
SUBMARINE FORCE AT HALIFAX

Under a fluttering White Ensign of the Canadian Navy, seven United States submarines and two British submarines are moored in two lines abreast at a Halifax naval jetty. The three submarines at the right of the first line and the four in the back ground are U.S. vessels and are visiting Halifax for a five day courtesy call during which they will take part in Navy Week exercises, beginning Battle of the Atlantic Sunday May 3. The two British subs are based at Halifax. (CP Wirephoto)
