration with such a party seems very hazardous. Disaster to one could hardly fail to result in disaster to all. The University of Pennsylvania expedition to Labrador have reached St. John's on their return. They met with no mishap, explored three great rivers, made charts of them and have valuable collection of birds, butterflies, etc.

MANITOBA'S FINE CROPS.—Mr. Miall, commissioner of inland revenue has returned from Winnipeg to Ottawa, where he had been to attend the western board of grain examiners. He says the Manitoba crop this year is the finest that has ever been grown in the province. If the whole crop were mixed together it would grade No 1 hard. Of No. 1 crop proper, Mr. Miall thinks that half of it would grade Extra No. 1 hard. White Chapman of Toronto, estimates that two-thirds of the No. 1 crop would reach this high standard. Of 250 bags that were opened before the board, average weight was 62 pounds to the bushel, some running as high as 65 pounds. The average crop for the whole province will be 20 bushel to the acre. About one million acres were sown in wheat this year.

GENERAL BOOTH AT CHARLOTTETOWN.

General Booth, of the Salvation Army, addressed a large audience at the Methodist Brick Church last night. Mayor Dawson presided. General Booth traced the rise of the army from his first efforts to raise the poor and neglected in London, 29 years ago, to its present world-wide extent. He denounced the system that forces a criminal to remain a criminal, because no one will employ a man who has once served a sentence. He spoke scathingly of the vigilance that prevents deserted and betrayed girls ending their misery and sin by drowning, while it offers no means whereby such unfortunates can make an honest living. He then gave his classification of the very poor, who lived in continual starvation, amounting in England to from three to five million souls. The first, amounting to 75 per cent. of the whole, are ready and willing to make an honest living if given an opportunity, as has been domonstrated by the work of the Salvation Army Relief Corps. The remaining 25 per cent. should be placed in such a position that they cannot eat until they have earned their meal—thus forcing them into proper habits of industry. The General then outlined his scheme of social reform, which has been in successful operation for three years. First, there are various establishments where the homeless can obtain a bed or a meal for from one or two pennies or can work for them. There are certain industries established in the city. From these the employes graduate to the country colony, and from thence to various outside employments, or to the proposed over the sea colony, to occupy lands at present waste. The General denounced indiscriminate giving as one of the worst possible evils. He gave many interesting examples of the work of the Army, holding that it filled a felt want, but he denied that he had ever held that the Army was the chief or only right method of christian work. A vote of thanks was moved by ex-Governor Haviland and seconded by ex-Governor Laird. The Rev. W. Lawson pronounced the benediction.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A COMPLAINT.

SIR,—It would almost seem as though favoritism instead of merit decides as to who wins the prize for the best collection of insects at the Exhibition. The first prize is given to a collection of 165 insects, of which only a few are named (in English) and the second prize only is given to a collection of 386 insects, better numbered than the other collection and nearly all marked with their scientific as well as their English names. I have known young exhibitors disheartened for this reason in past years and unless a change is made it is probable that this class will be poorly represented in future.

EXHIBITOR.

FRUIT DEPARTMENT.

MR. EDITOR,—In reference to the fruit department, it was very noticeable the manner in which it was judged. No order or taste was displayed in the arrangement. All sorts mixed up together, no corrections of wrongly named varieties, which other years were corrected at once. Another important matter, if flavor is one of the highest points of merit, which must be so as quality is before size, it seems strange how it could have been detected without testing and comparing varieties in this way. I have seen many exhibitions, but nothing so absurd as this. Also, well known varieties prized with wrong names in all the different departments. I could mention many more errors. But this is sufficient to point out the hurried and careless manner in which judging was conducted, and little wonder such dissatisfaction should have been shown by those competing.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from Vienna says: According to a Cracow newspaper, the Czar, who was recently stricken with an apoplectic fit, arrived at Shala in so week a condition that he had to be carried out of the railway car. An official dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated Saturday, says authoritative advices from Shala state that the Czar had become much better and would probably start for Crimea on Monday.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The Journal published an interview with M. Flonrens, with reference to affairs in Madagascar, in which the ex-Foreign Minister says in his opinion Great Britain is exciting the Hova Government to resist the demands made by France, and that in order to thwart Great Britain it will be necessary for France to expedite such military action as will crush the Hovas. Deputy Delloncole has written a letter to Marn in reference to the recently published statement that there is trouble between France and Madagascar.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Truth to-days says that fresh obstacles have arisen in connection with the Czarewitch's proposed marriage to Princess Alis of Hesse. The prospect of the union is said to be very unpopular in St. Petersburg. The intrigue is helped by Princess Alix raising obstacles by her prompt conversion to the Greek faith. The Duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and the Grand Duchess Serge of Russia, are understood to support the match, while other ladies of higher rank oppose it. Rumor has it that if the marriage does not occur Princess Alix will be offered an annuity of £1,000 for life.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Nearly two years ago, Miss Melton, an American missionary, was assaulted and beaten at a place called Moeulina, a Turkish province remote from the capital. U. S. Minister Torrell has been at work trying to secure reparation. To-day he notified the state department by cable from Pera that he had finally succeeded and that four of the missionary assailants, Halit, Jackshi, Abdullah, and Jerhwerey, were sentenced on Sept. 17th to three years imprisonment. The success of Mr. Torrell's efforts was commendable, as Turkish rule is very light in the wild province of the outrage. He has been instructed to return thanks to the Turkish Government for its manifestation of good will.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Sir William Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer and leader of the liberal party in the house of commons, is going to Weisbaben in October to consult a distinguished oculist.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 25.—At the initial session of the national gathering known as the Mother's Convocation at the Kindergarten college to-day a large audience was addressed by Dr. W. W. James Reid, who spoke on Paternal Influences. Dr. Norman Brodge followed with a lecture on Baby Food. Mrs. Crouse, presiding, stated that object in calling the congress was a desire to secure well directed training for the children, who are some day to be citizens. The influence of mothers upon the nation was a wonderful one, she said, and Kindergarten methods in training would result in inestimable good.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 25.—Gov. Altgeld to-day addressed the state Board of equalization on the assessment of the Pullman palace car company's property. He showed many figures and facts concerning the company's manner of escaping taxation in this and other countries in the Dominion of Canada. The company, for instance, gave in $36,000,000 as their capital stock when it should be $61,000,000. The governor begged the board to assess this property in justice to the other states.

ROME, Sept. 25.—The pope is in good health in spite of the reports to the contrary. His holiness is much annoyed by the recent debate in the Hungarian house in regard to the next conclave. It is reported that it is doubtful if a consistory will be held before the end of the year.

MELBOURNE, Victoria, Sept. 25.—The ministry of Premier Patterson who resigned yesterday, handed in its resignation today. Mr. Patterson resigned after the recent elections which resulted in the annihilation of the free trade party. Geo. Turner, the leader of the opposition, although rejected at the recent election, has been charged to form a new ministry.
