

Japanese Law Student Sets New Record In Winning The 59th Boston Marathon

(By Bob Hoobing) BOSTON, (AP)—Powerful little Hideo Hamamura of Japan conquered the hills in a stirring late rush Tuesday to establish a record of two hours, 18 minutes, 22 seconds in the 59th and perhaps greatest Boston AA marathon.

Canada's George Hillier and former BAA champion Gerard Cote finished 15th and 23rd respectively the only Canadians to finish among the first 25.

Fourteen other Canadians finished ahead in a matter of a few blocks.

Other Canadian finishers: 29. George Gallant, Dupuis Corner, N. B.; 2:48:50. 32. Kyoto Takaoka, Cornwallis, N. S., and Royal Canadian Navy, 2:52:08. 41. George Capraro, Toronto, 2:57:57. 49. Harry J. Verron, Royal Canadian Navy 3:02:48. 62. George Roland, Toronto, 3:16:38. 64. Joseph R. Richard, Lancaster, N. B.; 3:18:27. 68. Edgar John Battison, Ottawa 3:20:31. 72. Roland Bouffard, St. Andre, Montreal, 3:24:58. 81. Claude Monfette, Cap de la Madeleine, Que., 3:30:59. 82. Paul E. Belliveau, Moncton, N. B., and Gladstone, AC of Toronto, 3:40:54. 96. Rene Rouette, Trois Rivières, Que., 3:42:38. 98. Guy Perreault, Shawinigan Falls, Que., 3:43:35. 103. Jean Louis Guignard, Cap de la Madeleine, Que. 114. Nicola Marrone, Montreal.

Hamamura, employed in the district government office of Yamaguchi, churned over the finish line 29 seconds under the previous mark established by countryman Keizo Yamada in 1953. Trailing by 300 yards going into the series of three hills which start 10 miles from the end of the 26-mile, 385-yard classic course, Hamamura roared up the grades, gaining ground steadily.

The 128-pound speedster then hit the steady downgrade which covers most of the final six miles and never let up—passing Nick Costes, Natick, Mass., school teacher who had led most of the way, slightly more than a three miles from the finish. He won by 250 yards over Finland's Eino Pulkkinen who also passed the tiring American. Hillier, of St. John's, Nfld., was some 23 minutes behind Hamamura. He was clocked in 2:41:50. Cote, of St. Hyacinthe, Que., was timed in 2:44:54. Cote had won the event four times in previous years.

A chill, overcast day for the race which started in misty rain at suburban Hopkinton and ended on water-soaked Exeter street in Boston's Back Bay, proved perfect for the record-smashing performance with amazing times for all the leaders.

Pulkkinen was clocked in 2:19:23—fast enough to win any of the previous races except the one which Yamada captured and better than Valto Karvonen of Finland did in winning a year ago in 2:20:39. The next fastest winning time was 2:25:39 by Korea's Yun Bok Suh in 1947.

As was the case a year ago, the heralded favorite couldn't live up to the role but Argentine's Reinaldo Gorno, the smooth-striding Buenos Aires sanitation department foreman, finished fifth in 2:20:28. He was 12 seconds behind the other entry from Finland, Paavo Kotila.

Rounding out the top 10 finishers were Gustaf Jansson of Sweden, sixth; Yoshiaki Uchikawa, seventh; and Argentine's Bustamante of Argentina, ninth and Rodolfo Mendez of Brooklyn, 10th.

In addition to Cote, another previous winner was in the field of 160 who started the race—two-time winner John A. Kelley of Arlington, Mass. Cote, scoring triumphs in 1940, 1943, 1944 and 1948 was the last North American to break the tape while Kelly's second triumph in 1945 was the last time a U.S. entry made the grade.

