Car And Oil Truck Collide, Two Hurt

Two men are in hospital and another has been treated and is still in that hospital in "fair" condition, reportedly suffering from a fractured knee, a dislocated hip and chest injuries. Mr. Chaisson, who was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital is still in that hospital after being treated for an injured chest and a dislocated hip. He is described as "improved" and "resting comfortably". Constables Harris and Burns of the Charlottetown detachment, RCMP, were investigating the accident. The Creamer car was towed to the city by Walter Brehaut's towing service.

Irish Play Leaves Them Laughing

The audience of 800 was hilarious, rolling in the aisles" as the Rev. Eileen Norton presented its annual St. Patrick's play last night at Birchwood High School auditorium. This year's play "Becora, Look Who's Here" a three-act, situation comedy, was carried very well by the cast and the ease with which the age lines were presented, made them doubly funny. The play centers around Larry Ferguson (Dave Gallant) and his wife Maureen (Corina Steele) who, when the audience learns that Larry is living on an allowance from an Aunt Alice (Eileen Norton) who lives in the south of France. The allowance agreement states, however, that Larry must not marry. The fun begins when Aunt Alice arrives on the scene and Larry tries to disguise the fact that he is married. This play is literally too funny for words, so you'll have to see it to believe it. It is playing again tonight at the Birchwood

High School auditorium, and the curtain rises at 8:15 p.m. Specialties between the acts were Dale Schwartz, Kelya Josey, the precision routine of the PWC Majorities under the direction of Sue Sheffield, and the father and daughter act of Jackie and Jacqueline Doelle. The play is being directed by J. Pius Callaghan, CDA.

Georgetown Lions Discuss Several Proposed Projects

GEORGETOWN — King Lion Howard S. MacLean, presided at a recent meeting of the Georgetown Lions Club held in the Council chambers. Treasurer Frank Parker presented an encouraging financial report. Charles Mar reported that the Koy Hall is not available for rent. The meeting gave preliminary discussion to a number of prospective projects which the club hopes to participate in, within the near future. They were passed to the project committee for further study and a report at the next meeting.

Definite word from the project committee on an act to be put on by one or more of Georgetown's young people at the Maritime Variety Show early in May in Kensington and sponsored by the Kensington Lions Club, is expected within a short time. The essay writing contest "Care of Your Eyes" is now under way among grade seven pupils in Georgetown School and throughout the province. The Georgetown club has donated three prizes for this essay in the area designated to them by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, who are sponsoring.

celebrating couple on behalf of the community and asked them to accept with best wishes of all their friends the two beautiful and comfortable arm chairs on which they were seated. A kitchen stool, several flowering plants and a wedding cake were among the other tangible expressions of felicitations and good will. Following delicious refreshments served by the group engaged in a hearty sing-song and later gathered around some of the many tables provided, for various games.

Marshfield Honors Couple

Neighbors from the Marshfield community along with personal friends from Dunstafnage, Charlottetown, Southport and vicinity gathered in the Marshfield hall last night to celebrate the 25th wedding anniversary of Rupert and Marguerite Godfrey. The guests of honor were escorted to the platform by neighbors Cecil and Helen Stinson and the pastor of the congregation, Hugh Lowry, addressed the
