

Local and Other Items.

THIS EVENING.—Philharmonic.

No word yet.—Nothing has yet been heard of the Erema. She is now forty-nine days out from Liverpool.

TELEPHONE.—The office of the Secretary of the City School Board is now connected with the telephone exchange.

AN ADDRESS.—Senator Howland will address the meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society in the Lyceum this evening.

FANCY SALE.—Useful and fancy articles at the sale in St. Peter's Schoolroom, on Thursday afternoon next, to begin at 3 o'clock.

PUBLIC MEETING.—A public meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society will be held in their hall (the Lyceum) this evening at 8 o'clock. See adv't.

LAND OFFICE COMMISSION.—The commission will sit this evening at 7 o'clock, when the evidence of witnesses from Prince County will be taken.

USEFUL ARTICLES.—Go to the sale in St. Peter's Schoolroom on Thursday afternoon, St. Peter's Boys' Band in attendance. Admission free.

ST. PETER'S BOYS' BAND will be in attendance at the sale of useful and fancy articles at St. Peter's Schoolroom, on next Thursday afternoon. No admission fee.

AT SOURIS.—About a dozen schooners are now at Souris, four of them loading with produce for foreign markets. The Maggie Alice, Capt. Lannigan, arrived there yesterday.

PRETTY CALENDARS.—Some very pretty calendars, left at our office to-day, deserve mention. They are issued by the Eastern Insurance Co. of Canada, F. W. Hyndman, Agent.

I. O. O. F.—Port la Joie Encampment holds its regular session to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock, for the election of officers and conferring the R. P. degree.

LECTURE.—J. T. Mellish, Esq., will lecture at Vernon River Bridge Hall on the evening of Friday next, the 13th inst. Subject—"My Visit to Scotland." Admission ten cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

THE LAST SAD RITES.—The body of the late John Whelan was brought home to Souris, last evening, where it will be interred to-day near those of his brother, who was drowned in Souris harbor a few years ago.

MASONIC.—Regular communication of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic Hall, this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. Nomination and election of officers. Also to confer second degree. By order of W. M.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.—A meeting of the City School Board was held last evening. After the transaction of some routine business the meeting adjourned until Friday evening next, when the applications for the Principals of Upper Prince Street School will be considered.

CARELESS METHODS IN FARMING.—Prof. Robertson, of Guelph, at the East Elgin farmers institute meeting at Aylmer, Ont., stated that owing to careless methods in farming, enough wealth in the shape of wasted manure went down the St. Lawrence annually to pay the interest on the whole debt of the Dominion.

WHERE DID IT COME FROM.—The Yarmouth Telegram reports that a codfish presented to Dr. H. D. Wilson by Samuel Doane, of Red Head, caught by him off Blanche, has inscribed on its side the following: "Bank Quero, W. G. W." The inscription looked as though it had been cut with a knife.

CONFESED AT LAST.—A package containing $5,000 mysteriously disappeared from the United States express company's safe at Youngstown, Ohio, five years ago, and detectives failed to locate the thief. Suspicion pointed to the chief clerk, who was finally driven insane. W. W. Nivison, who was the agent, now admits that he took the money.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.—The official statement of the revenue and expenditure of the Dominion shows that the revenue for the five months just ended is $17,000,000, an increase of nearly $2,000,000 over the same period last year, and that the expenditure is $12,500,000, a slight decrease compared with last year. The surplus to date is $4,500,000.

ANOTHER RECORD BROKEN.—According to Newburg, N. Y., advises the three-year-old milk record has been broken by Celeste Third, owned by Powell Bros., a Holstein heifer three years old. She gave 107 pounds in 24 hours, 714 pounds in seven days, and over 3000 pounds in one month. Her monthly record nearly equalled the annual average product of the dairy cow of New York State.

PUBLIC MEETING.—We notice that a meeting is called to consider the advisability of petitioning the Dominion Government to open Peake's Station as a regular booking station. We hope that Sir John, the new Minister of Railways, will inaugurate his advent to office by giving the people of Peake's Station and vicinity the increased railway accommodation for which they are about to ask, and to which they are so justly entitled.

STEAMERS MOVEMENTS.—The M. A. Starr left for Point du Chene last midnight, and will return this evening.

The St. Lawrence left here for Summerside at the same hour, and crossed over to the Point to-day.

The Princess of Wales left for Pictou at the usual hour this morning, and will return this evening.

PHILHARMONIC HALL.—The acoustic qualities of the Philharmonic Hall are excellent. Lovers of music who heard the two delightful concerts given in the above hall some years ago by the Boston Mendelssohn Quintette Club will have an opportunity of enjoying another rare treat in the same hall on Tuesday, the 19th December, when Sir Sterndale Bennett's beautiful cantata, "The May Queen," will be given by the Philharmonic Society.

OBITUARY.—By private advices we regret to learn of the death, on the 25th ult., of Francis Richard Antoine, Esq., late Justice of the Peace, St. Pierre, Miq., and formerly a resident of this city, where he was engaged in mercantile business for a number of years. He was a brother-in-law of the late J. B. Cox, Esq., Morrell, and was highly respected, as evidenced by the flags at St. Pierre flying at half-mast on the day of his funeral. He leaves a widow and family in comfortable circumstances.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Dom Pedro's Opinions.

LISBON, Dec. 10.

Dom Pedro visited the polytechnic schools. In conversation with his Brazilian adherents here, Dom Pedro expressed many doubts as to whether the new Government will contribute to the prosperity of the country, although he had himself told several prominent persons they should continue to serve the country. Still he had not expected there would be so many deserters from the standard of the monarchy. He declined to refer to his abdication as a possibility.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.

Sir John Macdonald is much better and is likely to be about this week. It is understood the fish hatchery at Dunk River, P. E. Island, is to be rebuilt and put in readiness for operation next year. The United States Consuls throughout Canada have been instructed by the Department of Agriculture at Washington to furnish them with a monthly report on the Canadian crops in their districts.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, Dec. 9.

Rev. Father Donnelly, private chaplain to Archbishop Fabre, in lecturing last night before the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, denounced, without reserve, the Equal Rights Association and Freemasonry.

It has been decided to establish, in connection with McGill College, a faculty of comparative medicine and veterinary science.

The Murder Case.

ST. JOHN, Dec. 9.

Another day has been consumed in an endeavor to secure a jury in the McDonald case. Out of the additional panel of one hundred jurymen summoned, thirty-seven failed to respond, and the Judge announced that he would fine every absentee. The panel was exhausted at six o'clock this evening, and eleven jurymen had been sworn. The Judge ordered the Sheriff to summon twenty more men for to-morrow morning.

A Terrible Affair.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.

John Jacobs, aged 19, had his neck broken in a scuffle with John Wissell and Paul Stockhart last night. The men were walking with Jacobs' sister. Jacobs objected to them as undesirable companions. No arrests were made.

A Body Found.

BOSTON, Dec. 9.

A body was found in the ruins of the Ames Building, last night, and identified to be David F. Duckley, of Engine Company No. 3, his name being found on some of his underclothing that adhered to his body.

An Englishman Arrested.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 9.

The Nov Vremya states that an Englishman was arrested at Sebastopol while engaged in making sketches of the batteries and forts at that place. Compromising documents were found in his possession.

The Conspiracy Case.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.

The trial of Sheriff Flock for conspiracy was to-day indefinitely postponed, Justice Monell, also concerned, being too ill to appear.

A Stone-Thrower Fined.
