Well, here we are!

It was a month ago that we were preparing for our first paper. A lot of things have changed since then. We now have a better idea of what is going on and what should be going on. We have had some changes in staff as well. Some new staff were added and we now number around a dozen.

We have put out some articles that have informed students and some articles that have insulted some students. We must be setting some records for the amount of letters we receive to the paper about our stories. I hope this is a reflection of the number of students who read the paper.

I will be the first to acknowledge some of the problems we have been having. With such a new staff though, we are always improving. We would like to see some more comments on the paper, wether good or bad. It is becoming a joke around the office about the number or spelling mistakes that are in our paper, and I would like to say that I take full responsibility for this fact and that it is being corrected.

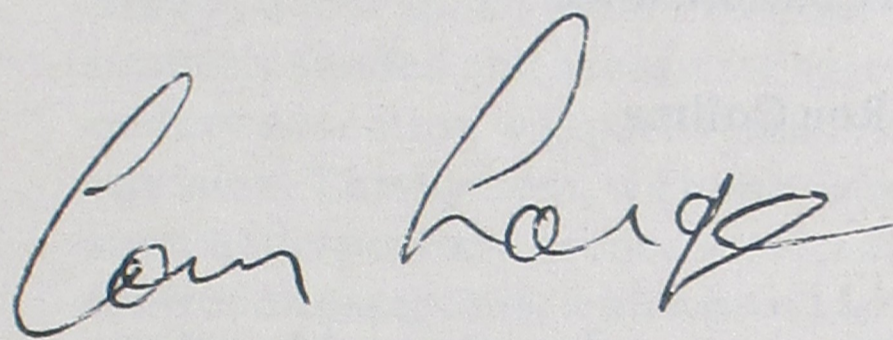

I would also like to invite anyone who would like to comment on a story in the paper or even on a story not in the paper to write a letter to the editor. The letters to the editor are my personal favourite part of the paper and I have heard others say the same thing. If you do not want us to put your name on the letter or any submission, just drop us a note telling us that.

If anybody has ideas or a story lead that they would like to see covered in the X-Press just drop us a note and maybe even a number. We try to cover as many events as possible but I know that there are more out there. If there is an event going on that requires a photographer just notify us a few days in advance and we will cover it.

Any club or organization that would like a write up in the paper can submit it to us in the office on the bottom floor of main in room 06. We are always looking for more stories.

Finally, I would like to invite anyone who is interested in helping out with the paper to drop by the office on Tuesday night for our weekly staff meeting, we would love to have you join us. You can also drop by any other time, there is usually someone there.

Well, I guess I have bored you enough for today. Remember to read our submission policy before you submit and keep reading.