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him ahead in a matter of a few blocks. Other Canadian finishers: 29. George Gallant, Dupuis Corner, N. B.; 2:48:50. 32. Kyoto Takaoka, Cornwallis, N. S., and Royal Canadian Navy, 2:52:08. 41. George Capraro, Toronto, 2:57:57. 49. Harry J. Verron, Royal Canadian Navy 3:02:48. 62. George Roland, Toronto, 3:16:38. 64. Joseph R. Richard, Lancaster, N. B.; 3:18:27. 68. Edgar John Battison, Ottawa 3:20:31. 72. Roland Bouffard, St. Andre, Montreal, 3:24:58. 81. Claude Monfette, Cap de la Madeleine, Que., 3:30:59. 82. Paul E. Belliveau, Moncton, N. B., and Gladstone, AC of Toronto, 3:40:54. 96. Rene Rouette, Trois Rivières, Que., 3:42:38. 98. Guy Perreault, Shawinigan Falls, Que., 3:43:35. 103. Jean Louis Guignard, Cap de la Madeleine, Que. 114. Nicola Marrone, Montreal.

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

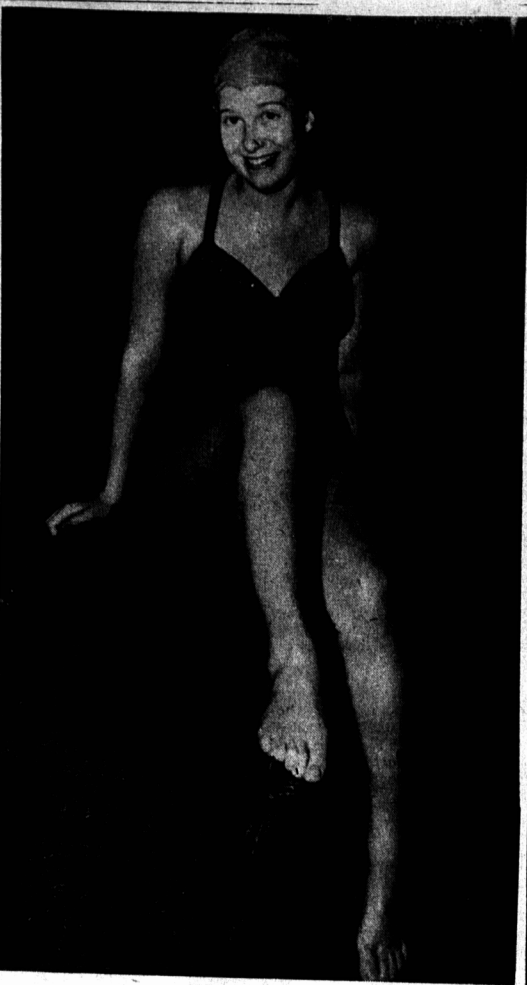

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

Hamamura, who finished sixth when the 100-pound Yamada literally breezed to a record with the help of a strong tailwind, had nothing but his boundless energy and grit to carry him. His rhythmic, high kick stride and wide swinging arms carried him to the front at Cleveland Circle slightly more than three miles from the finish. His tremendous momentum shot him

To Try Channel Swim

Marilyn Bell has accepted an offer to swim the English Channel, her advisers have announced. Posing here in her bathing suit, the 17-year-old swimmer, first conqueror of Lake Ontario, has set July 1 as the target date but the date is only tentative. The swim is being sponsored by the Toronto Telegram which has offered her $15,000. (CP Photo).

Dutchmen Win Allan Cup Opener

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Kitchener Waterloo Dutchmen opened the new season Allan Cup finals Tuesday night with a 3-2 victory over Fort William Beavers. The Eastern Canada champions were never behind.

A crowd of 4,986 saw Kitchener jump into a 2-0 lead in the first 10 minutes of the game on goals by Jim Logan, Pete Gogan of the Beavers matched Logan's goal output, scoring late in the opening period and again midway through the second.

Although they manufactured some fine scoring chances both Fort William goals were a bit tricky. Gogan's first-period score was a dribbler that went in off Howie Lee's legs.

