DETROIT, Oct. 11 —(AP)— Mrs. Henry Ford left nearly half of an estimated $8,500,000 estate to the family-founded Edison Institute for Educational Purposes. Her will, filed for probate today, bequeathed the remainder to relatives and made cash bequests to five long-time servants of the Ford family.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 11 —(AP)— The United Nations Secretary-General's representative in Korea was reported to have told the new U. N. Korea Commission today that mopping up operations still are under way in the southern part of that country and it is not yet time for the commission to go there.

Phillies Sign Southpaw For $40,000 Bonus

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11 —(AP)— The most sought-after college baseball player in the United States was signed by Philadelphia Phillies today — for a $40,000 bonus, and "because he loves the Phillies."
Nathan (Babe) Alexander, general publicist of the National League champions, disclosed that the Phils paid young Tom Casagrande the second highest bonus in the club's history. He said scouts rate the kid a potential "Babe Ruth."
Casagrande is a 20-year-old left-handed pitcher who also hits the ball a country mile. Ten major league clubs sought to sign him. "They all wanted the kid in the worst way," said Alexander.
"Why when he worked out in St. Louis, 20 members of the St. Louis Cardinal organization watched him in action. The New York Yankees, Boston Braves, New York Giants, Cincinnati Reds, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox all tried to grab him."
"But we got him."
"To top it off, Casagrande is the nephew of George Silvey, assistant to the director of the St. Louis Cardinal farm system."
Casagrande is a six foot, three-inch strong boy who pitched for Whitinsville, Mass., in a New England league last summer. He won nine and lost two. And in his spare time — when he wasn't pitching — hit .429 as an outfielder. He throws left and bats left.

U. S. Hockey League Opens This Weekend

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 11 — (AP)— The United States Hockey League will swing into its 1950-51 campaign this week-end, with two new towns represented and three new playing coaches to be introduced to the fans.
New teams in the circuit will be Denver and Milwaukee.
First games, Saturday night, will have Omaha's Knights, last year's winners of the Directors' Cup, playing at Tulsa, and Kansas City entertaining St. Paul. Sunday St. Paul will play at Denver and Milwaukee will take on Kansas City on the former's ice.
It will be the first competition for Kansas City under the direction of Wilf Field, former National and American League player, who will take his regular turn on defence in addition to coaching.
Kansas City Mohawks will operate without a major-league club tieup this year. A group, with Vera Banks as general manager, will run the club under a franchise purchased, but not used by the father-son combination of Paul and Morris Fogel. The Fogels felt they could not put a team on the ice this year and granted permission for Banks' group to use the franchise.
Tulsa likewise will sport a new playing coach. He is Bud Polie, 26-year-old former National League player. The third newcomer will be Red Hammill, who played last year with Chicago Black Hawks.
Hammill will direct Milwaukee Sea Gulls, the new team in the league operated by William J. Tobin, who sold his Kansas City chise purchased, but not used by the father-son combination of Paul and Morris Fogel. The Fogels felt they could not put a team on the ice this year and granted permission for Banks' group to use the franchise.

Denver, the other new club in the circuit, will have the old Minneapolis lineup virtually intact, with the veteran Bill Cook, former New York Ranger star of years gone by, as coach. The Minneapolis franchise was purchased last spring by a group of Denver business men.

The other two teams, St. Paul and Omaha, will have the same coaches as last year. Clint Smith will again act as manager-coach for the rebuilt St. Paul Saints, while Omaha will have its veteran "Mud" Bruneteau directing the activities of another youthful club
