The SCOTCH WHISKY chosen by the Red Cross Society, London, for use by the invalided troops and hospitals in South Africa, is the famous WHITE HORSE CELLAR brand of MacKie & Co., Distillers, Limited, Elay and Glasgow, one of the oldest firms in the trade.

On intimation of this, Messrs MacKie, with usual generosity, presented 200 cases free of charge, and shipped them by first steamer to the Cape. One of the family is a volunteer in the Imperial Yeomanry, and on his way now to the Cape. It is hoped that he may give a good account of himself.

THE ABOVE MENTIONED BRAND IS FOR SALE AT

Jokelets That May Be Taken With a Tinge of Seriousness.

Bill—Did you ever see a river rise?
Jill—Sure. I've seen it leave its bed.

Yeast—Does the editor use a steel or a gold pen?

Crimsonbeak—I think his friend told me it was one of those trenchant pens.

"Say when, Miss Daisy," remarked the fresh youth as he was pouring a glass of water for the young lady.

"Oh, this is so sudden, Mr. Frost!" exclaimed the damsel, grabbing for the young man.

"This account is altogether too highly colored," said the editor, looking over the reporter's copy.

"Then why color it more?" inquired the young man as he saw the blue pencil go through it.

Sue Brette—Did the audience throw anything at the actors in the new play the other night?

Footie Lighte—No; why?
"Why, I notice the dramatic critics did the next day."

"Excuse my referring to so old a subject," said the funny man. "but do you know the quickest way to bring a man up with a sharp turn?"

"No," replied his friend.
"Put a bent pin under him."

Thin Babies

often develop into weak, delicate, backward children; undersized, nervous, feeble, adults. Lack of nourishment is the cause.

Scott's Emulsion is the remedy. A little of it three or four times a day will do wonders. The pinched, sad faces become round and rosy; the wasted limbs plump and firm. If your baby is not doing well, try this great food-medicine.

A Cheerful Experience.
"I had a cheerful experience the other day," remarked a man who had spent several days at one of the springs for rheumatism.

"What was it?" asked the observer.
"I was carried into a depot near the springs and deposited on a seat near an old woman, who looked at me with a complacent smile and inquired, 'Been hurt?'"

"No," I replied.
"Rumatiz?"
"Yes."
"Water do you any good?"
"Not much."

"Well, lots of people come here for the water. The patient returns home, and the papers announce that Mr. So-and-so has returned from the springs much improved by the use of the water; but if you read the papers in a few days you will see that Mr. So-and-so has died and been buried." The conversation was too cheerful to be continued.

A Burning Prayer.
The Cleveland Plain Dealer tells this story of the Virginia backwoods: A white minister after conducting services at a colored church asked an old deacon to lead in prayer. The dusky brother in his fervent appeal asked that a shower of heavenly grace be permitted to fall upon his white friend. He said:

"O Lor', give him de eye of de eagle dat he may spy out our sins afar off! Weld his han's to de gospel plow; tie his tongue to de lines of truf and nail his ear to de gospel post! An, O Lor, bow his haid way down—an behin' his knees, an his knees way down—an in some lonesome dark an narrow valley, O Lor', whar much prayer is needed to be made—ah! Den 'noint him ovah wid de blessed ile of de kerosene of salvation, an sot him on flah wid de match of faith made perfec'—amen!"

France Outside of Paris.
To get a correct idea of the French nation one must abandon Paris and get out among the people of the provinces. Paris is a sinkhole of rottenness, but the people who dwell outside that modern Gomorrah are sound and upright and patriotic, living wholesome and useful lives. When you get out in the rural districts, a charming sight is presented of beautifully cultivated farms, each farm being as trim and neat as a flower garden. There is not a foot of waste land to be seen. The first thing that strikes a stranger is the profusion of fruit. Nowhere can be seen more luscious pears, peaches and grapes.—Washington Post.

How He Got Elsewhere.
"How did he escape?" inquired the detective.
"Well," replied the turnkey with the damaged eye, "he sort o' nicknamed himself out."
"What?"
"He pried his cell door open with a jimmy. Then he knocked me down with a billy."
"Yes?"
"And then he sallied out."—Chicago Tribune.