In the final frame his golf shot from near the blue line took a bad hop and struck another Kitchener defender and glanced into the corner.

In between those scores goal-keeper Keith Woodall of the Dutchmen turned aside more than a score of Beaver shots.

Pete Morin played equally well in the Fort William goal as the Dutchmen.

Baseball Results

By THE CANADIAN PRESS National League Chicago 000 010 022-2 8 0 Milwaukee 200 000 012-3 4 1

American League Montreal 000 002 000-V2 4 1 Richmond 100 000 000-1 5 0

International League Montreal 000 002 000-V2 4 1 Richmond 100 000 000-1 5 0

Automotive Machine Shop Service and Equipment Wholesale Parts

MARITIME MOTOR SUPPLY CO. LTD. 48 Beasley Ave. Ch'own - Phone 5213

COW BRAND BAKING SODA PURE BICARBONATE OF SODA

Black Hawks Seeking To Lure Coach Irvin From Canadiens

By W. R. WHEATLEY Canadian Press Staff Writer MONTREAL (CP)—With coach Dick Irvin of Montreal Canadiens rests acceptance or refusal of a shift to Chicago Black Hawks.

From an authoritative hockey source Tuesday The Canadian Press learned that an approach has already been made to the veteran coach.

Furthermore, National Hockey League governors and other top brass will meet informally in New York Thursday and Friday and it is highly significant that Irvin will be present. So will Jim Norris, president of the Black Hawks.

Whether Irvin has yet made up his mind is not yet known. He will be 63 next July 19. It is taken for granted that his course will be determined by his health as well as monetary considerations.

IRVIN NOT WELL During the latter part of the NHL season and the playoffs Irvin was not a well man. Ken Reardon, director of farm clubs for Canadiens and general manager of Shawinigan Falls and Quebec Hockey League, was in Detroit last Thursday for the final game of the Stanley Cup series. Reardon wasn't there as a spectator. He was there as a stand-in in case Irvin became too ill to handle the club from the bench. The grey-haired coach, his face white and drawn, put his physical feelings in the background and carried on.

A few years ago Irvin, who had his home in Regina and spent his summers there, bought a house in Montreal and has since made this city his year-round home.

It is believed that Norris has offered or will offer Irvin more than the coach can expect from Canadiens. Norris is anxious to build up the Hawks into a perennial contender. He won't be worried about the money involved.

5 Medical Co'y Wins Garrison Rifle League In the fifth and final shoot of the Garrison Rifle League the 5 Medical Coy team No. 1 won the Garrison Trophy for the second consecutive year with a total of 23 out of a possible 25 points.

Team scores for the fifth shoot are as follows: R.C.M.P. "L" Div. 474 5 pts. 5 Med. Coy Team 1 470 4 pts.

Shawinigan Falls Defeat Montreal To Lead Series SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (CP)—Shawinigan Falls Cataracts bounced back from a 3-0 deficit Tuesday night to defeat Montreal Royals 4-3 and take a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven Quebec Hockey League, final.

More than 5,000 fans saw Eddie Kachur score the winning goal from 20 feet out late in the third period.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Abbie Sisters Win Island Girls Basketball Title

The Abbie Sisters won the Prince Edward Island girls basketball title and the Physical Fitness Trophy last night by defeating the Prince of Wales College Girls 25-15 at the Prince of Wales College auditorium.

The Abbie Sisters led 11-9 at half time and outscored the Collegians 14-6 during the last half. E. Bertram was high scorer for the champions with seven points followed by Eileen MacArthur and H. MacPhail each with six.

Athletics Snap Losing Streak To Beat Indians 8-7 In 9th Inning Rally

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Kansas City Athletics swung from the heels against Mike Garcia for the second time within 24 hours (Tuesday) to stage a five-run rally in the ninth that beat the Cleveland Indians 8-7 and snapped a five-game losing streak.

