

Local and Other Items.

CORRESPONDENCE and other matter crowded out.

BASEBALL at the Park this evening. A full and early attendance of players is requested.

PHOTOGRAPHED.—The victorious Abegweit football team was photographed by Mr. Lewis this afternoon.

POLICE COURT.—Four drunks were disposed of this forenoon for fines ranging from $1 or four days to $4 or 20 days.

SCOTCH GIRLS FOR NEW BRUNSWICK.—Immigration Agent Gardiner has received word that 20 Scotch girls will be sent out in August or September.

DROWNING FATALITIES.—Clinton Colter, aged 16, and Hugh McNab, aged 14, were drowned at Wallace, N. S., by the parting of a raft, a few days since.

W. R. WATSON, Druggist is wholesale agent for K. D. C. It is sold by all druggists, and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia and Indigestion or the money will be refunded.

DISAPPOINTED.—The steamer M. A. Starr did not take any passengers to Point du Chene this morning, and there are consequently about twenty-five disappointed men walking the streets of Summerside to-day.

EXPENSIVE WORK.—The Fredericton Farmer says it is stated that it cost the Scott Act party about $750 to convict the six violators of the third offences in that city, and over $1,000 was spent in their defence.

SOMETHING LIKE A LAMB.—Mr. James Maxwell, of Fort Ellis, Lower Stewiacke, N. S., claims to have a lamb which weighed at birth 17 1/2 pounds; when one week old it weighed 27 1/2 pounds, and when 8 weeks old it tipped the beam at 80 pounds.

DRIVING PARK SOLD.—The Anheist Driving Park was sold at auction last week for $810. Mr. J. R. Lamy, of that place, was the purchaser. It is understood that a new company will be formed at once, and that the track will be run as usual.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Jacob Schurman, agent of the Quebec Steamship Co., and Shipping Master at Summerside, died this morning. He was for many years a great sufferer from asthma. Mr. Schurman was very highly respected in Summerside and throughout Prince County.

CHURCH BURNED.—We regret very much to learn that the Roman Catholic Church at Palmer Road was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night, at about eleven o'clock. Everything was consumed. There was no insurance. There is much sympathy for Father Picotte in his trouble.

INSURANCE.—Mr. Horace Hazard now represents the Manchester Fire Assurance Co., of Manchester, Eng. This company has a capital of $5,000,000, and insures all descriptions of property at lowest rates. Mr. Hazard also is agent for the Marine Branch of the Western Assurance Co.

MEETING.—The members of the P. E. I. Fish and Game Protection Association are requested to meet on Wednesday evening, 28th inst., at 8 o'clock, at the office of R. K. Fitzgerald, Esq. Annual meeting, election of officers, etc. Any person wishing to join the Association may do so the same evening.

C. P. R. TIME TABLE.—The Canada Pacific Railway time-bill was issued last week. By it we see that the express train by the St. John Short Line leaves Halifax at 6.50 a. m., arrives in Moncton at 1.05 p. m., St. John 4.10 p. m., and Montreal at 9.35 the following morning—standard time throughout.

THE BONAVISTA.—The Black Diamond Line Steamship Bonavista arrived this morning at nine o'clock with a general cargo for this port. She left on return this afternoon with a mixed cargo for St. John's Nfld. She also carried 38 sheep on deck, 24 of which were shipped by Wheatley & Son.

ISLAND HORSES ABROAD.—The New Glasgow, N. S., Chronicle says: Quite a number of draft horses are being imported from the Island. Last week R. P. Fraser, of McLellan's Brook, brought over a very handsome team which he has sold; J. A. McIntosh of Montville, and A. C. Bell of this town, have purchased a beautiful Clyde dull brown mare.

PROFESSOR ASHLEY.—Prof. Ashley, King of Dentists, who has been giving a specialty performance to crowded houses in Market Hall, wishes to announce to the public that he will remain in Charlottetown for a few days longer for the benefit of those who wish to have their teeth extracted by him. He will be in Market Hall from 10 till 5 during the day. Don't fail to get your bad teeth out; now is your only chance. The Professor will give a performance each and every evening in Market Hall.

WEDDING BELLS.—The St. John Sun says: At the Cathedral yesterday morning, John A. Mooney, of Prince Edward Island, second officer of the bark Minnie G. Elkin, was united in marriage to Miss Annie Mullin, daughter of Edward Mullin of this city. Rev. J. J. Walsh performed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. The happy couple left by the early train for Boston and vicinity to visit their many friends there, bearing with them the hearty good wishes of numerous friends here.

INSPECTION OF STEAMERS.—The Steamers Princess of Wales and St. Lawrence were inspected to day by C. K. Coker, inspector of shipping, and Douglas Stephens, inspector of boilers and machinery. The inspection having taken longer than was expected, the steamers did not leave port to-day, but will we understand, make their usual trips to-morrow. The Steamer M. A. Starr left Summerside for Point du Chene this morning, carrying the mails. She will return this evening with the mail matter from the other side.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, May 26.—10 a. m.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly fair, with a few light local rains; not much change in temperature.

A colored dentist in Macon, Ga., uses no instrument except his fingers in extracting teeth. By long practice his fingers have become as strong as forceps, and he claims that he can pull teeth faster and with less pain than any dentist with instruments.

DECLARATION DAY PROCEEDINGS.

HALIFAX, May 25. Saturday was declaration day in Hants and Shelburne. In Hants there was a tie between Haley (Government) and McDougall (Opposition) Owing to a technical error on the part of the presiding officer at Centre Rawdon, no declaration could be made. The sheriff will commence his recount to-morrow. At Shelburne, Johnson (Government) and Cahlan (Opposition) were declared elected by majorities of ten and nine respectively.

Fire in New Mexico.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 25. Fires set by tramps destroyed a very good in the city of Coolidge, N. M., except the railroad eating house and the depot buildings. The tramps had been loitering around the town and were infuriated because the citizens made preparations to drive them out. Inflammables were scattered among the buildings set on fire. A posse of citizens on horseback is in pursuit of the tramps, and lynchings are probable.

Racing in Moncton.

MONCTON, May 25. The Queen's Birthday passed off quietly. The races at the Driving Park yesterday were largely attended. The trot was won by Desmond's Fred, and the running race by McDonagie's Ida Grey, in two straight heats.
