Arsenault - Rogers

Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on May 10, in St. Marks R. C. Church, Lot 7, when the Rev. Fr. Trainor united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peir Rogers of Lot 7, to John Eusebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arsenault of Howlan.

The bride was very charming in a light navy gabardine suit with grey accessories and was attended by Miss Lauretta Arsenault, sister of the groom, who was gowned in a wine suit with blue accessories.

The groom was capably attended by Dannie Rogers, brother of the bride.

The groom's gift to his bride was a white prayer book and the bride's gift to the groom was a shaving outfit and pen light. To the bridesmaid, a compact with gold initial; to the groomsmen, a bill fold.

After Mass the bridal party and others gathered at the home of the bride, where a goose and chicken dinner, with all the fixings, and every kind of sweets imaginable was served.

Rev. Father Trainor sat at the head of the table. In the evening the bridal party and about seventy invited guests gathered at the home of the groom where a delicious supper was served them.

For the dance in the evening, the bride wore a gown of light blue with black velvet trimmings, while the bridesmaid wore a gown of darker blue taffeta. The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts, including quite a lot of money, a beautiful bedroom suite, from the bride's parents and a bureau from the parents of the groom.

Previous to their marriage on May 3 they were tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride and when the guests had all arrived the gifts were brought to the seated bride and groom and opened by Beatrice Arsenault with the accompanying verses read by Mrs. Henry Gallant and presented and arranged on a table by another sister, Miss Lauretta Arsenault. For the present the happy couple will reside in Lot 7 amid the best wishes of their many friends and relatives.

While the guest of honor blew out the candles the little guests sang "A Happy Birthday To You". Assisting Marilyn Anne's mother in serving were Mrs. Johnny and Mrs. John McDougall. Marilyn Anne was the recipient of many pretty gifts.

HOT IN LONDON LONDON, June 6 - (Reuters) - It was so hot in London today - 83 degrees Fahrenheit - that lawyers removed their wigs in court. London, in its fourth day of the heat wave, was not the hottest place in Britain, however. That dubious honor went to Southport, Lancashire, which reported 92 degrees.
