The following is interesting, not only its bearing upon the Imperial connection, but also for its high testimony to the abilities of a fellow-Canadian. The Leeds Mercury says: "The two speeches which were made last week in Leeds upon Imperial Federation, by Mr. G. R. Parkin, at once established in the mind of every one who had the good fortune to listen to them both, the right of the speaker to take high rank indeed among living masters of persuasive oratory."

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. D. Laird, President; Hon. A. A. Macdonald, Vice-President; D. Montgomery, Sec. Treasurer; Executive Committee - L. W. Watson, Francis Bain, John Newson, Geo. F. Owen, John McSwain, Dr. Leeming, Wm. Brown.

Stop That Cough Many people neglect what they call a simple cold, which, if not checked in time, may lead to lung trouble. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, will not only stop the cough but heal the lungs.

A VALUABLE ESTATE.—The late Mrs. Law, wife of Professor Lawson, of Halifax, leaves an estate of $90,000. Besides certain real property she bequeaths $1,200 to local charities.

Mr. Palmer's Lecture.

A FAIRLY large audience—as lecture audiences come and go in Charlottetown—was in attendance at the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening, to hear the lecture of Charles Palmer, Esq., upon British Columbia and the Northwest, from personal observation.

Mr. Palmer took special pains to discourage, as much as he could, anything like a sentiment of pride of country. Mr. Palmer thinks that a man who has to emigrate should go to the country in which he can live easiest and make most money.

Natural History Society.

THE annual meeting of the Natural History Society was held yesterday afternoon, as previously announced. The following members were present: Hon. D. Laird, Hon. A. A. Macdonald, Charles Palmer, Q. C., Dr. McLeod, Dr. Leeming, D. Montgomery, William Brown, W. L. Cotton, Geo. F. Owen, Donald McKenzie, Isaac Oxenham, L. W. Watson, Thomas May, John Newson, John McSwain, J. D. Seaman, Geo. E. Robinson, Mrs. R. Johnson, Miss Martha Owen, Miss Annie Johnson.

After a few introductory remarks by the Chairman, the Secy.-Treasurer gave a statement of the work done by the Society during the past year. It was organized on the 26th of March last, with 6 members. Now the membership is 52. The financial statement was then submitted, showing a balance on hand of $38.54.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. D. Laird, President; Hon. A. A. Macdonald, Vice-President; D. Montgomery, Sec. Treasurer; Executive Committee - L. W. Watson, Francis Bain, John Newson, Geo. F. Owen, John McSwain, Dr. Leeming, Wm. Brown.

Bold Robbery at Georgetown.

An esteemed correspondent furnishes the following additional particulars of the robbery at Georgetown: "Yesterday morning (Friday), Mr. Wallace Jenkins discovered that his store was entered during the night and about $45 worth of jewelry taken therefrom."

Not satisfied with the haul he made here he entered Mrs. Griffin's hotel by raising a window. He went to Mrs. Griffin's room where she slept and took a wallet containing some cash and jewelry from her pocket. Helping himself to some other valuable articles and partaking of a hearty lunch, he retired to the cellar, concealing himself behind a box.

WHAT?

McLeod & McKenzie, Star Merchant Tailors.

MODESTY forbids us (to use a slang phrase) to blow our own horn, and as it is contrary to our opinion (according to the old proverb) when in Rome to do as Rome does, we shall endeavor, as heretofore, to present facts so undeniable as to be beyond the reach of dispute. True, people have gained for themselves a name (not an enviable one) which, to all appearances, served the purpose they had in view. But wisdom dictates, before posing as leaders in the great race for supremacy, that we should look well to the foundation upon which those assertions are based. To throw the mantle of charity over such people is our motto; and instead of revealing to the public gaze, through your columns, the errors into which they have fallen, we will endeavor to lead them gently into the light. That you will acquiesce in what we say, is a foregone conclusion, namely, as Fathers of the trade in this Province we treat the several branches of the trade in this city with the same consideration as a loving parent would his innocent offspring; and to this end we invite such traders to aim high and co-operate in elevating this, the first profession, to the high status to which it is entitled. In the meantime, call and see our handsome goods, in NAPS, MELTONS, SCOTCH TWEEDS, WORSTEDS, etc., made up in the latest styles and cheap.
