

Bedeque Notes

Mr. Reginald Murray, this village, who has joined the Air Force, left on Monday, March 24th, for Trenton, Ontario.

Miss Audrey Reeves, North Bedeque, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Affleck for several days.

Mr. A. H. Bryenton, Kensington, was in this community on Thursday, March 27th on business.

Mr. Earle O'Brien, Truro, N. S., Maritime Representative of the J. R. Watkins Company, has been in Bedeque on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Craig have had their daughter, Norma, R. N., with them for the past week. Miss Craig is on the staff of the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Arnold MacLean, and her two little sons, Charlottetown, are spending some time here as guests of Mrs. MacLean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gardiner. They arrived here on Sunday, March 23rd.

Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. W. J. Reid, Middleton, is gradually improving in health after being on the sick list for the past month or so.

Congratulations to Mr. Harold Affleck, whose seed potatoes were found to be free from virus diseases, when tests were made in Florida. Mr. Affleck grows Katahdin seed, and he is the only Island grower whose Katahdin seed passed this test in Florida this winter.

The "Half Century" Club met at the home of Mrs. Vernon Craig on March 17th with eleven members present. Roll call was answered with gifts for "Treasure Trail" and usual business was conducted. Program consisted of a poem and two contests. Lunch was served and social hour followed.

An enjoyable evening was spent in the Bedeque School room, on Wednesday, 26th, when the Women's Institute sponsored a St. Patrick's concert. Mr. Irving Toombs acted as chairman. Mrs. Edna Jenkins led a hearty sing-song, followed by a program of monologues, dialogues, readings, duets and solos. Lunch was served and the gathering dispersed after singing the National Anthem. A good sum was realized for school purposes.

The condition of Mrs. Stanley Jack, who was seriously injured in a car accident at Bedeque on Thursday, March 27th, shows gradual improvement in the Prince County Hospital. The two men, John Smallman, Mrs. Jack's son-in-law, and Don MacPherson, both employees on the Abegweit, have gone to their homes. They were not so badly injured as Mrs. Jack who is expected to be able to return to her home in Bedeque, within a week or so.

On March 31st, the club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Gardiner. Twelve members were present and roll call was answered by quotations and proverbs. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a bar and pantry sale to be held later. A committee was also appointed to purchase goods for a box to send to England. Two contests were enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

On Sunday March 30th at the close of the evening service in Borden United Church, the members of the Fellowship Club met in the Sunday School room. After the usual sing-song, one of the members arose and read a very complimentary address to their pastor, Rev. W. Burton Crowe, expressing their appreciation of his cooperation in their meetings, and as his birthday was near at hand, presented him with a beautiful leather-bound copy of the Church Hymnary. Mr. Crowe, who was greatly taken by surprise graciously thanked all for their kindness and lovely gift. Borden is one of the appointments on the Bedeque charge.

LONDON.—(CP)—Ivyone Guthrie, director of the Old Vic theatre, said during a lecture he would bet that Shakespeare had not the vaguest idea what he was doing when writing "Hamlet." Guthrie said it was "produced from his sub-conscious."
