The whole performance being so very well done, and the actors—all so young, Mr. Arsenault and the pupils sure deserve credit for same. This entertainment was under the sponsorship of the Ladies of the Allar Society of St. Anthony's and the proceeds went to swell their funds. —AG

IN MEMORIAM MRS. W. H. BURNS Edna May Mugford, wife of W. H. Burns, Malpeque, died in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, after having been hospitalized for over five months suffering from a fatal illness, which she bore with unusual sweetness and patience. Born in Charlottetown she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mugford (nee Prudence Way). She was educated in Charlottetown and after attending business college she was for many years a valued employee of DeBlais Bros. Early in life she was called upon to mourn all who were near and dear to her as one by one her father, sister and mother were taken from her, but later she took her place in her husband's family as a beloved sister and daughter and as such she was treasured and is deeply mourned. In the community of Malpeque where she came as a bride she was loved and honored as few people are privileged to be and because of her sincere friendly manner she made lasting friendships with one and all. She was especially kind to the very old and to the young, and since her death many little deeds of kindness have come to light. She practised and lived true Christian principles each day as though it were to be her last day. In the home she really shone and it is there she will be missed. Her heart was bound by its four walls and she was never as happy as when busily engaged making it more comfortable for her husband and friends. She was a gracious hostess and extended to all who came true friendship and hospitality. Her name shall always be fragrant and beautiful. You cannot say, you must not say that she is dead. She is just away. With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand she has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be, since she lingers there. So think of her faring on, as dear In the love of There as the love of Here, Think of her still as the same, and say She is not dead, she is just away. The following floral tributes were received and gave silent tribute to a beautiful life. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, Sea View, P. E. I. Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Irving, St. John, N.B. Canada Packers Ltd., Charlottetown, P.E.I. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burns, Kensington, P.E.I. Malpeque and Baltic W.M.S. Malpeque W. A. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hunter, Charlottetown, P.E.I.
