

OPEN READINGS FOR MARION HALL

Certainly creativity is an essential component of any education. Author William Blake would argue that a non-creative mind serves to destroy man's humanness and in the process, renders not a well rounded individual but, rather, a series of indifferent persons who do not live but exist.

OK students or anyone interested, here's your chance to prove your worth and at the same time, have a good time doing it. If you are at all creative or want to see creativity in action, reserve each Tuesday evening of this year, beginning September 25, for Marion Hall Lounge. Beginning at 7pm, UPEI's English Society will open the floor in the interest of 'beefing up' our intellectual climate here at UPEI by way of good clean fun.

Creativity, of course, knows no barriers. Be it a provocative editorial or a solemn poem, your ideas will be most welcomed. Or, if your mind needs a work out or some creative entertainment, come to the open readings, listen, and talk it over. I'm your moderator, Mark Ledwell, and expect to see our creative minds emerge from the woodwork. So, let's not disappoint Mr. Blake and get the show on the road.

Hopefully, they will be installed shortly, at a reasonable cost.

How does one determine a "Reasonable cost"? Funding for student activities is usually based upon participation. Unfortunately at Mondays meeting, no one attended

Now that CIMN is in running order, let's get her moving. There are some unavoidable hold-ups, as the Personal Board does not meet until Sept 20, but lets' not let that hold us back.

We must over look some mistakes, as the Student Union is busy. They must be, already they spent a Thousand dollars.

Letters & Opinions

Dear Editor,

A special note of thanks should go to those responsible for the renovations to CIMN. They are definately a good start. By no means is the job near completed, but for a Thousand what is one to expect. The Engineer, a non UPEI student was unavailable to give comment as he is living in Halifax. It seems some parts have been ordered the cost of which no one seems to certain of.

PHOTO CLUB

Looking for eager students to work on yearbook. Layouts, designing, copywriting, etc. Please contact John Gallant at 964-2505 or be at NEXUS office next Monday September 17 at 7:00 PM (4th floor, Main).

Have fun and get involved at UPEI!

There will be a general meeting for those students interested in joining the UPEI Photo Club. Experience is not necessary. The meeting will take place in the SUN/Yearbook offices Monday at 7:00PM.

THE BARN

Centre for Student Union activities at U.P.E.I. Owned, operated, and maintained by the students of U.P.E.I.

FEATURING

THE PANTHER LOUNGE - A licensed lounge especially for U.P.E.I. students.

DAY STUDENTS' CAFETERIA - Located on 3rd floor. Featuring short-order items and daily luncheon specials. Designed for between-class coffee breaks, lunch hour relaxation, or just plain loafing. A great place to stifle the munchies or meet friends over a cup of coffee or lunch.

Prices designed with you in mind. STUDENT UNION OFFICES - 1st floor, turn to the right as you enter the building. Nerve centre for all Student Union activities, and a great place to find out about everything else that is happening. This is not a private office, but is more a social centre for Student Union members, which you are. A large central area inside the office leaves plenty of room for lounging. The secretary's name is Pat, and the Business Manager is Mickey. Drop in and say hello.

THE BARN is a big building with room for everyone, so come on down and fill up your space.
