

White Sox Make It Four Straight Over Yankees

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Chicago, W. So. ended all dreams of a New York run in the American League pennant race by knocking off the Yankees twice Sunday 14-2 and 6-3 to sweep the four-game series and climb to within one game of Casey Stengel's defending champion Yankees.

A pair of three-run homers by Larry Doby in the 11th inning started the White Sox off on the right foot in each game and stretched their winning streak to eight straight, longest of the year at the major circuit.

Clayton Kershner's Indians ran their winning streak to six by taking an abbreviated, six-inning game from Washington 7-2. The second game was postponed.

Home runs by Al Rosen, Earl Averill and Bill Voisard helped Bob Lemon register his ninth successive win as the fans moved to a new ballpark.

out a 3-2 victory over St. Louis after the Cardinals won the opener 8-4. Chicago and Pittsburgh also divided a doubleheader, the Pirates ending an eight-game losing streak with a 1-0 triumph after the Cubs had won the opener 5-3. The second game was halted by rain with two out in the Cubs' half of the sixth.
