IN MEMORIAM ALEXANDER MacWILLIAMS

There passed away at his home in Eidon on January 17th, Alexander MacWilliams in his 88th year. Although not in the best of health for the past four years, his passing came as a great shock to his many friends and neighbors.

Alex, by which he was known to everyone, was born in Ocean View, February 12th, 1865, the son of Hughie MacWilliams and Catherine Buchanan. He spent the earlier part of his life in Bangor, Maine, later returning to settle with his family in Eidon.

Alex was a quiet, peaceful man who won the respect of his fellow workmen and neighbors alike, with his ever-readiness to lend a helping hand to those about him. He was a God-fearing Christian, who devoutly followed the precepts of his religion. He was a member of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Bangor.

Surviving are his wife, Isabella MacWilliams, two sons, Hughie at home, and Raymond of Boston, Mass.; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Flaherty of Woburn, Mass., and one brother, William, of Ocean View; also five grandchildren.

The funeral was held from St. John's Presbyterian Church, Monday, January 19th at 2 p.m. with Rev. Mr. Hales conducting the services. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Your gentle face and patient smile With gladness we recall, You had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all. You are not forgotten, loved one, Nor will you ever be, As long as life and memory last We will remember thee.

Montague Home, School Meeting

Mrs. J. D. MacLeod presided at the regular meeting of the Montague Home and School Association held in the school last evening. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Arnold Wightman, and were approved as read.

Mr. Harold Stewart reported that blinds for the projection room had been made by Mrs. Horace Fraser and Mrs. James Cudmore at an approximate cost of fifteen dollars. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the ladies for their splendid work.

Mrs. Ethel Stewart reported that arrangements had been finalized for sponsoring the Shur-Gain amateur program and that a meeting of her committee would be held at the close of the association meeting. Miss West and Miss MacKenzie were appointed to take charge of the sale of fudge at the concert. Miss Underhay was placed in charge of purchasing material for the projector cover.

It was decided that Wednesday, March 4, will be parents day at the school and every parent was urged to take advantage of attending classes and observing the work that is being done by students and teachers.

The next meeting will be held in April when the guest speaker will be Mr. Harold Stewart.
