RETIRE OLD CARS
NEW YORK (AP)—The age of wood has come to an end on the city transit system—well, almost. The last 50 all-wooden cars, now operating on an elevated line in Brooklyn, will be retired April 11. Replacing them will be other cars built in 1905 but remodelled so that steel has replaced most of the wood.

Keen Interest Displayed In April Blood Donor Clinics

"We have to sell our enthusiasm for the Blood Donor Service to the members of our organizations", said Mr. Fremont Archer, chairman of the Charlottetown Red Cross Blood Donor Committee last evening. Mr. Archer was addressing a keenly interested group of representatives from many organizations from Charlottetown and the surrounding districts at Red Cross Headquarters last evening. The meeting was a preliminary one called to make detailed plans for the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinics to be held at the Clover Club, Canadian Legion Building, in Charlottetown on April 28th and 29th with an objective of 1,200 donors. Numerous excellent suggestions made by several members in attendance at last night's enthusiastic meeting will be implemented by the Executive Committee.

A new competition between the R.C.A.F. Association and the Main Brace Association was announced by Mr. Archer, who also said that former competitions between St. Dunstan's and Prince of Wales, between the different Classes at St. Dunstan's and the various Labor Unions would again be conducted. He urged other clubs and organizations to enter into friendly challenges. Representatives of the different groups left the meeting determined to make the forthcoming Charlottetown Blood Donor Clinics the best ever, and took with them cards to be used in signing up members for the "Life Saver Club" which will again be featured.

MRS. RUBY HOULE, C.D.A., has been saying for a number of years "this is my swan song" in so far as directing plays are concerned. But if last night's performance of the Irwin Christian Fellowship Group in "Joseph of Arimathea" is any criterion of the direction which Mrs. Houle is still able to give, her services will be in demand for some time to come. Following the presentation of the religious drama in Heartz Hall last night, Mrs. Houle was kindly remembered with a gift from the I.S.F.G. Miss Eleanor Bell, program convenor made the presentation; Miss Edith Anderson, President of the Group (centre) extended thanks to the popular producer. The production will be repeated on Good Friday night.

Highly Acclaimed Drama To Be Repeated On Friday Night

A splendid presentation of a moving religious drama, "Joseph of Arimathea" was given last night by the Irwin Christian Fellowship Group at Heartz Hall. Opinions expressed by the appreciative audience have persuaded the Director, Mrs. Ruby Houle, C.D.A., and her cast to give a repeat performance on Friday night at 8:00 o'clock. The lead roles of Joseph and Nicodemus are played by

Little Theatre Executive Meets

The regular meeting of the Little Theatre Guild executive met at the home of Miss Barbara Rogers, Saturday evening. Routine business was attended to with reports from each committee being heard. The casting chairman reported that the play for children "The Princess and the Swineherd" will have an afternoon performance. A number of new players will be seen. These are: Lee Kitchen, Heather Matheson, Patsy McLeod and Leslie Kelly. Others in the cast have been a number of other Little Theatre productions. They are: Edythe Pryce, Eric MacGregor, Barry Bugden, Marjorie Ranahan. The president, Sterling Inman, announced a nominating committee had been chosen and the annual meeting would be held on May 28th.

To Make Deal With U. S. Firm

The Griffin Fisheries plant at Souris is expected to be leased to an American processing firm when the Government meets this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This was announced yesterday by Premier Matheson who stated that negotiations that would include an option of purchase have been discussed. The Griffin plant under the management of Albert Griffin began operations in the Spring of 1956 after it had received substantial financial assistance through the Industrial Establishment Promotions Act.

Failure on the part of the company to meet its loan commitments obliged the Government to take over the plant at the end of last year's fishing season. Equipped with modern machinery the plant is capable of a large output of processed fillets. A fishmeal plant for the processing of by products is operated in conjunction therewith.

Ferry Sails From Ch'town To Pictou

The Prince Nova which operates on the Wood Islands-Caribou run is now undergoing repairs at Pictou, Nova Scotia. The ferry which has been tied up at Bruce Stewart's wharf during the winter months left Charlottetown last Tuesday and became the first vessel to enter Pictou Harbor this season. During her tie-up at Charlottetown repairs on the ship were

EVANGELIST

Beginning Sunday, April 6 and continuing through the week from Monday till Friday, Mr. William Weale will lead the Central Christian Church in a Post-Easter series. Not a stranger, and popularly known for his splendid Singing and Instrumental ability, Evangelist Weale will present the gospel message each night. As Minister of the Summerside Christian Church for the past seven years Mr. Weale comes highly recommended and will be warmly welcomed by all. Those having heard him sing and play will desire to hear him preach the message of the Risen Lord. These meetings will be held at the usual hour of 8:00 p.m.

Lions Plan New Light Bulb Drive

The "Light Bulb" campaign sponsored annually by the Charlottetown Lions Club, this year will be held April 9-10-11. Decision to hold their annual drive for funds on these dates was made at a regular monthly meeting held last night at the Queen Hotel. It is the sole means that this Club uses to procure funds for their charitable work, members were told. The meeting was chaired by the president, Bob Younker, and featured the presentation of membership certificates to new members Donald Gallant and Robert Stewart. These presentations were made by the Deputy Governor, John Van Marion.

Prescriptions AND ALL DRUG NEEDS

A satisfactory report on the conduct of the this year's Blind Bowling project was submitted to the meeting by Keith Cameron. Games were played weekly at the Rollaway Alleys, and the members noted with appreciation the fact that the Rollaway management had made the time available each week free of charge. The following nominating committee was appointed to select a proposed slate of officers for submission at next month's regular meeting: Ernie Matheson, chairman, Jack Stevenson and John Van Marion.
