

Midget Abbies To Springhill Sun.

Charlottetown Midget Abbies, coached by Charlie Ryan, travel to Springhill Sunday to do battle with Halifax Orioles in a sudden death game for the Maritime Midget Baseball crown.

The N.B.P.E.I. champs look forward to a hang-up game with the Orioles, last year's Maritime champions. Game time is 2 o'clock.

NHL Clubs Battle Tonight; Shack in Leaf Doghouse

There is also a full schedule Sunday night, with Bruins tackling Chicago Black Hawks in Boston, Toronto at New York and Montreal returning to Detroit's visit.

There was a lot of talk after Thursday night's game about Bobby Perreault, the New Boston goaltender who is hailed by some as the saviour of a club that has finished last for the last two seasons and second last the season before.

Shack in the spotlight. The subject of rave notices from manager-coach Punch Imlach for his performance in the all-star game, the 35-year-old native of Sudbury, Ont., is in the doghouse now.

Rain Gave Winds Threaten World Series Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — resume play today at 4 p.m. Rain or 45-mile-an-hour gusts winds forced postponement of the King's County Baseball League is almost forgotten. At the present time, the finals are supposed to be in the process of being played between Morell and Georgetown.

tarpaun and threatened to carry it away despite a number of 25-pound weights. If they had tried to play ball Friday, this could have been the day of the first 900-foot home run in the winds that made it difficult to open doors and shattered glass in downtown hotel windows. Even on a sunny day, Candlestick has its well-publicized wind tunnel.

CDP Race Season Closes Tonight

Charlottetown Driving Park closes out a most successful harness racing season tonight with a top notch nine dash card that has all the earmarks of a thriller.

Setting fans will have difficulty picking a winner in each and every dash as the entries appear evenly matched. The main event will see Ray Grattan in Helen's Dream, Blue Sky Lark, Jolly Abb and Scottish Light vying for honors. Bud N York, owned by Col. Dan a d driven by Emmet 'Cowboy' Bernard, is closing out the double with a flourish, scoring a season dash victory Wednesday night. The only other double winner on card however, The Pontoon owned Helen's Dream, will be out to capture the major slice of the $250 purse.

Close finishes and thrilling drives are anticipated in each of the night dashes. Races get underway at 8 o'clock sharp.