Monday night, the A's had blasted Garcia out of the game with a five-run third which included three home runs while building up an 8-0 lead. The lead didn't hold up, however, and the A's lost it in the ninth 11-9.

In Tuesday's game, it was the Indians who couldn't hold the lead. Rookie Herb Score gave up homers to Gus Zernial and Jim Fingers, but fanned nine to go into the ninth with a 7-3 lead. He left after falling to retire the first three batters and Garcia came on to give up a triple by Vic Power, a pinch double by Elmer Valo and a pinch double by Bill Wilson that broke it up.

Wilson had opened the inning with the third walk off Score, who now has fanned 18 batters in two starts.

GAME RAINED OUT That was the only American League game played and the Indians to a full game deficit behind first place Boston, whose doubleheader with Washington was rained out.

In the National, Milwaukee got a gift run in the eighth to beat the Chicago Cubs 3-2. Pittsburgh at New York was postponed by cold and rain. Night games had Brooklyn at Philadelphia and Cincinnati at St. Louis.

Chicago's third straight defeat came on wildness by veteran right-hander Bob Rush. He allowed only four hits, but walked five—including four passes in the eighth that forced in the winning run. His other walk was a leadoff bases on balls to Bill Bruton in the first. Hank Aaron tripled him home and scored himself on Bobby Thomson's single.

RASCH OUT Gene Conely was the winner, allowing eight hits, while walking only one and fanning seven.

Probable Pitchers NEW YORK (AP)—Probable pitchers for today's major league games: National League New York at Pittsburgh (night)—Hearn (1-0) or Gomez (0-1) vs. Littlefield (0-1).

Philadelphia at Brooklyn (night)—Ridzik (0-0) or Meyer (0-1) vs. Loes (1-0).

St. Louis at Cincinnati (night)—Arroyo (0-0) vs. Fowler (0-2).

Milwaukee at Chicago—Burdette (1-0) vs. Jones (0-0).

American League Baltimore at New York—Palica (0-1) vs. Grim (0-1).

Boston at Washington (night)—Brewer (0-1) vs. Stobbs (0-0).

Chicago at Detroit—Consuegra (1-0) vs. Hoelt (0-1) or Lary (0-1).

(Only games scheduled)

Baseball In Brief American League Boston 5 1 .833 - New York 4 2 .667 1 Cleveland 5 3 .625 1 Chicago 2 6 .600 1 1/2 Detroit 3 3 .500 2 Washington 2 2 .500 2 Kansas City 2 5 .286 3 1/2 Baltimore 0 6 .000 5

Tuesday's Results Cleveland at Kansas City Washington at Boston (postponed) Wednesday's Games Baltimore at New York Boston at Washington (n) Chicago at Detroit Friday's Games Chicago at Kansas City Detroit at Cleveland Washington at Baltimore Boston at New York

Lawn Tennis Tournament Dates Released MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, Tuesday released dates for principal tournaments in eastern Canada this summer. They are: June 6-11: Leaside Invitation Tournament, Toronto. June 16-18: Mont Gabriel (Que.) Invitation Tournament. June 25-28: Eastern Canadian championships, Rideau Lawn Tennis Club, Ottawa. July 1-9: Northern Ontario championships, Bigwin Inn, Ont.; Notre Dame de Grace Tennis Club provincial championships, Club, Montreal. July 10-17: Canadian championships, Club de Tennis des Employes Civils, Quebec. Aug. 17-23: Nova Scotia provincial championships, Waegwoltic Club, Halifax. Aug. 18-24: Ontario provincial championships, Toronto; New Brunswick provincial championships, Rothesay. Aug. 22-27: Cape Breton championships, Sydney Tennis Club, Sydney, N. S. JUNIOR EVENTS: July 18-23: Nova Scotia championships, Cathedral Tennis Club, Halifax. July 25-30: New Brunswick championships, Rothesay. Aug. 16: Quebec championships, Mount Royal Country Club, Montreal. Aug. 12-20: Canadian championships, Rideau Lawn Tennis Club,

