Lynching in the United States.

The number of reported murders in the States in 1882 was 1,266. There were only 93 persons executed and 118 lynched—in all 211. Consequently very nearly 1,055 criminals escaped. We say very nearly, because some criminals may have had more than one victim each. If any of those who were executed and lynched were innocent, then perhaps more than 1,055 criminals escaped. Under any government where 1,173 murderers out of every 1,266 escape legal execution, it is a wonder that there are not 1,000 lynched, instead of 118. A man planning a cold blooded murder may safely calculate upon more than eleven chances to escape to less than one for his detection, conviction and execution; and taking in the conjoint probabilities of legal and extra legal capital punishment, he may safely calculate one five chances to one to escape.—Charles F. Deems in the Century.

Wheat in the Northwest.

The Winnipeg Free Press (Liberal), Feb. 14th, says: "An estimate of the amount of wheat marketed in this province to date can be obtained from the reports of the grain inspection here and at Port Arthur. At Winnipeg, up to February 1st, of the 1887 crop 2,533,950 bushels were inspected. Of this a small portion which was consigned by the lake route was probably re-inspected in Port Arthur. At this point 3,400,000 bushels have been inspected. About the same date the C. P. R. reported something over a million bushels as in store throughout the province. From one-half to three-quarters of a million has also gone out of the province in the shape of flour. Lastly, there must be about a quarter of a million in store along the line of the M. & N. W., and not included in the C. P. R. report. According to this showing the farmers have disposed of close upon eight million bushels of wheat, or (say) two-thirds of the quantity available for export."

Sources of Fallen Women.

A lady greatly interested in charitable work testified the other day before a committee of the Massachusetts Legislature that the class of fallen women was recruited, not from the lowest or poorest portion of the population, but mainly from a class living in comfort, many coming, as she said, from "pleasant homes." What is the moral of this? Or is there a moral to it? Is it that the pressure of real want being removed, artificial wants begin to assert themselves with tyrannous force? Is it that those who rise to comfort, or what ought to be such, reach that stage unprepared mentally and morally to cope with its temptations? In these days of popular education this ought not to be the case. It would certainly seem that poverty does not lead to vice nearly as much as wantonness and an insane desire for ceaseless amusement. The "intoxicating cup" is not the only source of danger or misery to modern society.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2002 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
