WE WISH

all our friends to know that we are still on CONNOLLY'S WHARF, and intend remaining there for this year at least. We would strongly advise our Country friends not to kill their horses after coming long journeys, by hauling Lumber over bare streets, when they can come to this Wharf and load their sleighs so conveniently right on the ice, which they cannot do anywhere else. Good stock now on hand. LATHS, SHINGLES, BARD'S and CEDAR POSTS galore. JAMES BARRETT, Connelly's Wharf.

Mortgage Sale.

To be sold at Public Auction, at the Court House in Charlottetown, in Queen's County, on FRIDAY, the first day of May next, at 10 o'clock, at the hour of twelve o'clock, noon, under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in a mortgage of the year 1888, made and made between James Murphy on the one part, and James McGeorge of Charlottetown, in Queen's County, on the other part. The property is situated in the Township of St. John's, in the County of St. John's, and is bounded on the north by the lot of the late James McGeorge, on the east by the lot of the late James McGeorge, on the south by the lot of the late James McGeorge, and on the west by the lot of the late James McGeorge. THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MAY 1, 1896.

—Chatham Planet.—The Globe puts its jokes and editorials on the same page. Sometimes it is hardly possible to tell which are the funniest, its political editorials or its professional jokes. —The Toronto Globe maintains that "the Opposition have performed a valuable public service in compelling the Government to go to the country without any public money to spare for campaign purposes." Our contemporary seems to forget that if the Opposition had permitted the supplies to be voted, there is a "Dominion auditor" to see to it that they shall not be diverted to campaign purposes, but used only for the public service. —The ocean, like the future (according to some theologians) is divided into three zones, the upper, the middle, and the lower. The upper zone is, perhaps, 1,200 feet in depth. The middle is about 300 or 400 feet in depth from the bottom coming upwards towards the surface. Between the upper zone of 1,200 feet and the middle zone of 400 feet lies the intermediate state. This is without life. The others abound in life. —Montreal Gazette: No Canadian Government entered on a contest against so neutralizing an opposition as faces the Conservative Ministry to-day. There are in the field Liberals, McCarthys, and Patrons, and some apparently irreconcilable Conservatives who differ with the main body of the party. It will take a clever manager than Mr. Laurier has yet shown himself to be to prevent this diversified array from cutting into each other's forces and so neutralizing the strength of the whole. The conditions are such as to make the chances against the field. —Montreal Gazette: There is nothing more certain than the possibility of the Liberals being successful on the 23rd July will lead to the main body of the party. It will take a clever manager than Mr. Laurier has yet shown himself to be to prevent this diversified array from cutting into each other's forces and so neutralizing the strength of the whole. The conditions are such as to make the chances against the field.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A CONTRADICTION. SIR,—Having noticed in THE EXAMINER of the 17th inst. a letter written by Henry Conway, of Gowan Brae, under the heading of "A Complaint," and although my name was not mentioned therein, yet having heard that Mr. Conway intended to show me up through the press as an impostor or somebody who it was dangerous to have running at large, and who made it a business to go around the country trying to do the Northwest, as well as the public who intended going to the Northwest to settle down, all the harm possible, therefore you can imagine how anxiously I have awaited each issue of THE EXAMINER to see how much of a showing up was in store for me. And, now, sir, although Mr. Conway has evidently done his utmost to "show me up" in said letter, I will leave it to the general public to judge which of us after they have read both letters, has been shown up in their true colors to the best advantage. He has seen fit to hurl all manner of names and allusions at me, with only his own words which the public hereafter shall know cannot be relied upon—to back it up. And now, sir, I have in my possession a document, in the shape of a printed letter in the columns of THE WESTY EXAMINER, which tells me, plainly and as if his word is to be believed in preference to mine, put me in a very unpleasant position before the public. Therefore it is my duty to answer Mr. Conway, and I will try, as any gentleman should do, to use only gentlemanly language until the public hears both sides of the question, and judges whether or not the other person deserves to be addressed otherwise. And now, Mr. Editor, will you kindly allow me space enough in your valuable paper to explain matters, and to tell you, the Dominion Gazette, the Rev. Leonard Gaetz, the C. P. R. Company and the public in general, precisely what I did say, and what I stand prepared to prove, and also endeavor to "show up" this very much imposed upon man in the light in which I view him, and which I should like to see him.

To begin with. On April 1st I met Mr. Conway. I was introduced to him as a gentleman who had lately arrived home from the Northwest. No sooner had the Northwest been mentioned than Mr. Conway says, "Ah, Mr. Burke, then you would know all about the Northwest, or at least that part of it in which you have been living. What part of the Northwest has been living in?" To which I answered, "I have spent about ten years between Regina, Calgary, Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan, and lived about six months in Vancouver, B. C."

"Well, what do you think of the Northwest in general, or more to the point, what do you think of the Red Deer district?" To which I answered, "Between you and me, Mr. Conway, I don't think so much of that part of the country as I used to do."

"Why?" "Well, if you have been in that part of the country for the last year you should be able to answer that question as well as I. My faith in that part of the country has been badly shaken during the past summer, and I know from my own personal knowledge that a great many people are wishing to-day that they had never seen those parts. I don't say everybody who lives in that part of the country is wishing themselves out of it, I say a great many are. There are a great many people who had great hopes of realizing all their fondest anticipations and who thought they had done so well, and who had been for the last year or so in that part of the country, and who had never seen those parts.