Baseball In Brief American League Boston 5 1 .833 - New York 4 2 .667 1 Cleveland 5 3 .625 1 Chicago 2 6 .600 1 1/2 Detroit 3 3 .500 2 Washington 2 2 .500 2 Kansas City 2 5 .286 3 1/2 Baltimore 0 6 .000 5

Tuesday's Results Cleveland at Kansas City Washington at Boston (postponed) Wednesday's Games Baltimore at New York Boston at Washington (n) Chicago at Detroit Friday's Games Chicago at Kansas City Detroit at Cleveland Washington at Baltimore Boston at New York

Above Normal Temperatures Forecast Much above normal temperatures are forecast for some areas of Canada, and above normal for the Maritime Provinces in the latest long-range weather forecast, covering next month.

Above Normal Temperatures Forecast Much above normal temperatures are forecast for some areas of Canada, and above normal for the Maritime Provinces in the latest long-range weather forecast, covering next month.

Black Hawks Seeking To Lure Coach Irvin From Canadiens

By W. R. WHEATLEY Canadian Press Staff Writer MONTREAL (CP)—With coach Dick Irvin of Montreal Canadiens rests acceptance or refusal of a shift to Chicago Black Hawks.

From an authoritative hockey source Tuesday The Canadian Press learned that an approach has already been made to the veteran coach.

Furthermore, National Hockey League governors and other top brass will meet informally in New York Thursday and Friday and it is highly significant that Irvin will be present. So will Jim Norris, president of the Black Hawks.

Whether Irvin has yet made up his mind is not yet known. He will be 63 next July 19. It is taken for granted that his course will be determined by his health as well as monetary considerations.

IRVIN NOT WELL During the latter part of the NHL season and the playoffs Irvin was not a well man. Ken Reardon, director of farm clubs for Canadiens and general manager of Shawinigan Falls and Quebec Hockey League, was in Detroit last Thursday for the final game of the Stanley Cup series. Reardon wasn't there as a spectator. He was there as a stand-in in case Irvin became too ill to handle the club from the bench. The grey-haired coach, his face white and drawn, put his physical feelings in the background and carried on.

A few years ago Irvin, who had his home in Regina and spent his summers there, bought a house in Montreal and has since made this city his year-round home.

It is believed that Norris has offered or will offer Irvin more than the coach can expect from Canadiens. Norris is anxious to build up the Hawks into a perennial contender. He won't be worried about the money involved.

5 Medical Co'y Wins Garrison Rifle League In the fifth and final shoot of the Garrison Rifle League the 5 Medical Coy team No. 1 won the Garrison Trophy for the second consecutive year with a total of 23 out of a possible 25 points.

Team scores for the fifth shoot are as follows: R.C.M.P. "L" Div. 474 5 pts. 5 Med. Coy Team 1 470 4 pts.

Shawinigan Falls Defeat Montreal To Lead Series SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (CP)—Shawinigan Falls Cataracts bounced back from a 3-0 deficit Tuesday night to defeat Montreal Royals 4-3 and take a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven Quebec Hockey League, final.

More than 5,000 fans saw Eddie Kachur score the winning goal from 20 feet out late in the third period.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Queen Receives Flowers Of Youthful Gallant BURNLEY, England (Reuters) A small boy stood sobbing by the roadside here Thursday because the Queen, making a two-day tour of the Lancashire cotton district, unintentionally spurned his tribute of roses.

Advertisement for 'TRY' shoe polish, featuring a circular logo with '2 IN' and 'SEE HOW BRIGHT A SHINE CAN BE!'

Advertisement for 'The Trout Season Is Here Again' featuring 'HICKEY'S BLACK TWIST CHEWING' and 'COW BRAND BAKING SODA'.